DEDICATION

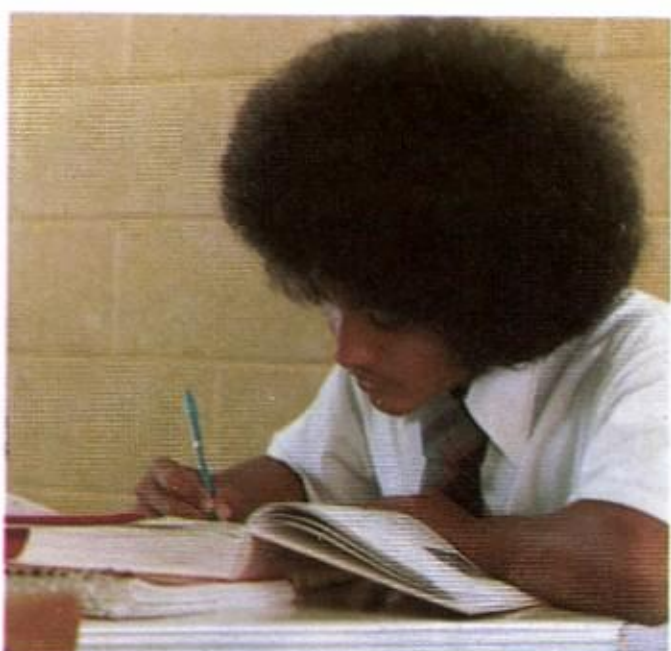

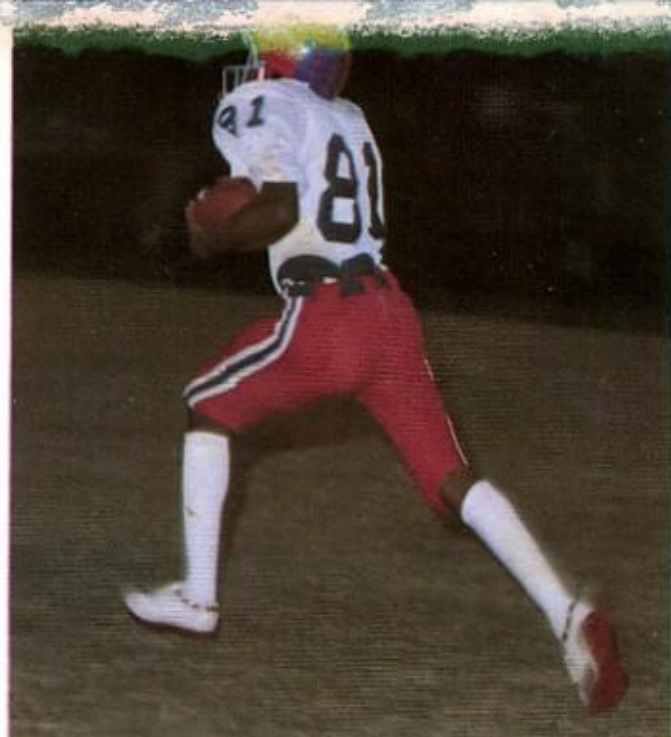

Proudly, the 1979 Mitre is dedicated to Mr. Chuck Cocca, a familiar face at Dunne for six years. His relationship with the class of '79 and with Bishop Dunne can best be described by the terminology he often uses to teach his literature classes — "the romantic triangle."

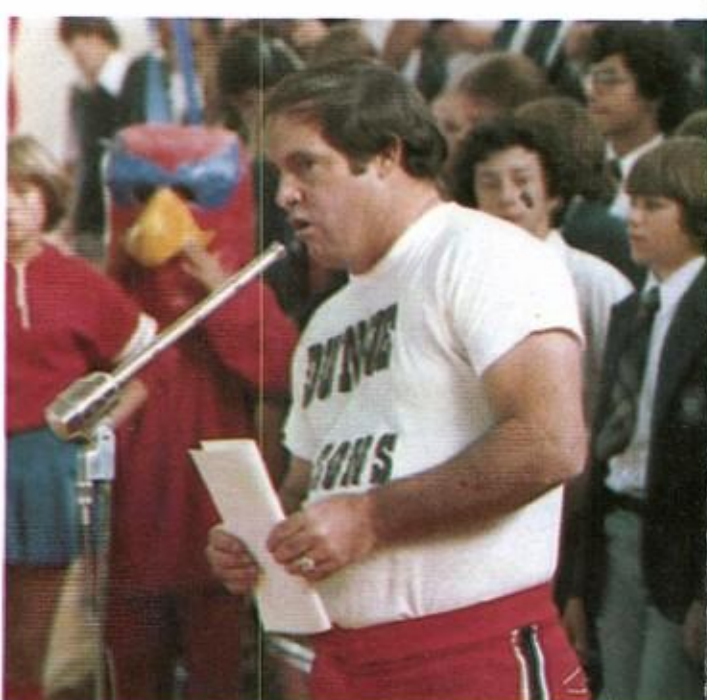

At the top of the triangle is Mr. C; at the left corner, the BDHS community; at the right corner, the senior class of 1979. Mr. C has always given himself to the school totally and unselfishly. To our class, particularly, he has given spirit and unity in times when we needed it most with a smile, a laugh, and his famous "chuckle." Because of his patience, the class of 1979 has learned many valuable lessons. We, the seniors of 1979, cannot possibly give to him all that is in our hearts.

We will try to say thanks by dedicating this yearbook to him. With great affection, we hope to close the "romantic triangle" and always return to Mr. Cocca those lessons which he has tried to make a permanent part of us.

Pope Paul VI

Pope John Paul I

Pope John Paul II

The school year 1978-1979 began with an historic event. For the first time, the world has experienced three papacies in one year.

Pope Paul VI began his ministry in 1963. During his ministry, the ecumenical council Vatican II was held. On August 6, 1978, Pope Paul VI's ministry ended with his death. The Pope's successor was Cardinal Albino Luciani, the Patriarch of Venice. Cardinal Luciani took the name of his two immediate predecessors and became Pope John Paul I. Yet the Pope's ministry lasted only thirty-four days — one of the shortest in history.

On October 16, 1978, the papal conclave elected the first non-Italian Pope in 453 years, Cardinal Karol Wojtyla of Poland. Cardinal Wojtyla took the name of his predecessor Pope John Paul I, becoming Pope John Paul II, the two hundredth and sixty-fourth pope since St. Peter. In Pope John Paul II's inaugural speech, he acknowledged "our common willingness to establish closer and closer relationships among ourselves and to overcome the divisions inherited from the past." We all will pray for Pope John Paul throughout his ministry.

Dear Graduates:

I congratulate you, the graduating Class of 1979, as you complete your studies at Bishop Dunne High School.

For some of you, the time spent at Bishop Dunne will serve as a stepping stone to further studies. For others, this will mark the end of your formal education. Whichever it may be, you have received an education which has striven to prepare you for life as a well-integrated person, one of good Christian character, endowed with the principles of faith which should direct you to your final end — eternal life with God.

I pray that the investment you, your parents and the Catholic Church have made in your formation during these years at Bishop Dunne High School will be most rewarding. May you be good citizens and faith-filled people of God.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Mass of the Holy Spirit

The Christian Community at Bishop Dunne gathered around the Eucharist celebrated by our chaplain, Father Rick Tullius, early in September. At this time, the school community prayed for the Spirit sent by Jesus to renew and strengthen our faith, our talents, and our efforts. The Bishop Dunne Liturgical Committee planned the Mass, and led the music and singing. Eucharistic ministers, officers of parent groups, and student leaders, were commissioned.

Imagination becomes reality.

The best word that can be used to describe the senior retreat is "motivating." It motivated many of us to evaluate our goals and commitments. We established new commitments to ourselves and each other. Although we had been "seniors" quite a while, we did not truly become the "Class of 79" until after the retreats. It will always stand out in our minds as one of the most meaningful experiences of our lives.

Beanie Ceremony

On September 6, 1978, freshmen received the traditional Bishop Dunne beanie from the Seniors of 1979. The beanie is a symbol of initiation to all freshmen at Bishop Dunne. After receiving their beanies, the freshmen joined the Seniors in singing the Alma Mater.

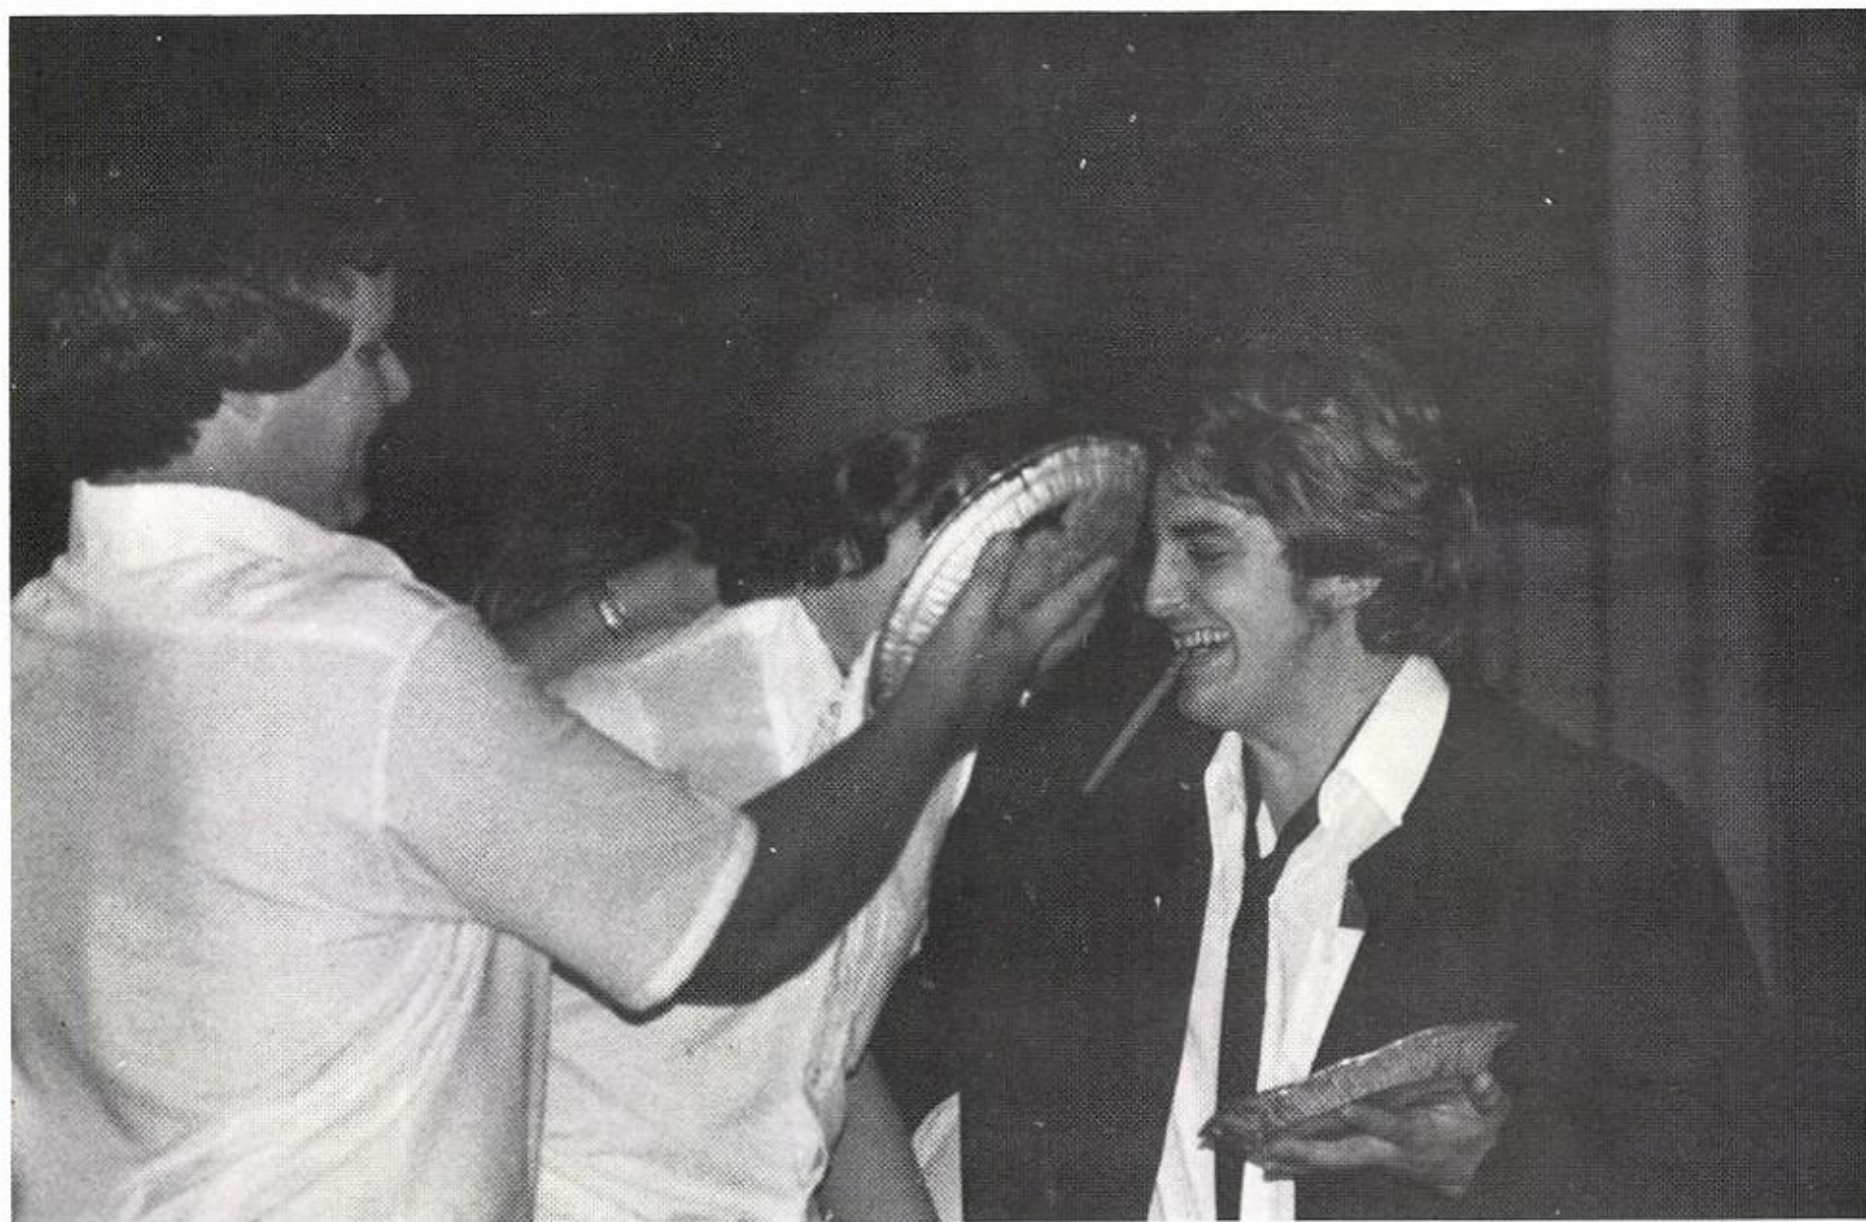

Judgment Day

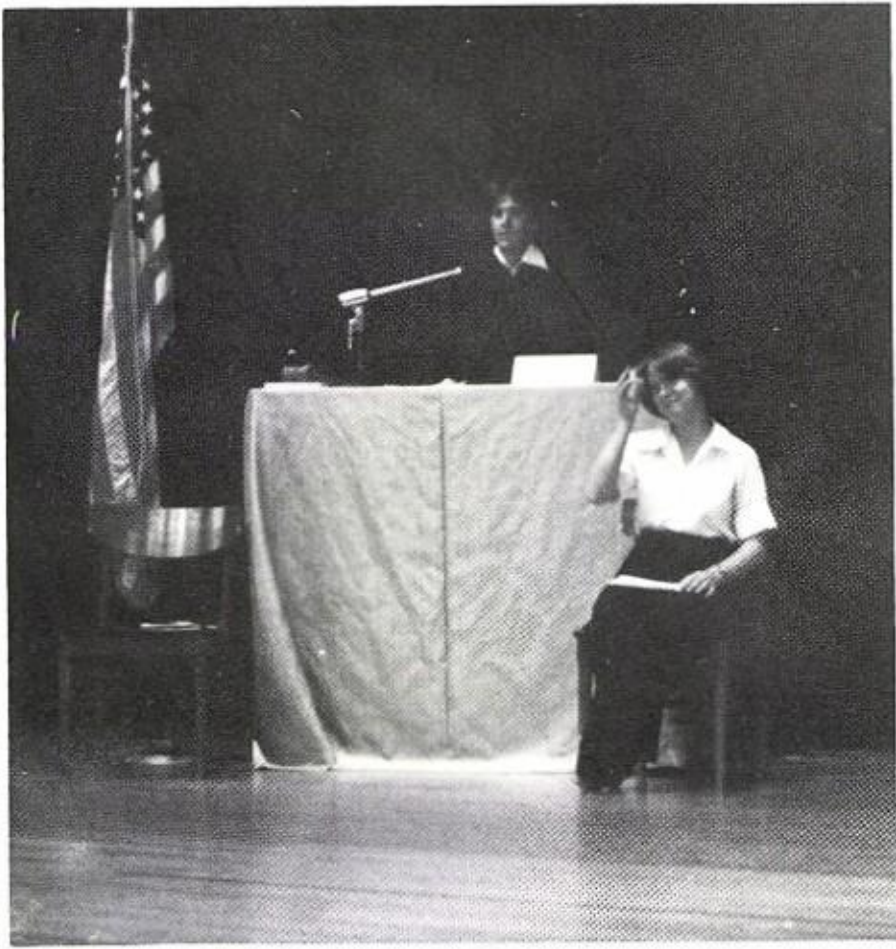

Judgment Day was enjoyed by both freshmen and seniors alike. Through several well-planned activities, the freshmen realized that the fury of a senior is not to be taken lightly.

Fall Drama Production

In the fall, the Drama Club presented a suspense thriller entitled "The Woman at Dead Oaks". The play was a classic murder mystery with a surprising and exciting conclusion. Principal members of the cast were: Bob Baldwin, Gabi Magaña, James Behan, and Hilary Ballard. The rest of the cast included Steve Iwanski, Tina Lewis, Deanna Kozarevich, Richard Woessner, Linda Neurath, Bill Courtney, and Kelly Molina.

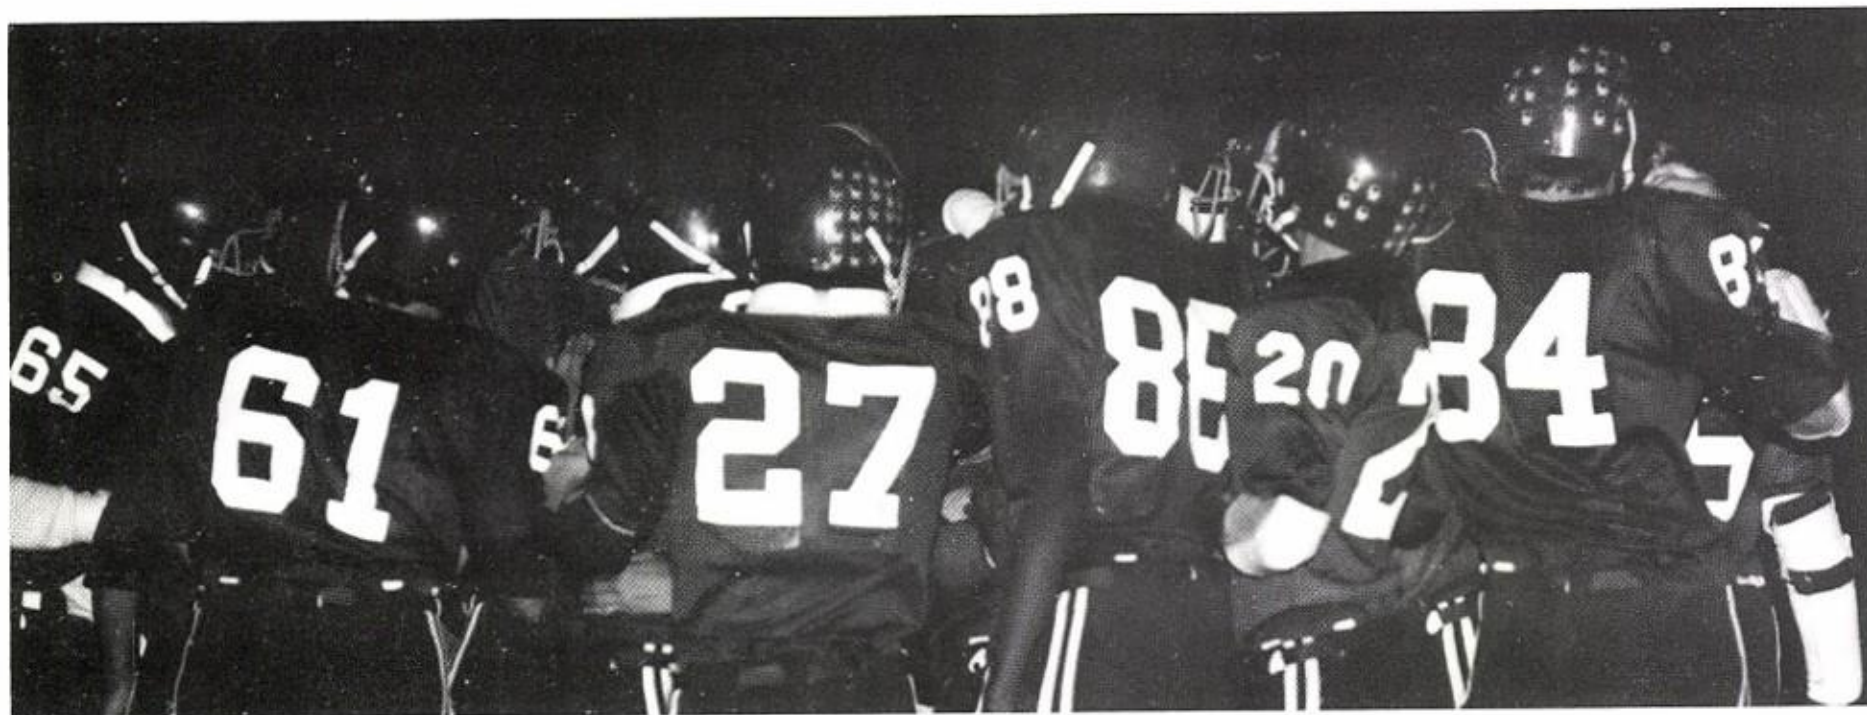

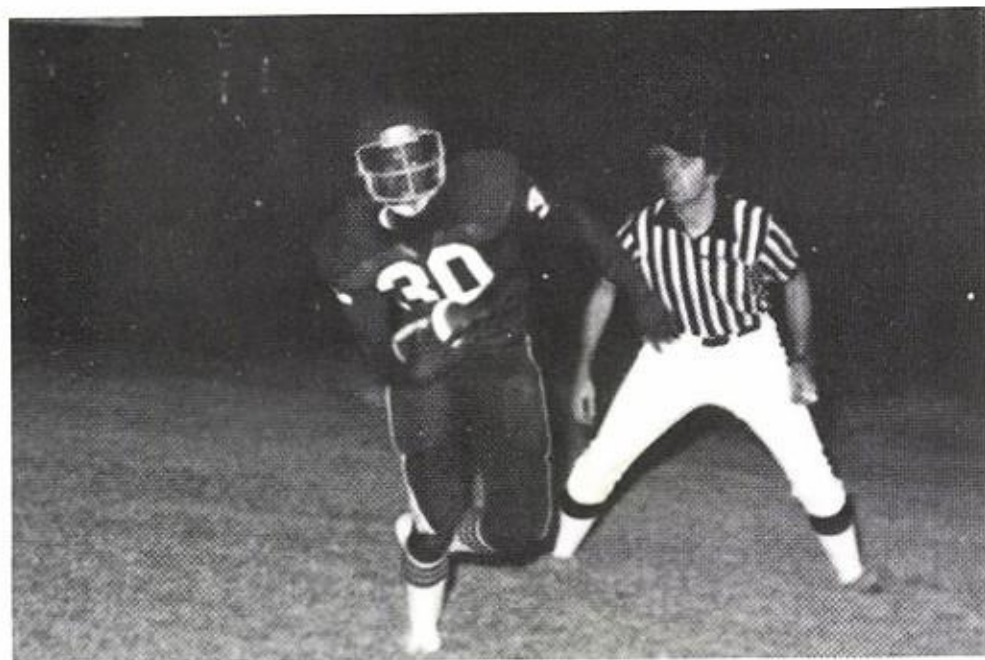

The 1978 Homecoming Game

Nearing the end of another outstanding football season, the Falcons took the lead once again to beat Waco-Reicher in this year's Homecoming Game by a score of 21 to 7.

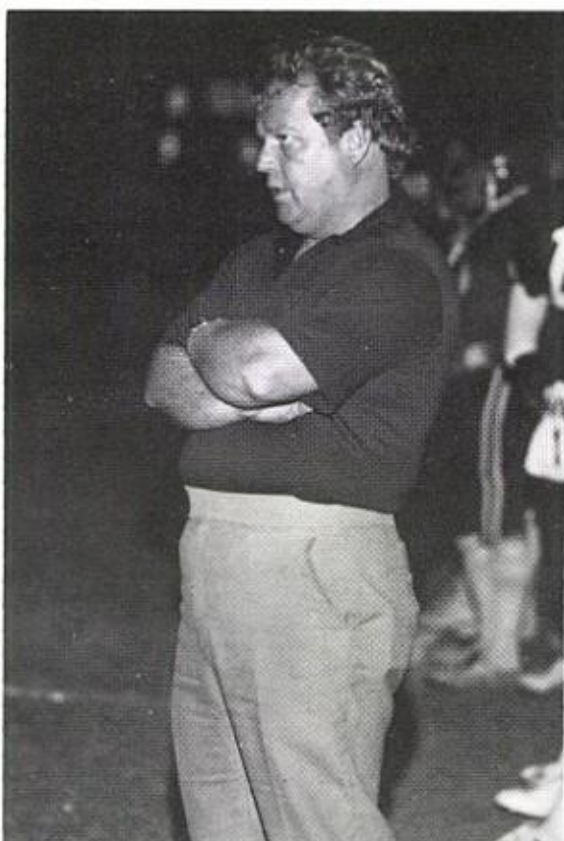

Princess Anna Vara was crowned as the 1978 Homecoming Queen in ceremonies preceding the game.

The festivities began with the traditional parade of the queen and her court before the game and were concluded with the Homecoming Dance the following night.

The Homecoming Dance

On November 11, at the Inn of Six Flags, Bishop Dunne held its annual Homecoming. There seemed to be a new atmosphere that was enjoyed by all with music supplied by "Disco Train" and "Changes". And so was another fantastic Homecoming.

The band "Changes" provided the entertainment for the night.

Soccer

This year the Bishop Dunne Athletic Department added Soccer to its sports program under the guidance of Coach David Burt. This being the club's first active year, they were ineligible for district play. During the season, opposition was provided by top area schools. The Bishop Dunne Soccer Club enjoyed much success during its first season and the future looks bright.

The 1978-79 Varsity Volleyball Team was led through a winning season by the coaching of a very dedicated man, Jim Woerber. By the end of the season, the team had won 16 matches and had lost only 5. The Falcons entered the Kimball Tournament and brought home the Consolation Trophy. The teams record in district play was 4 wins and 2 losses. Overall, the team had a terrific season and is expected to be even better next year.

Bad Birds

The Bad Birds, contrary to popular belief, is not a detention hall for naughty Falcons. Rather it is an organization devoted to the promotion of student body spirit, by doing such things as painting signs and doing skits in the pep rallies.

The Bishop Dunne Varsity Cheerleading Squad has worked consistently during the 1978-1979 school year to spread the Falcon spirit that we all share throughout the Dunne Family. Not only did the girls show their Falcon enthusiasm at the football and basketball games, but this past summer at Southern Methodist University, the Varsity cheerleaders brought home a total of 5 Superior ribbons and were named as one of the Super Star Squads of the National Cheerleaders Association.

J.V. Cheerleaders

The 1978-1979 J.V. Cheerleaders have dedicated much of their spare time in order to bring about the recognition they have gained. The squad has kept the spirit alive among the students and has brought about strong support for their team.

Falcon Spirit is only outdone by Falcon Fans.

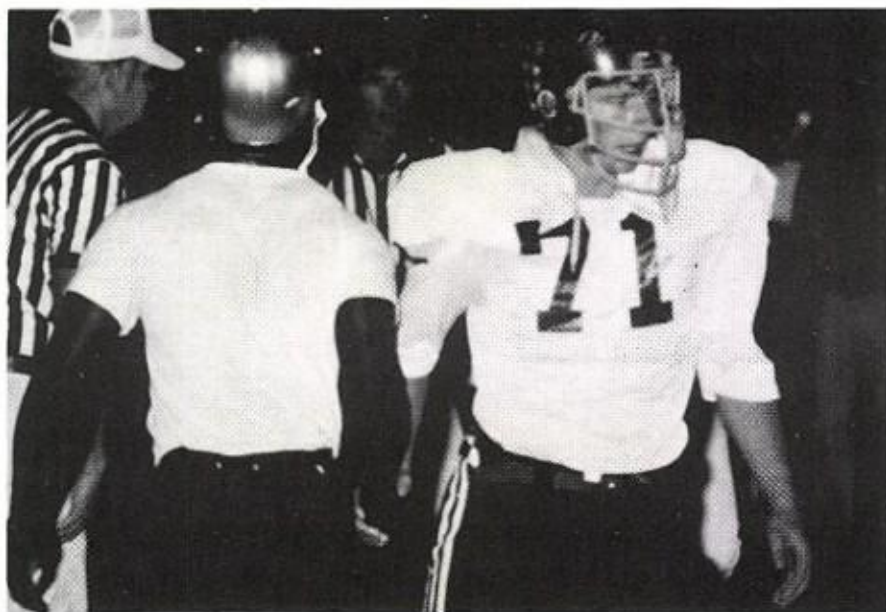

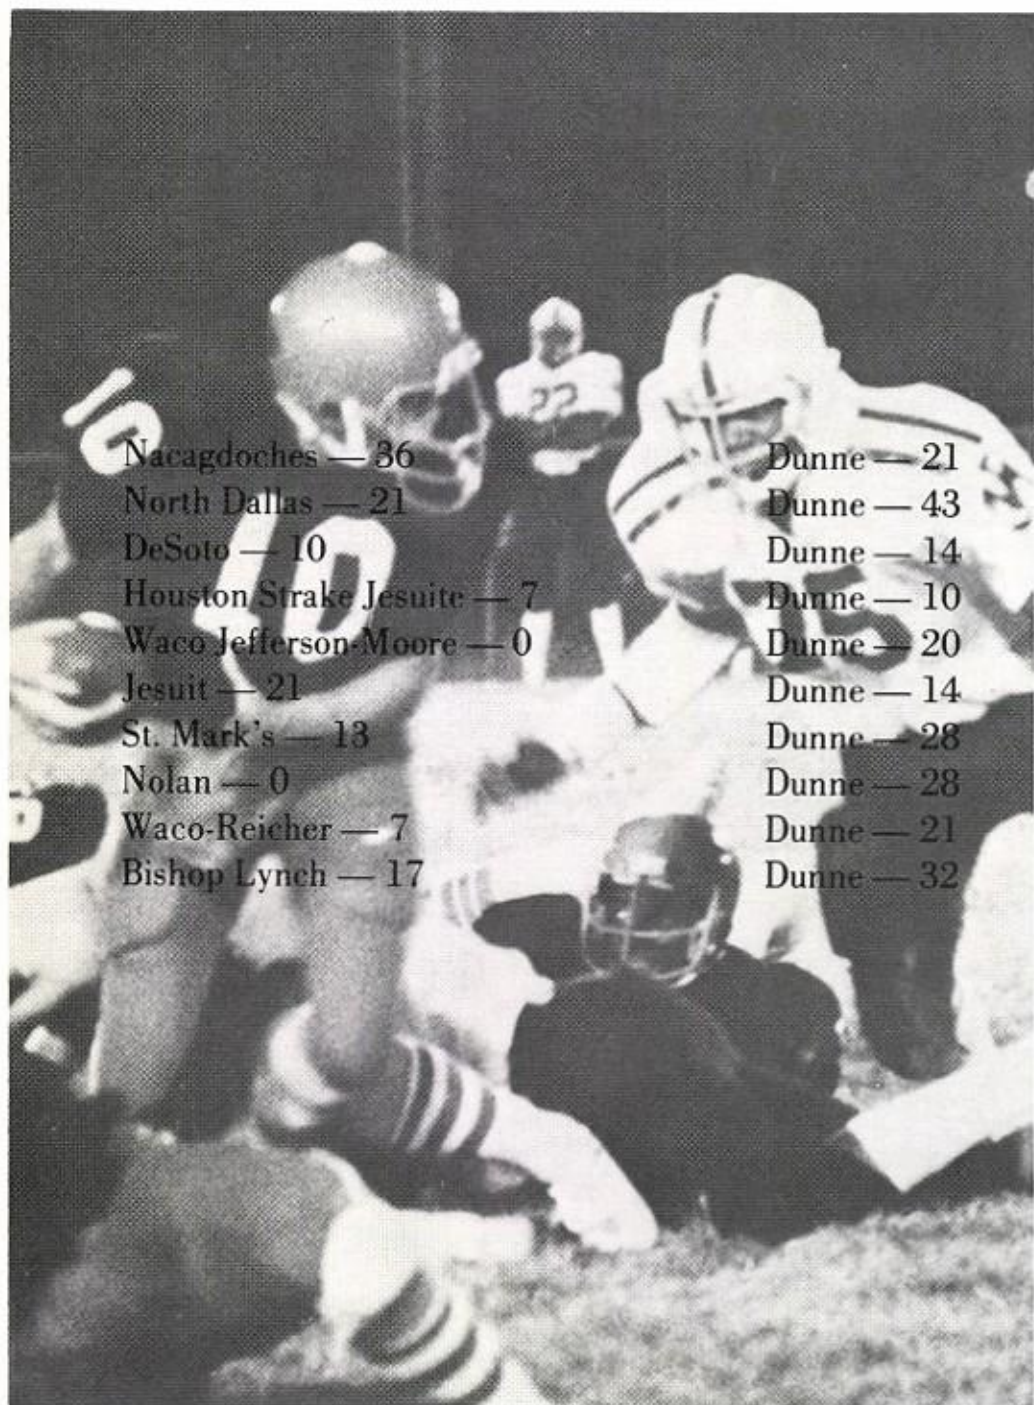

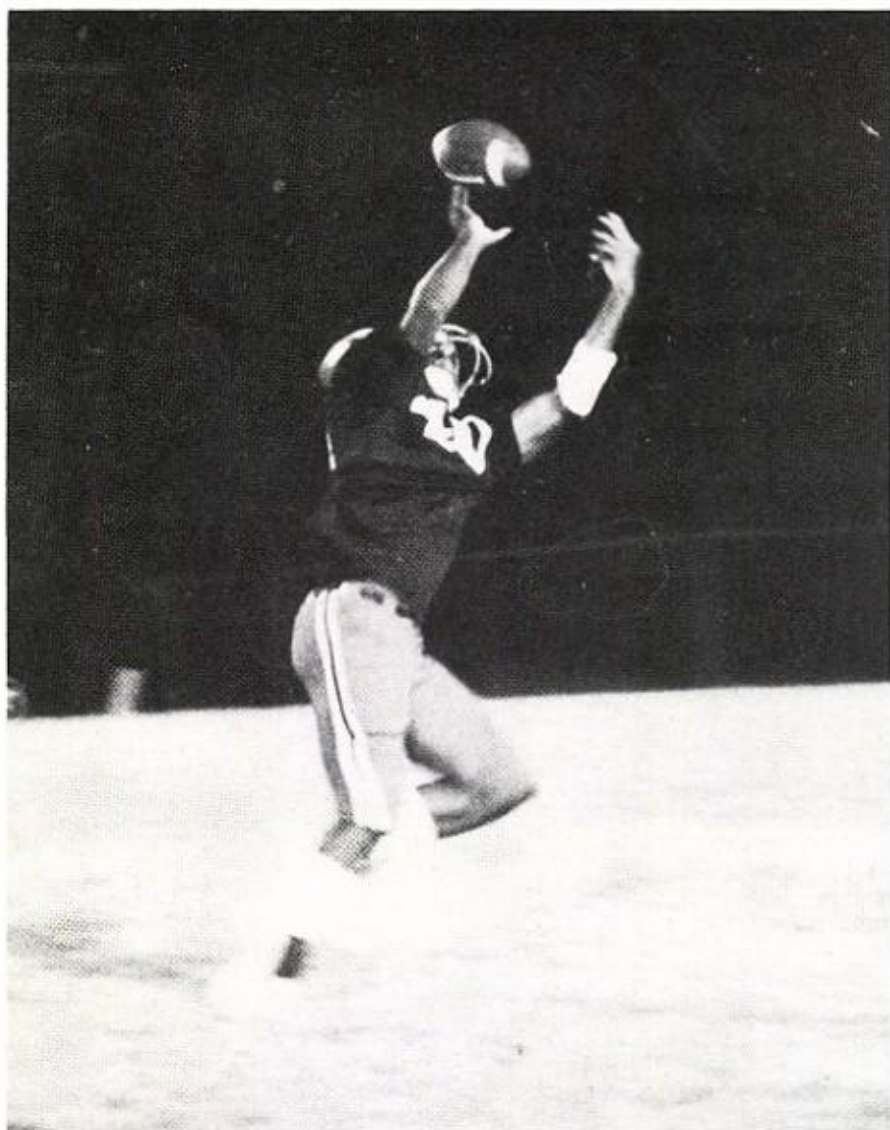

With the confidence, guidance, and thorough preparation of Coach Henderson and his staff behind them, the Falcons had a successful season. With an 8-3 record, the Falcons showed a lot of determination. Always being outnumbered and outweighed, the Falcons were never out-spirited or lacking in skill. They made Bishop Dunne Falcon Football something of which the school and the students could be proud. The 1978 Falcons journeyed to San Antonio in the wild card district spot, further proof of their skill and determination.

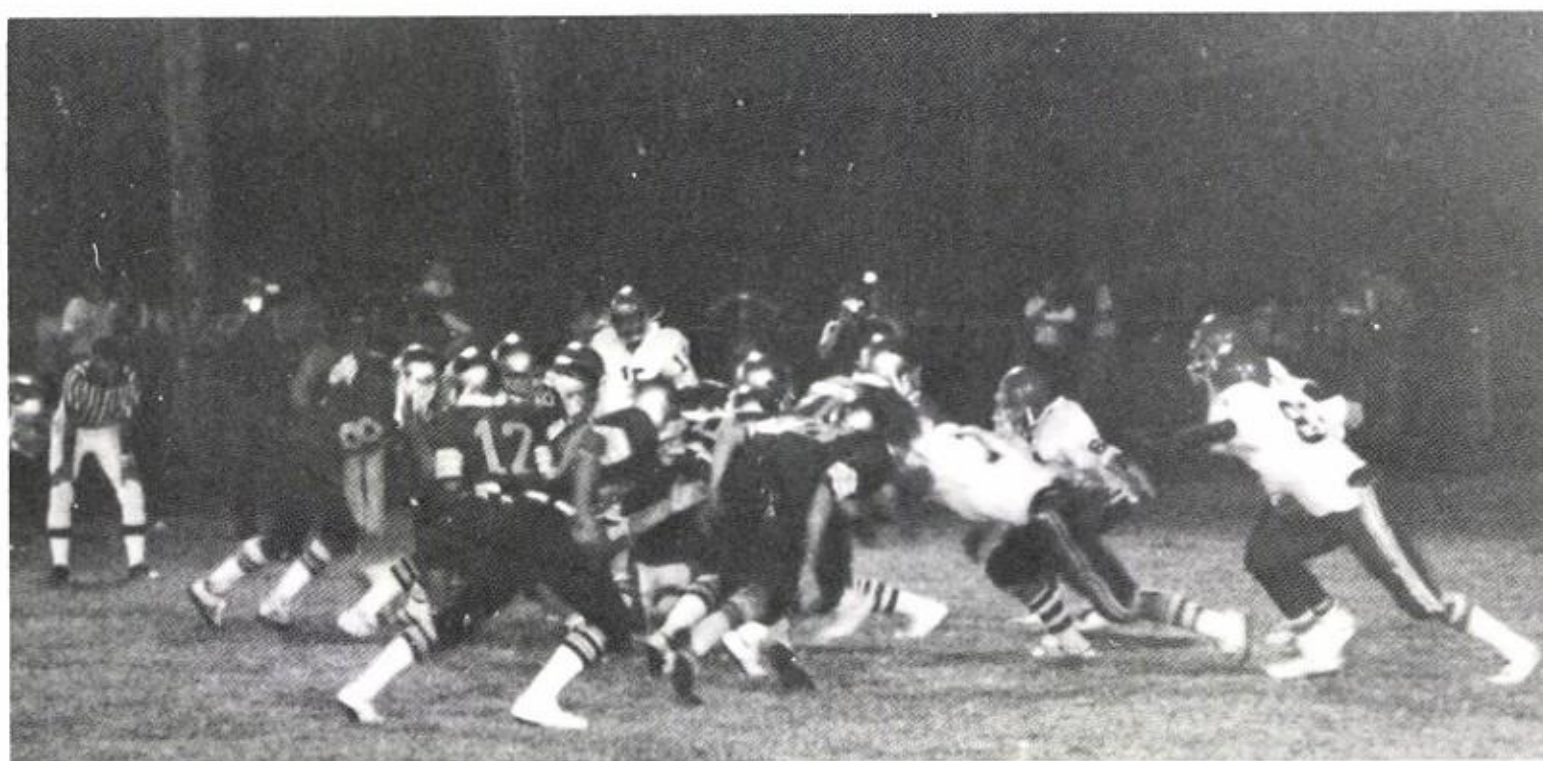

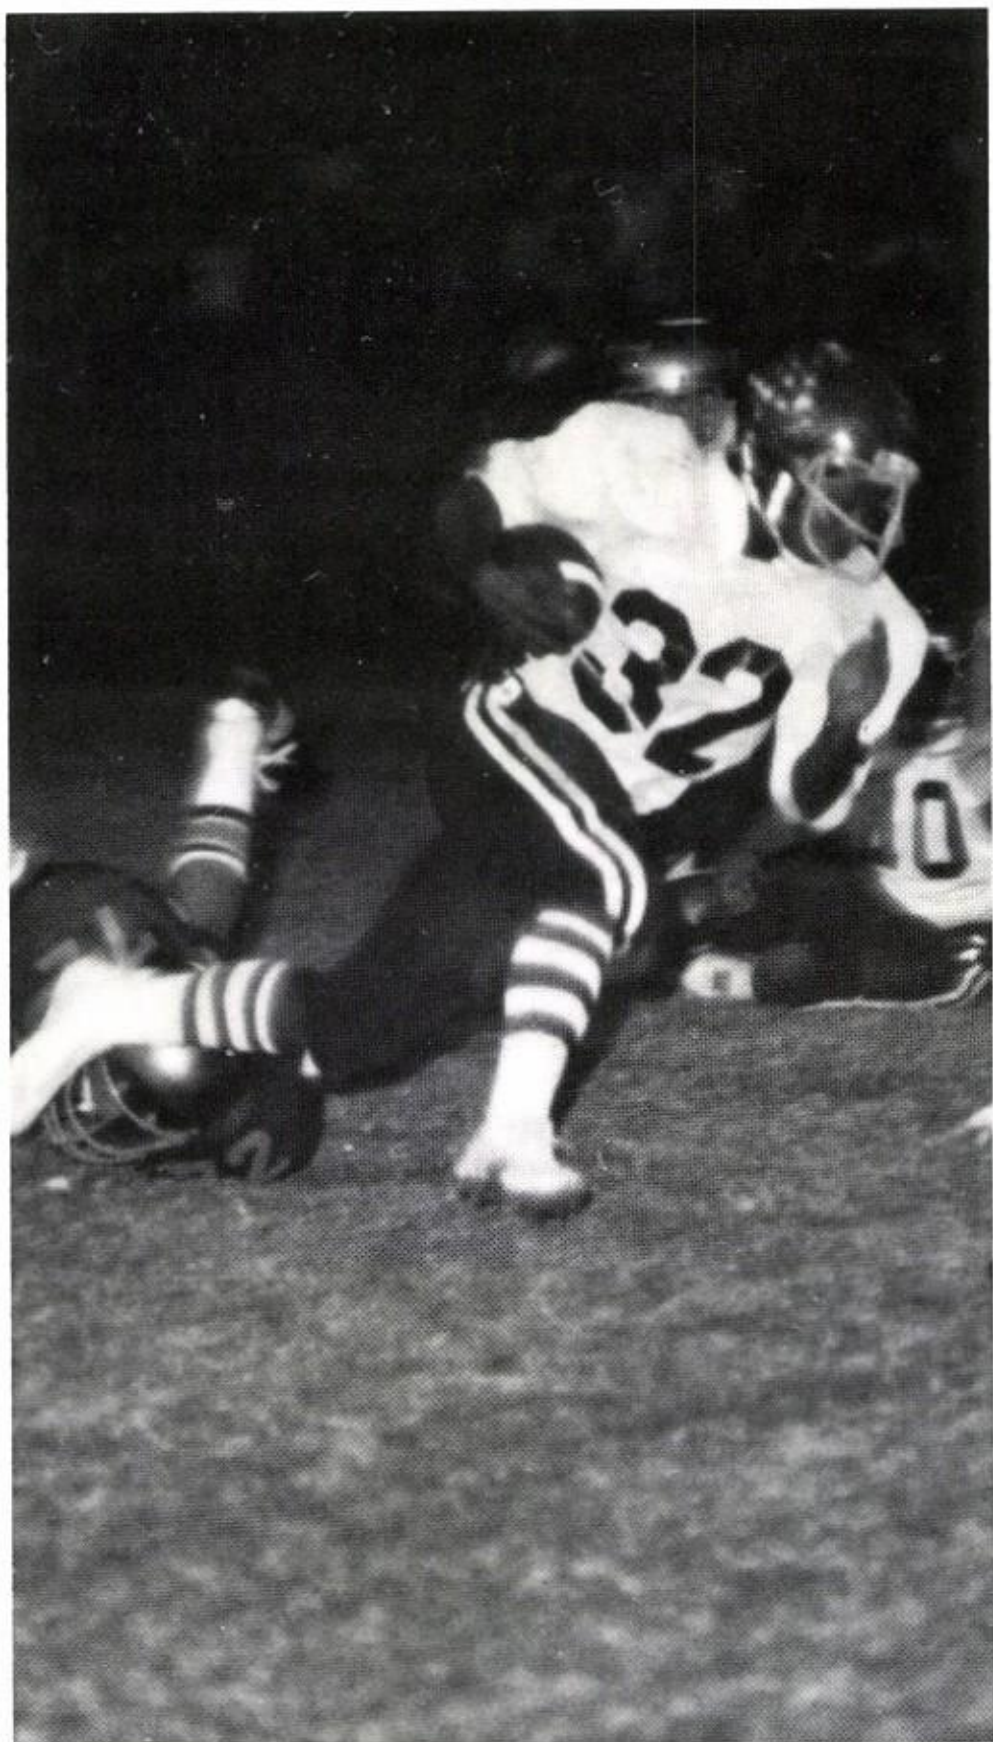

True Falcon Spirit.

This was the first time a private school had ever won this event. Alan Larkin was the top scorer for any school and his point total was only 18 points shy of the national record.

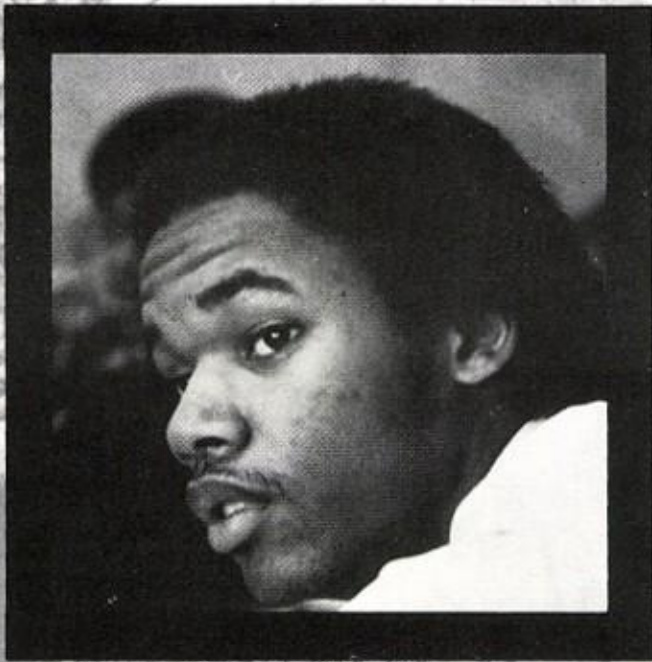

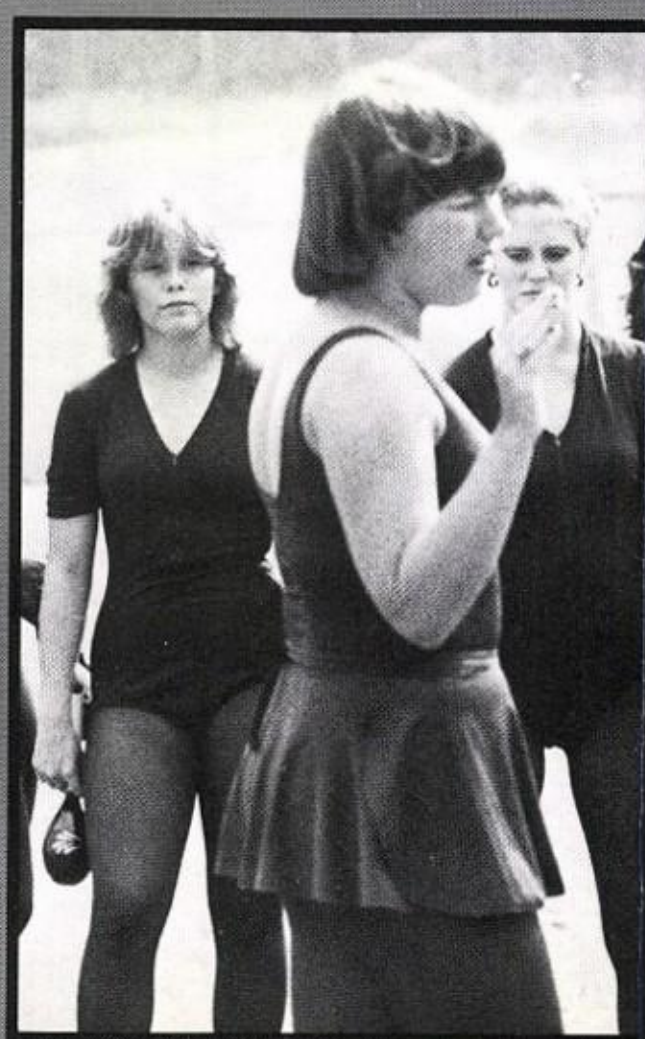

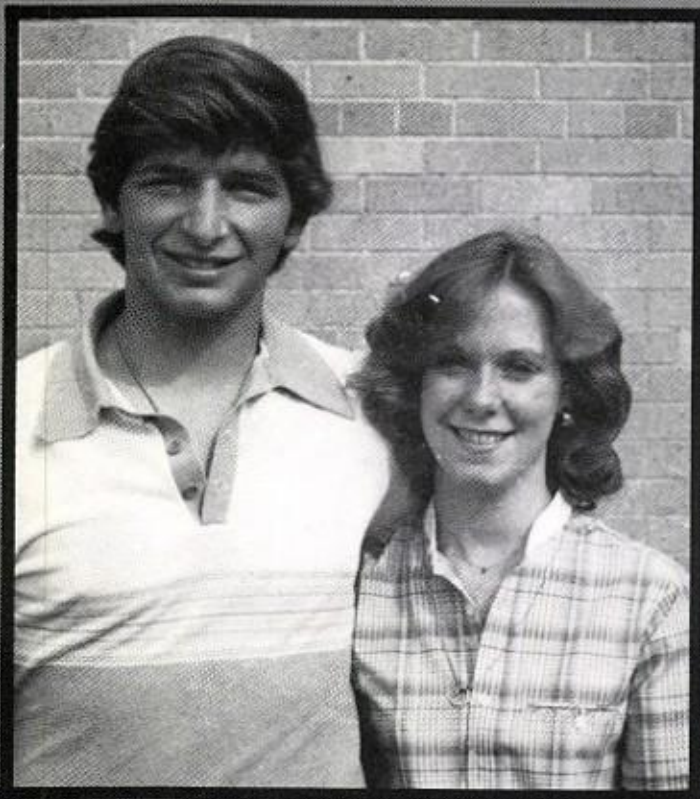

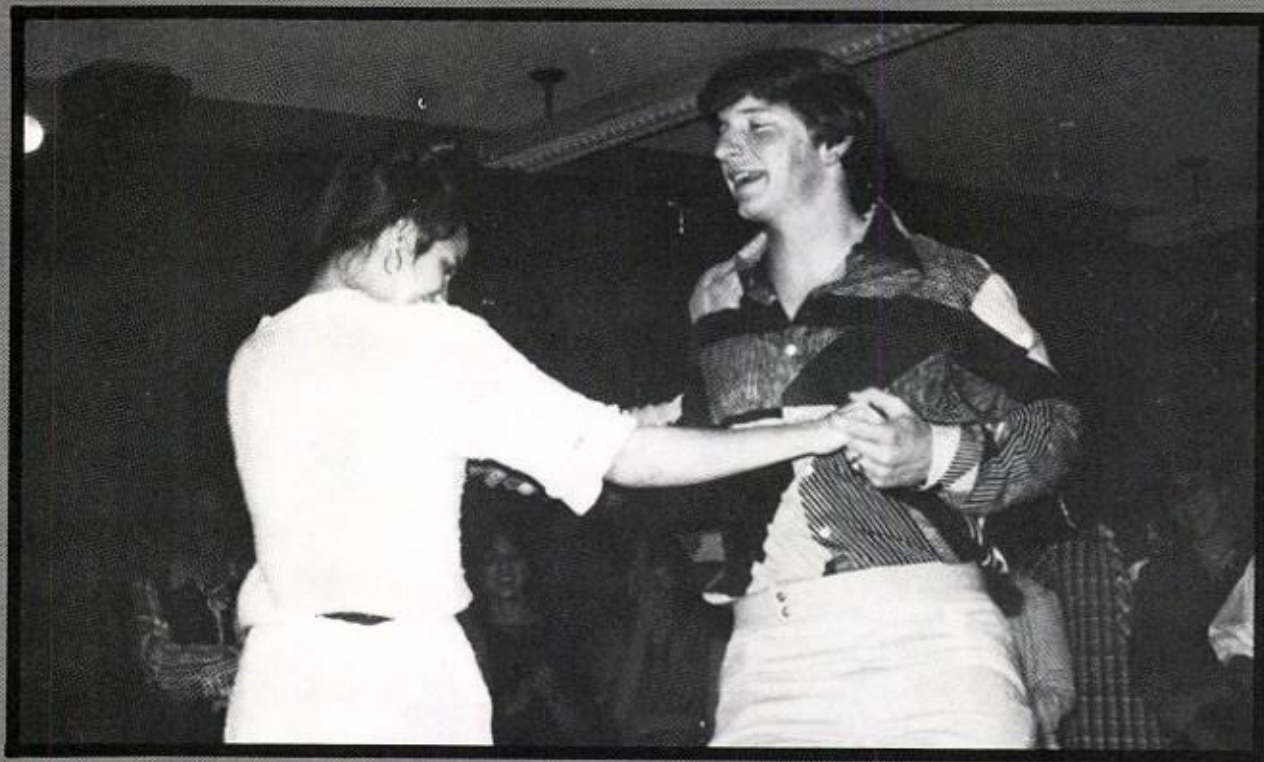

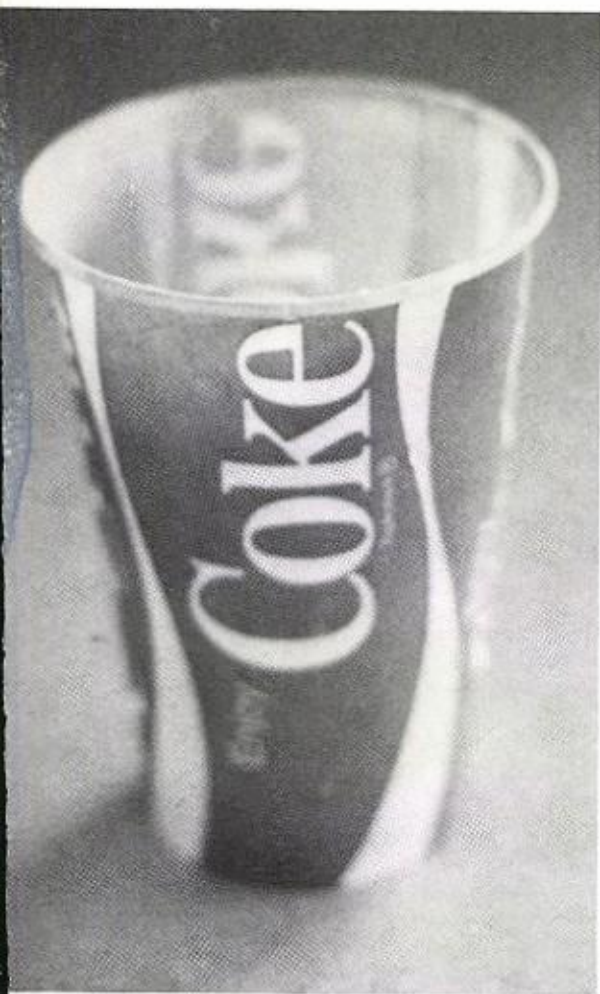

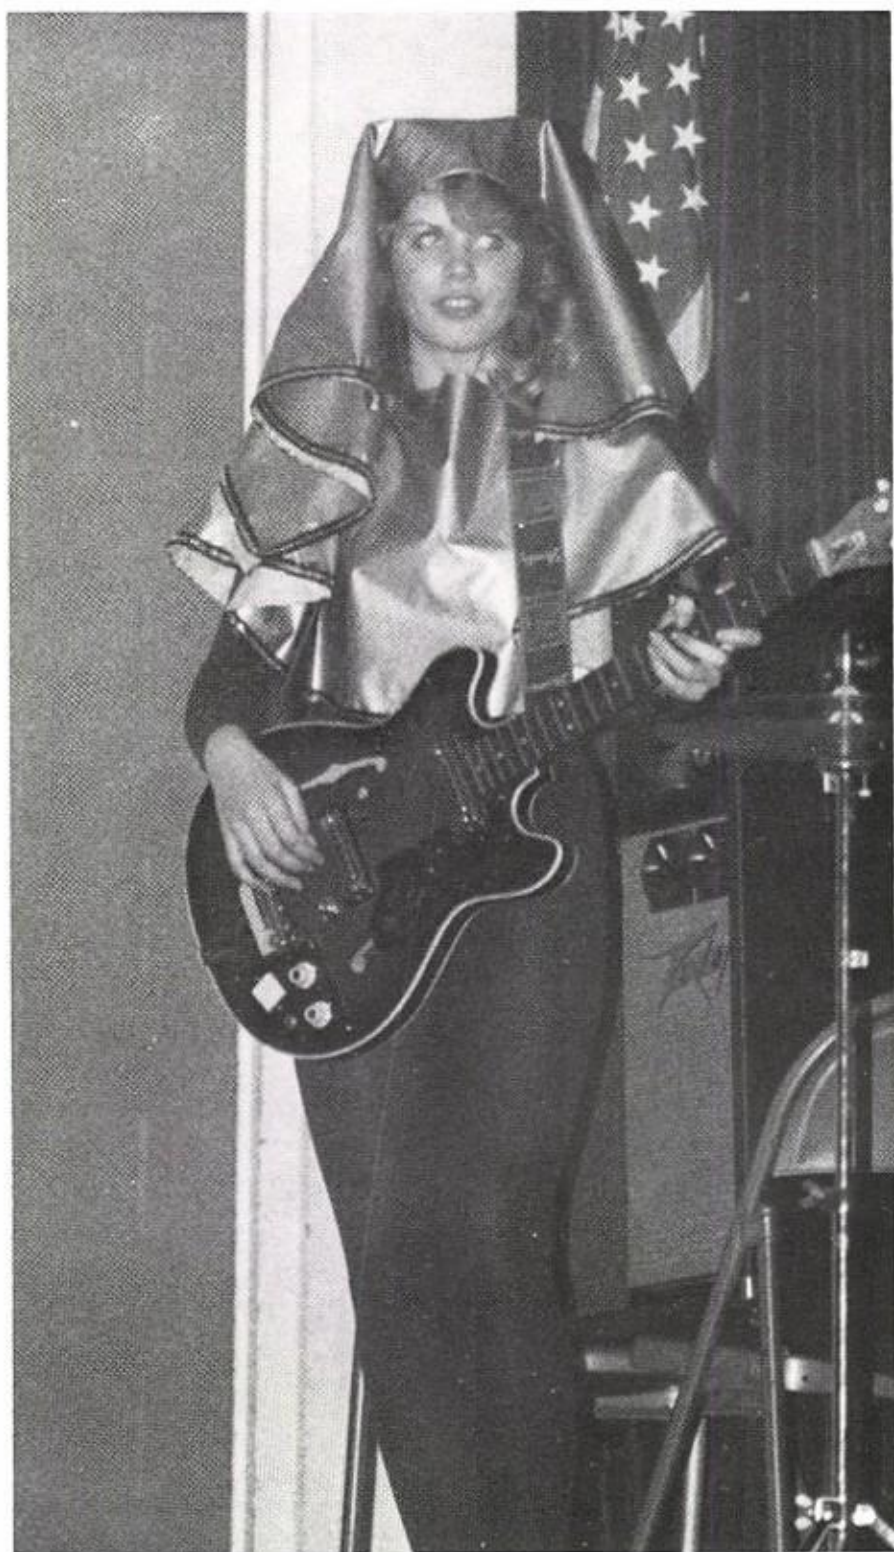

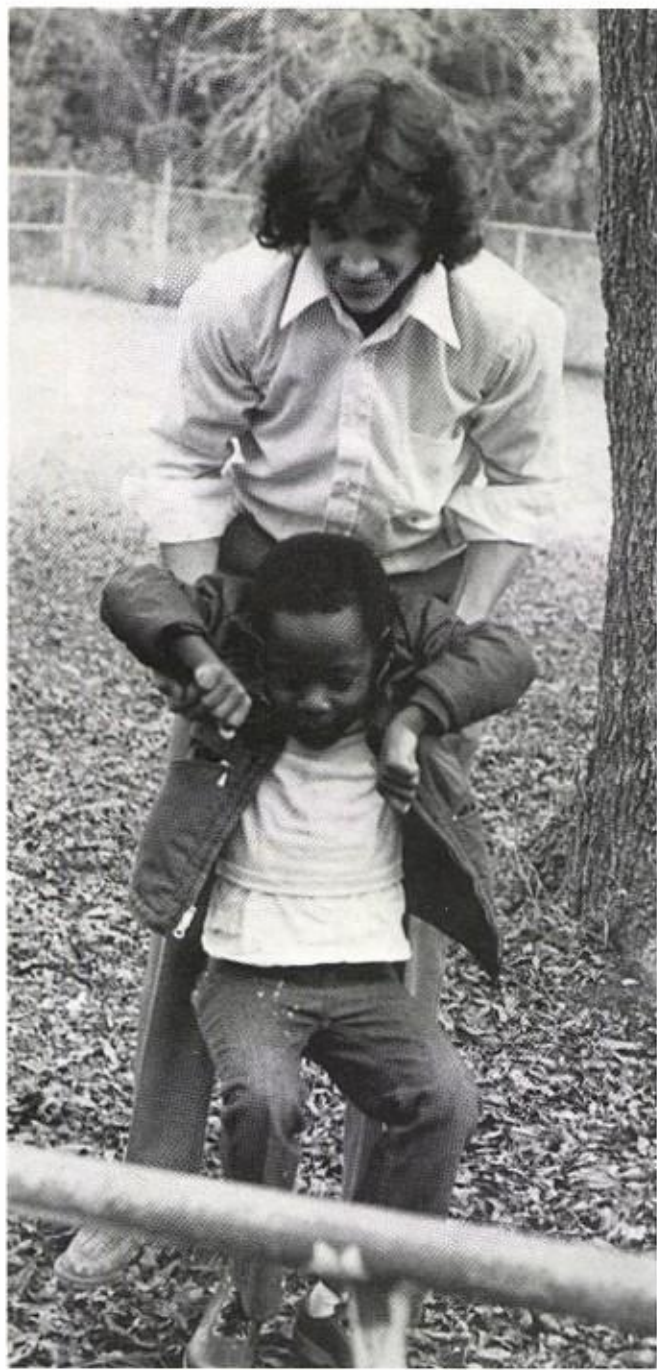

WINTER

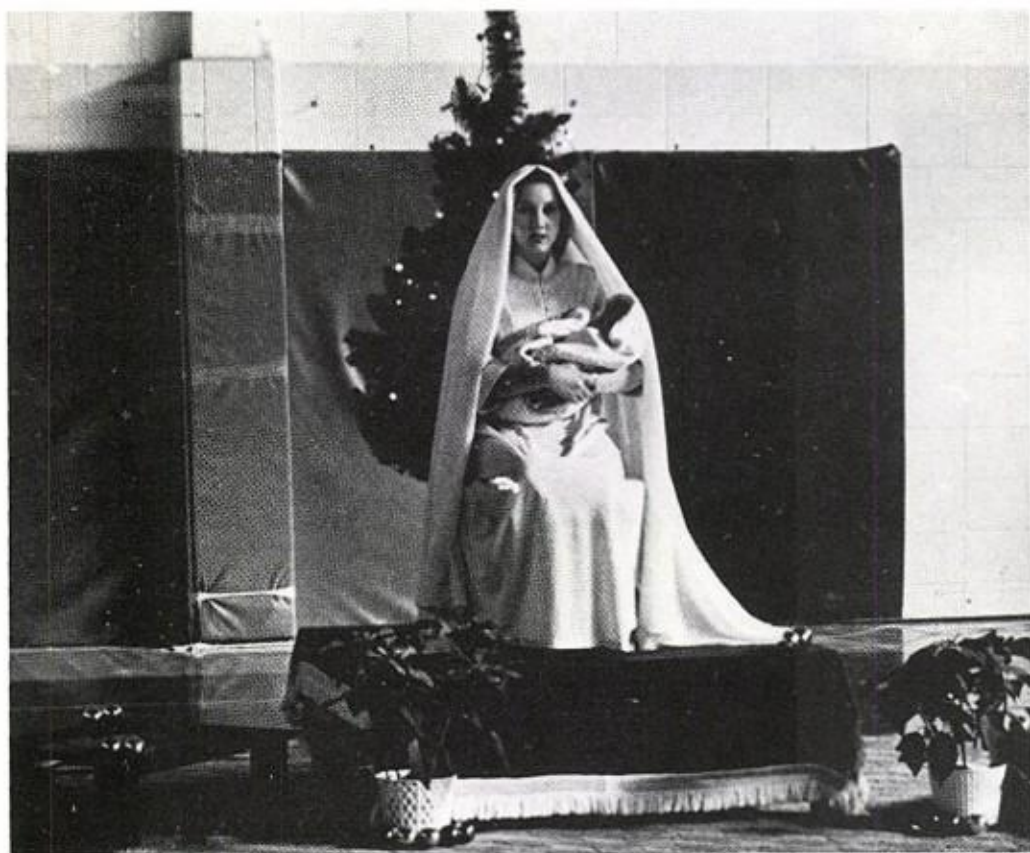

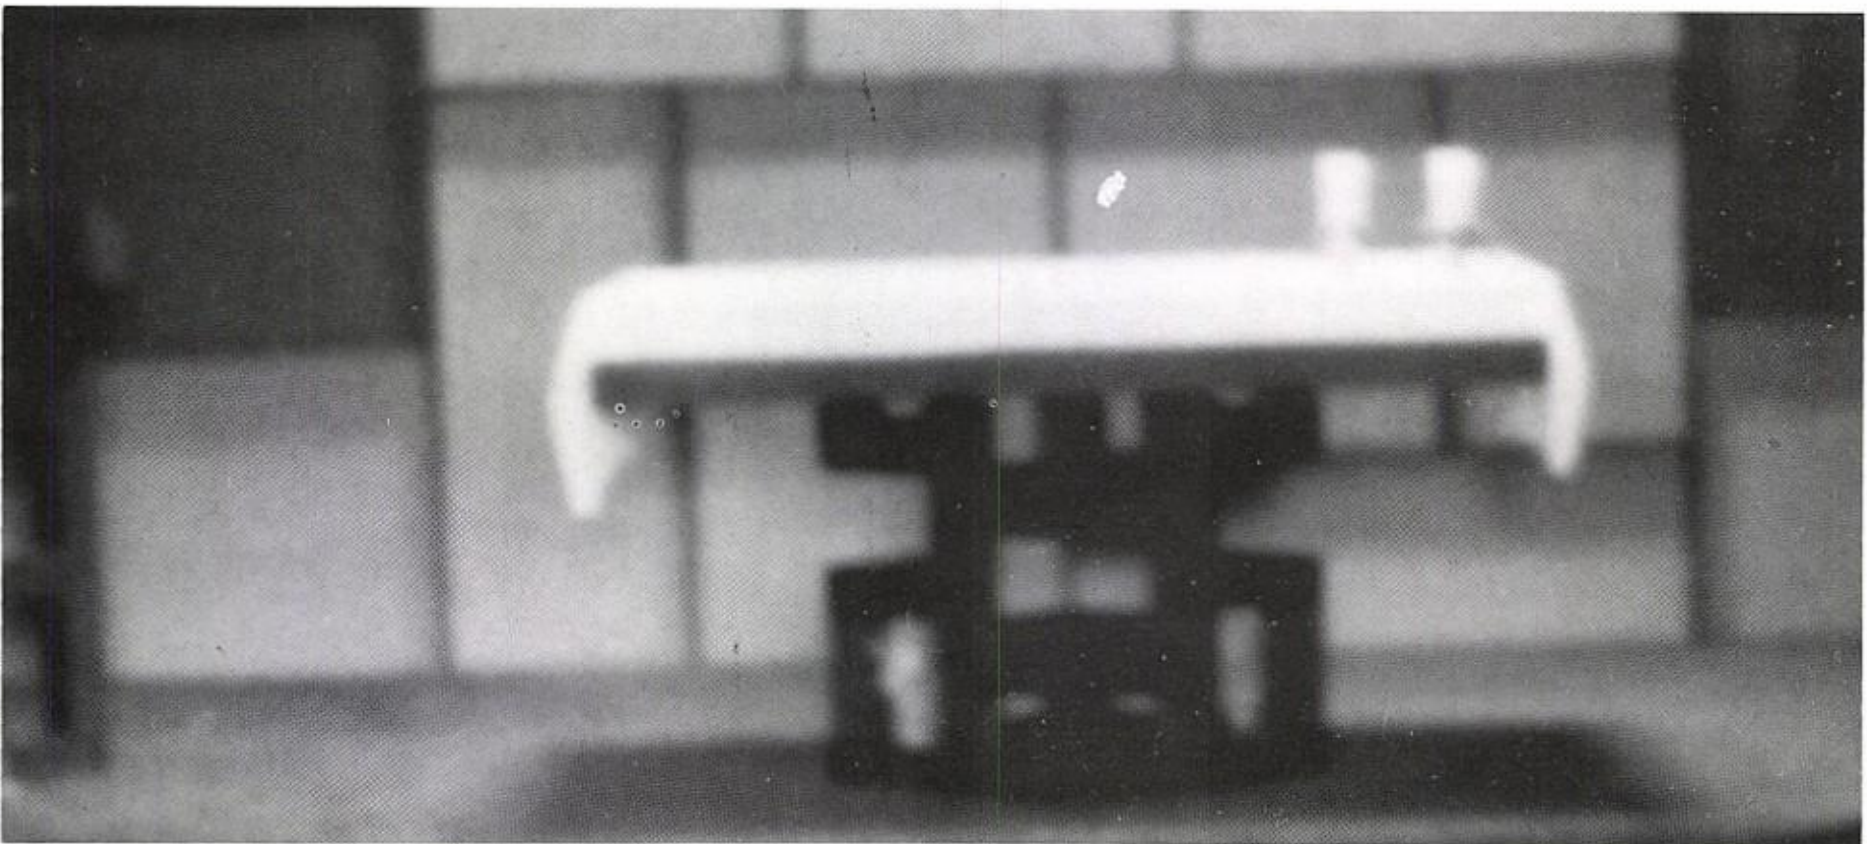

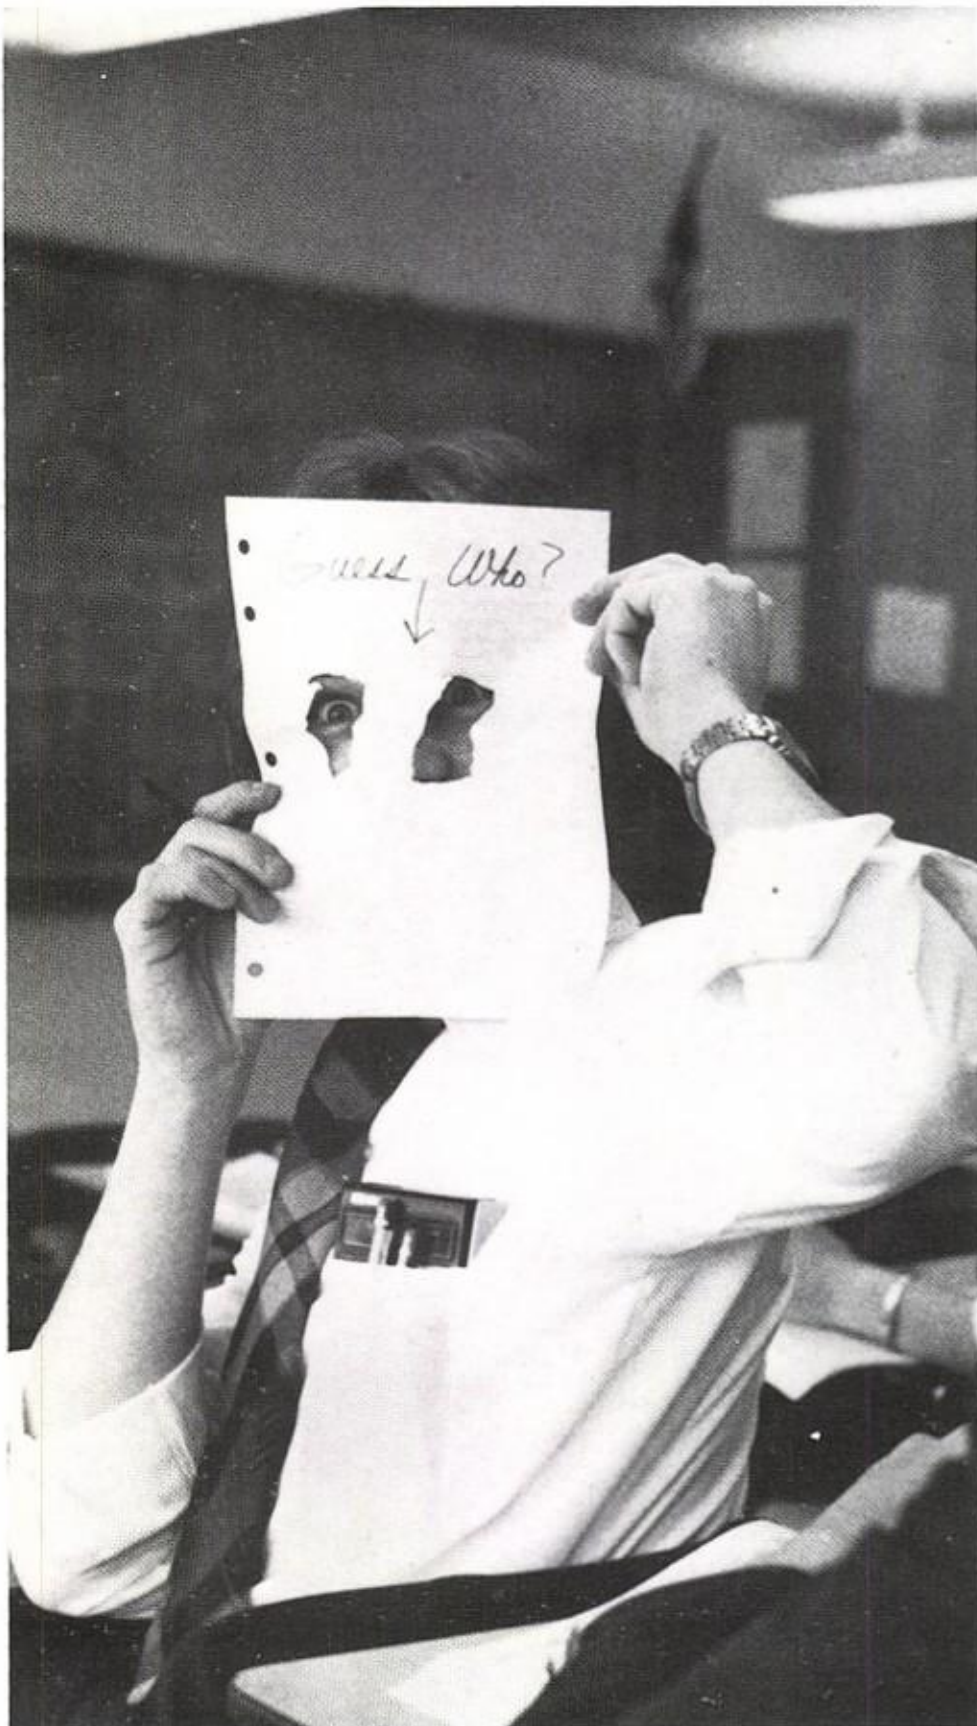

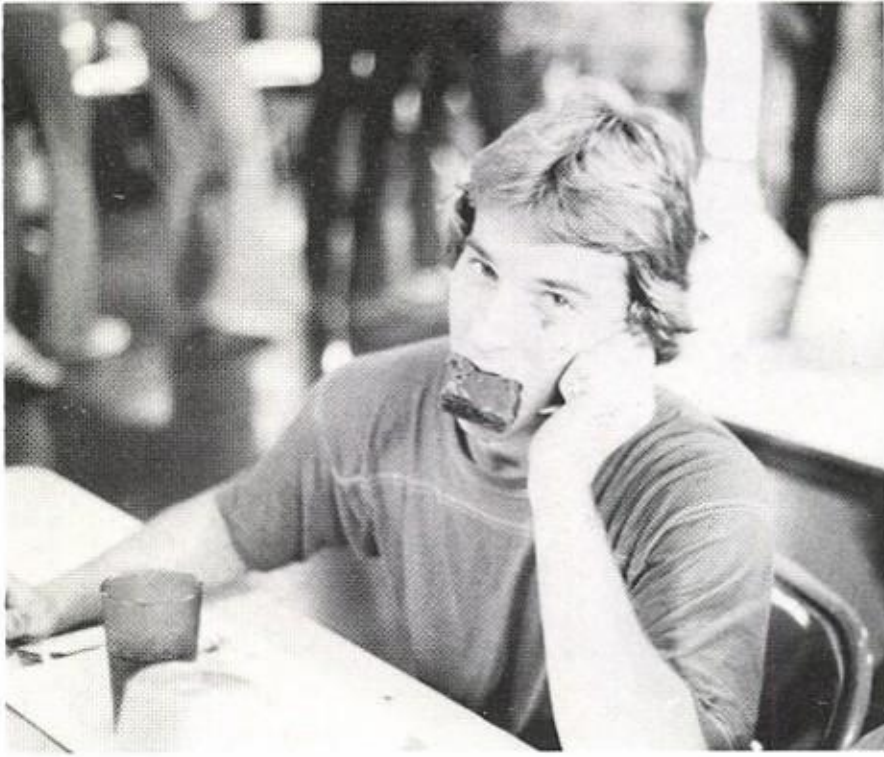

Christmas

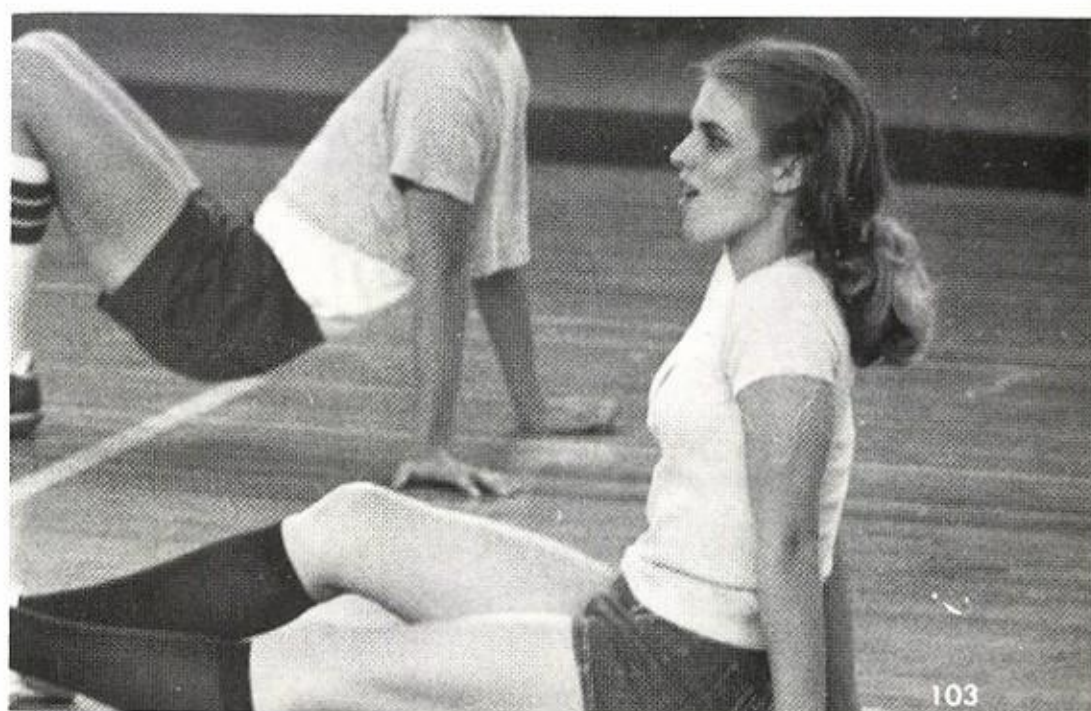

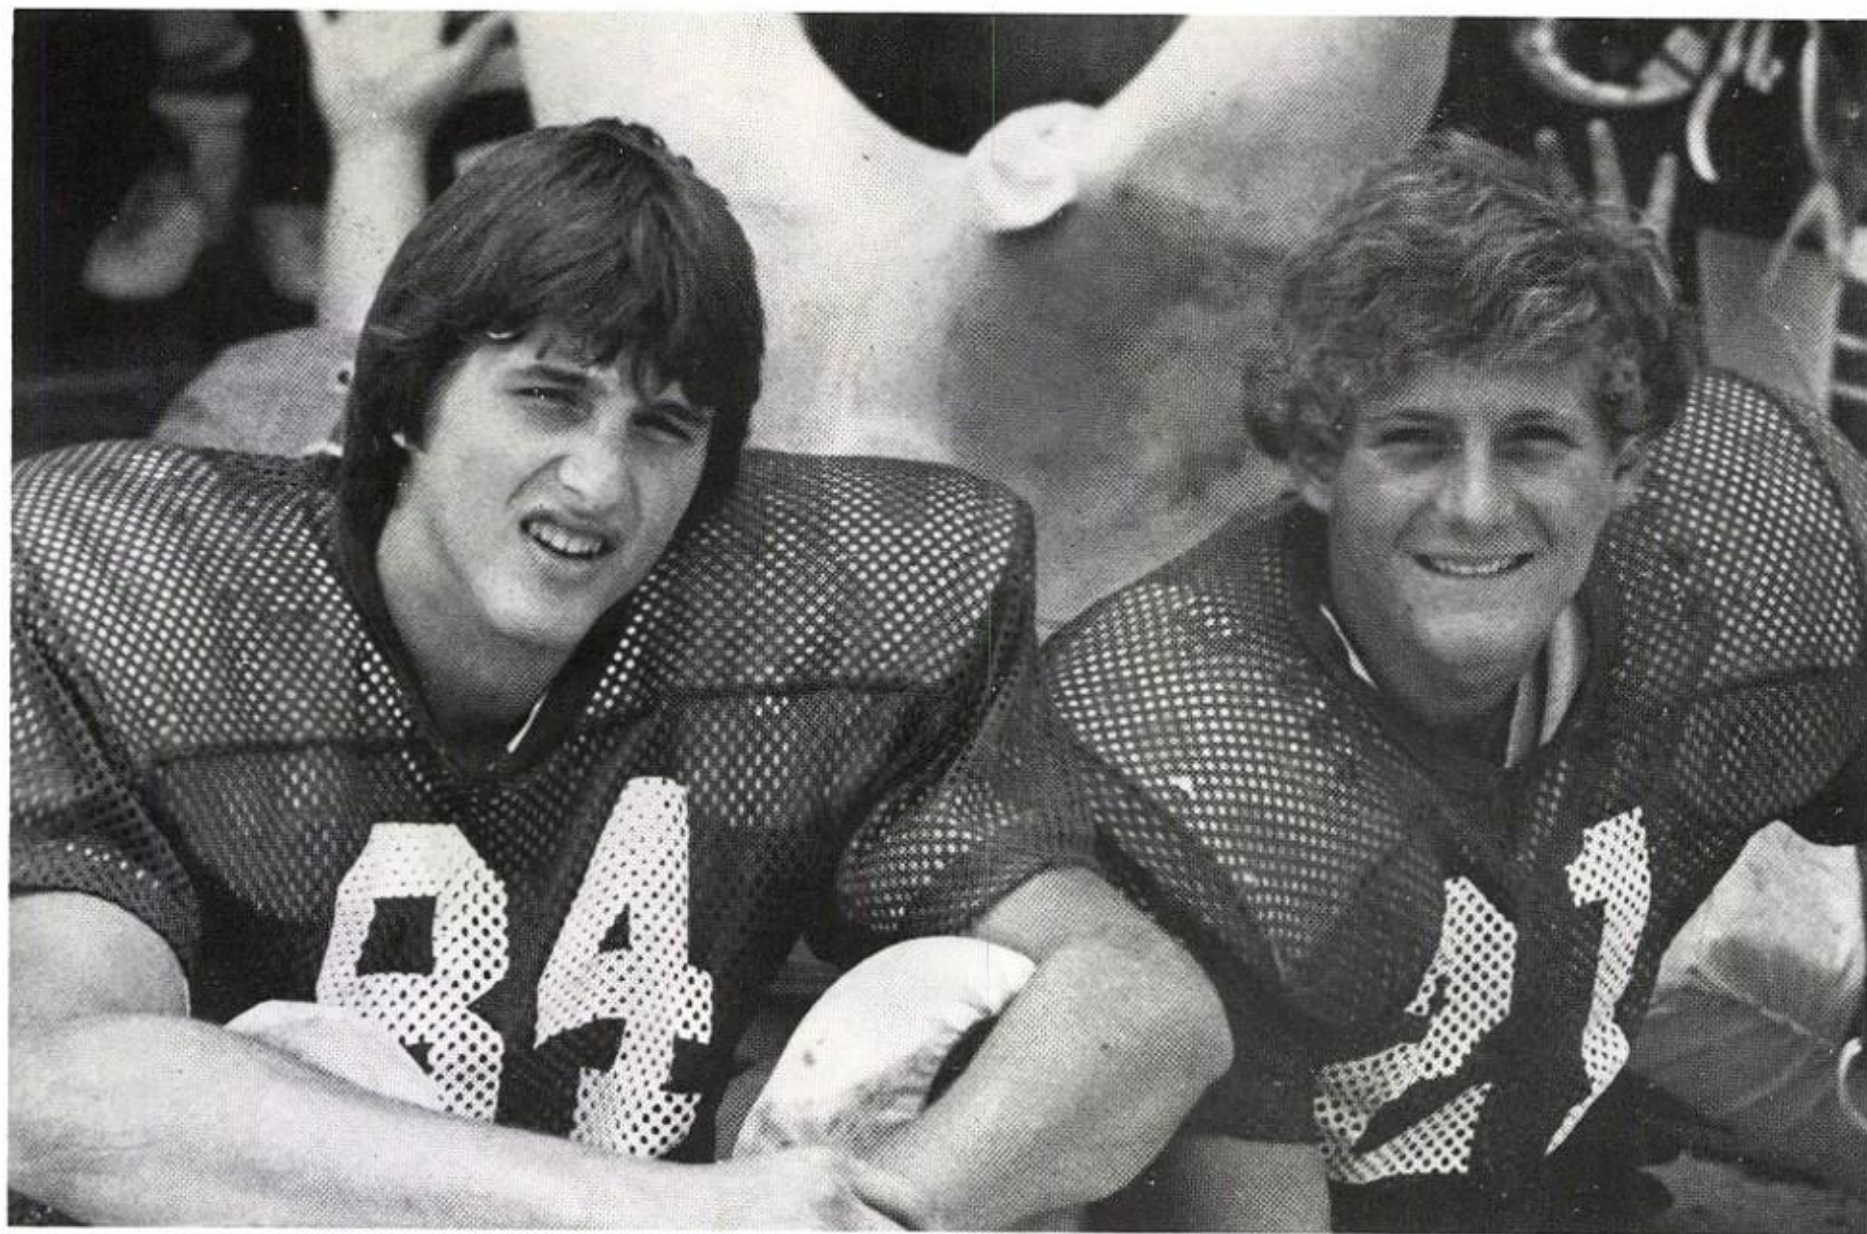

Christmas time at Bishop Dunne is something to remember. Our Mass renewed in us the true meaning of Christmas. A skit, performed by fellow classmates, was entertaining, but also carried a deeper meaning into all of our hearts.

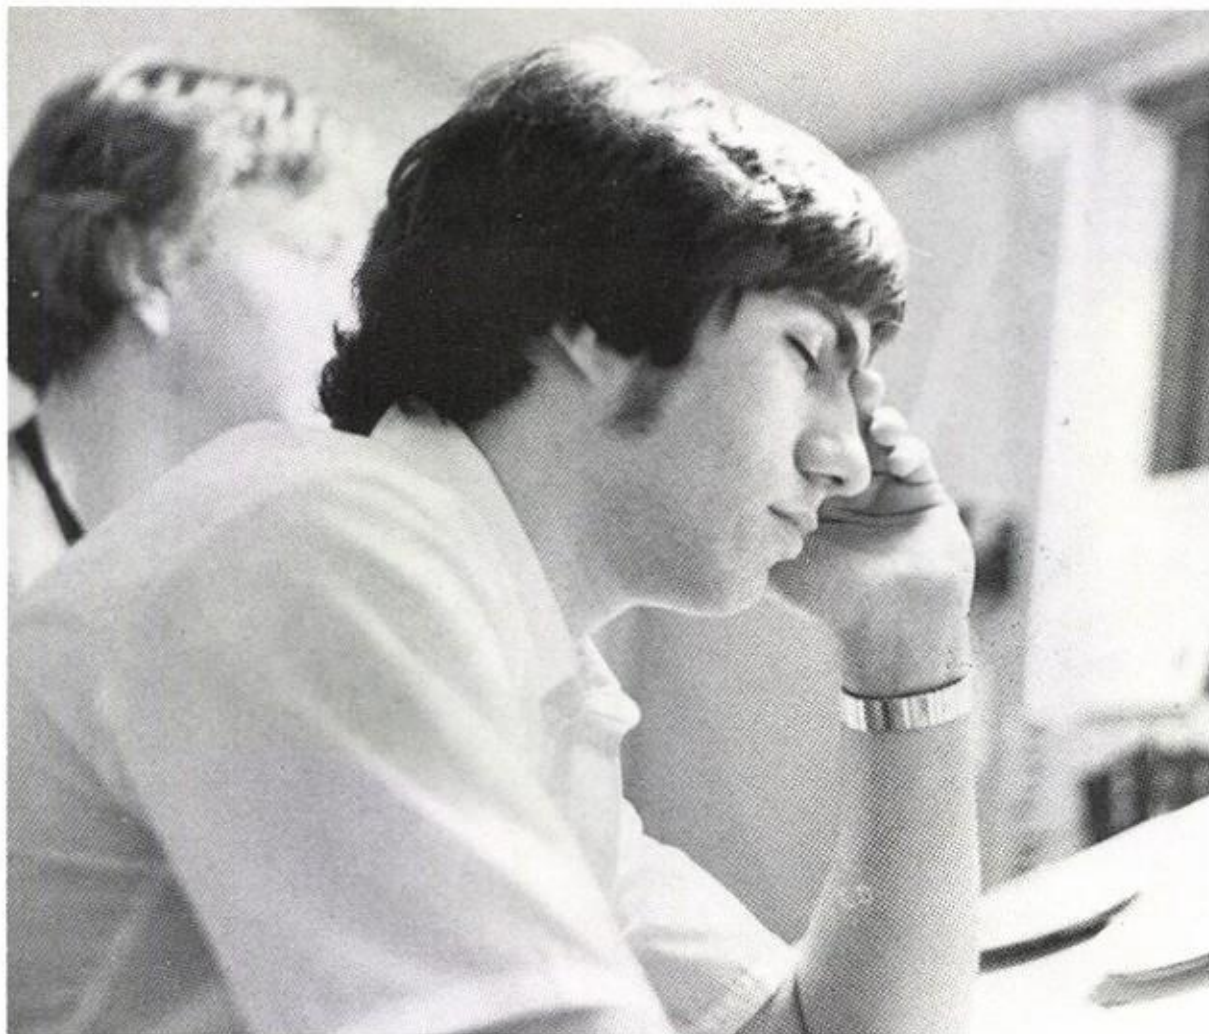

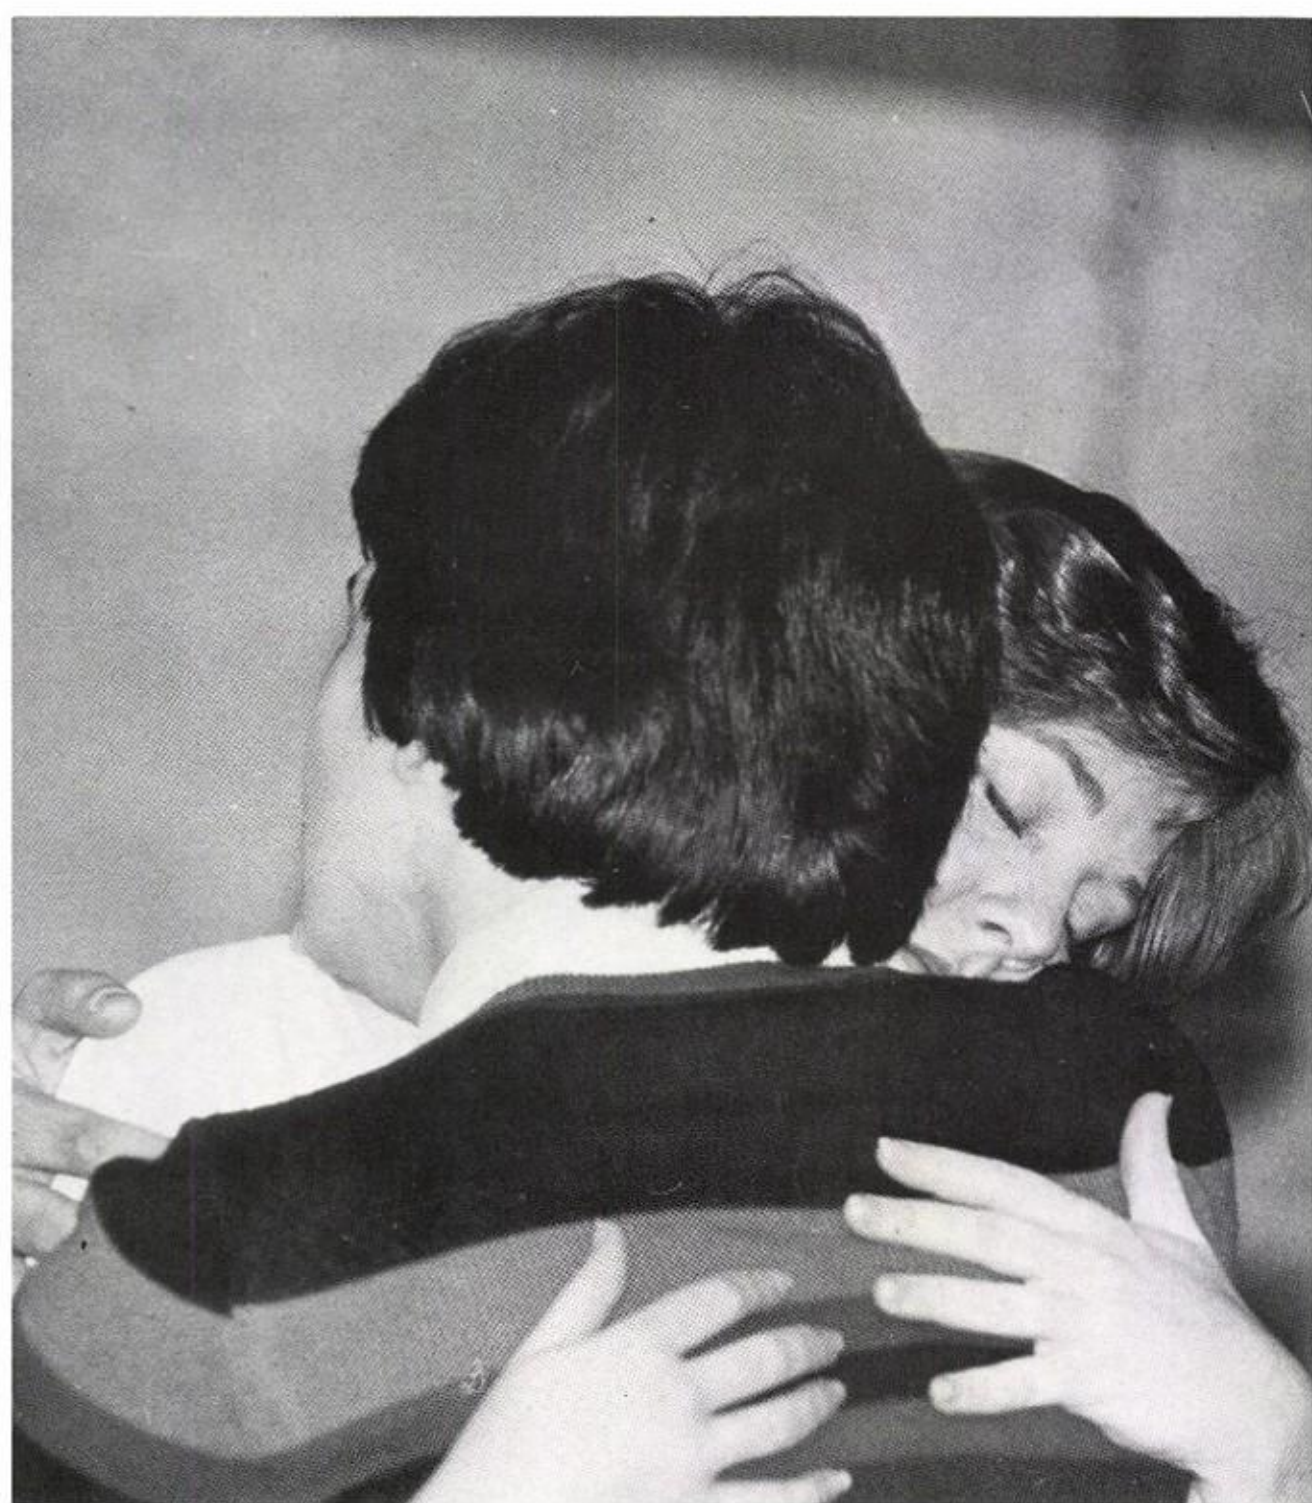

Mary, Mary

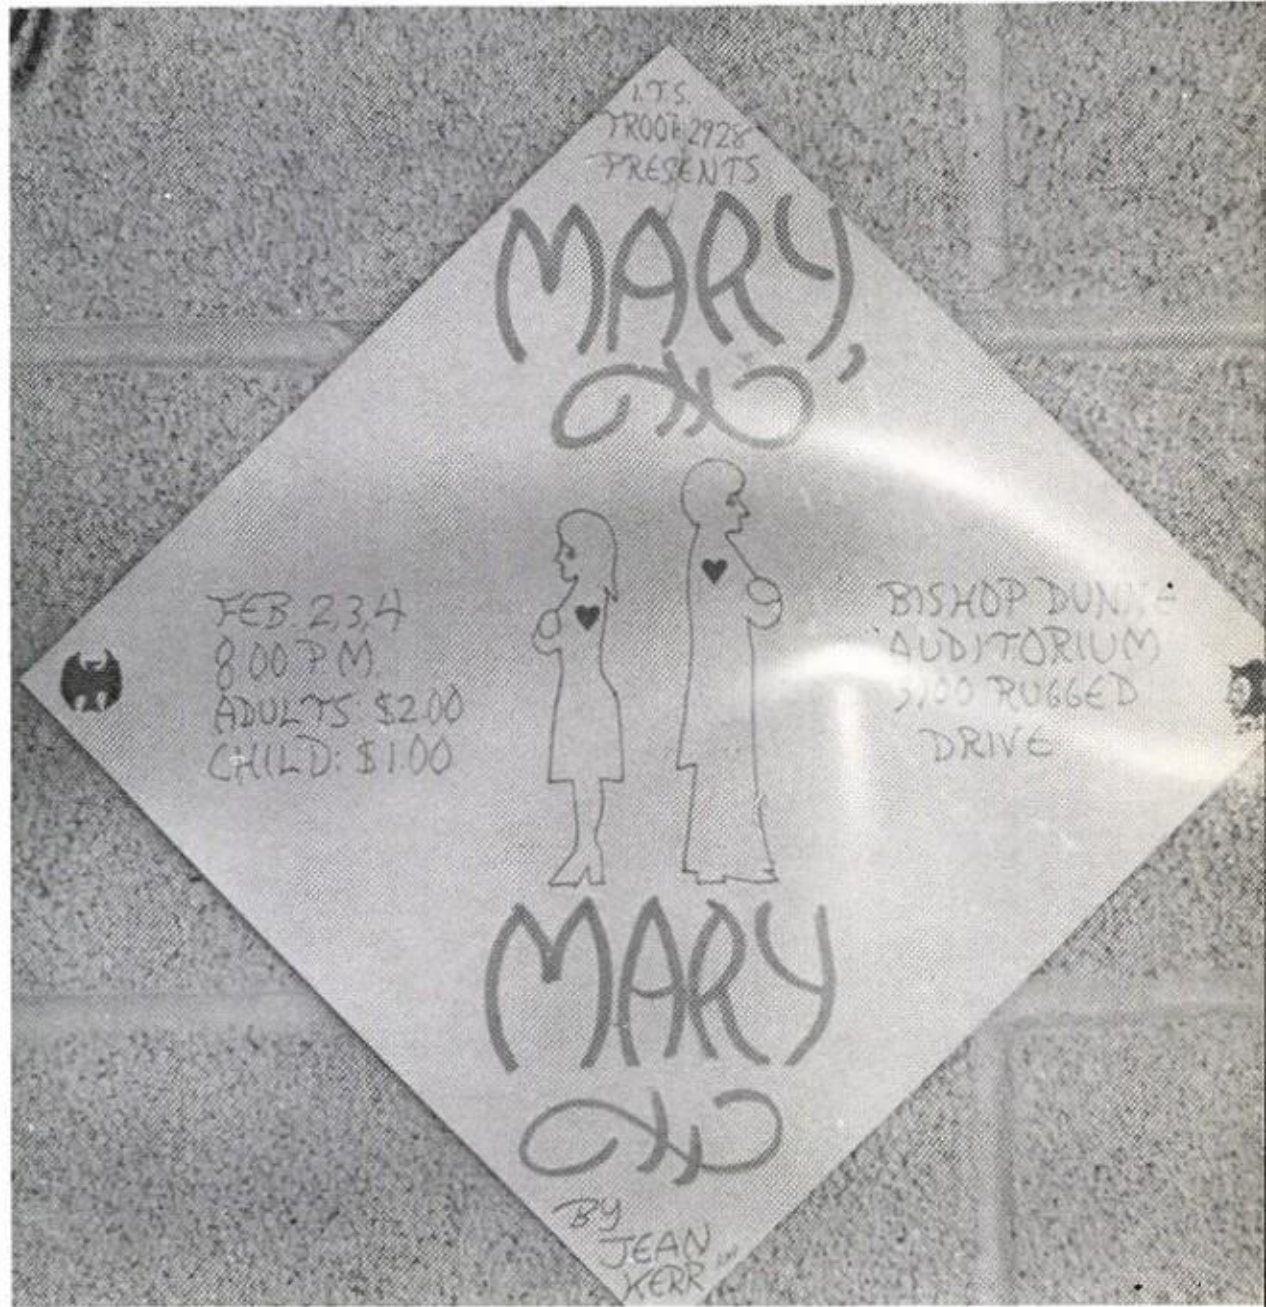

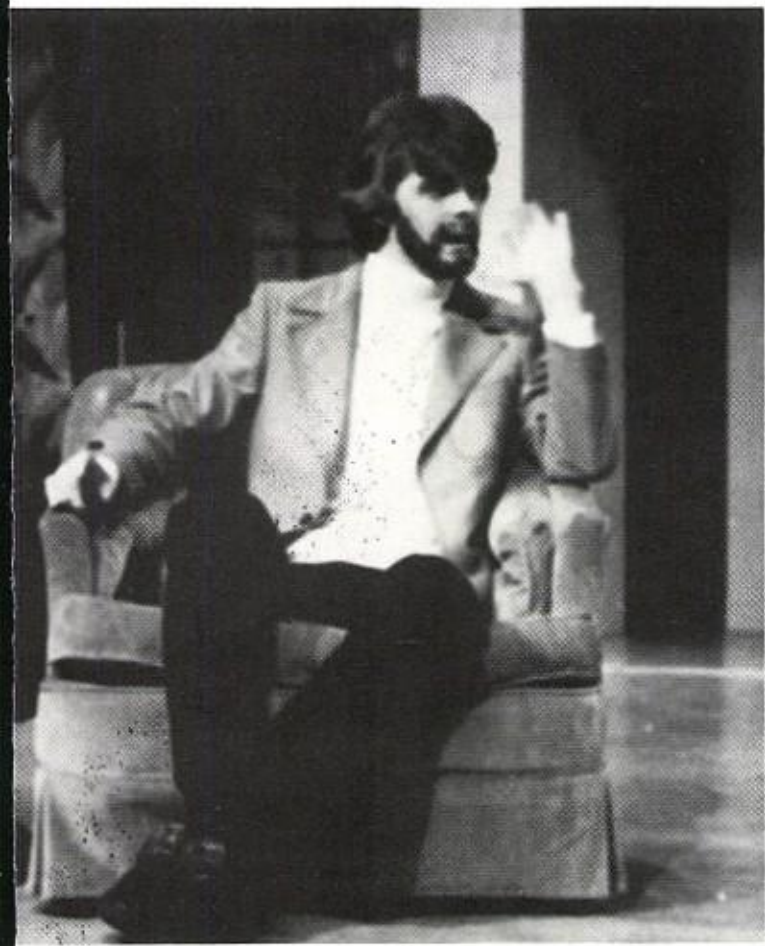

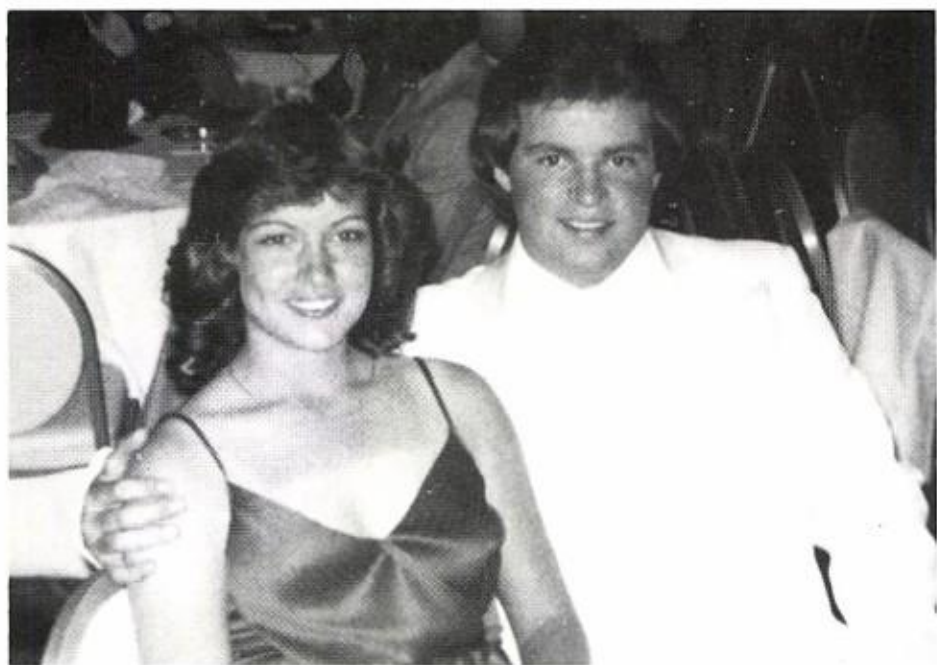

In early February, the Thespian Honor Society under the direction of Mr. Richard Dotterer superbly produced the hit Broadway comedy Mary, Mary. Starring Amy Mills as Mary and David Magana as Bob McKellaway, the play revolved on the relationship of a couple whose divorce was pending until a humorous chain of events reunited them. Supporting characters were Steve Iwanski as Dirk Winston, Rosemary Sanchez, as Tiffany Richards and James Behan as Oscar Nelson.

Teacher Appreciation Day

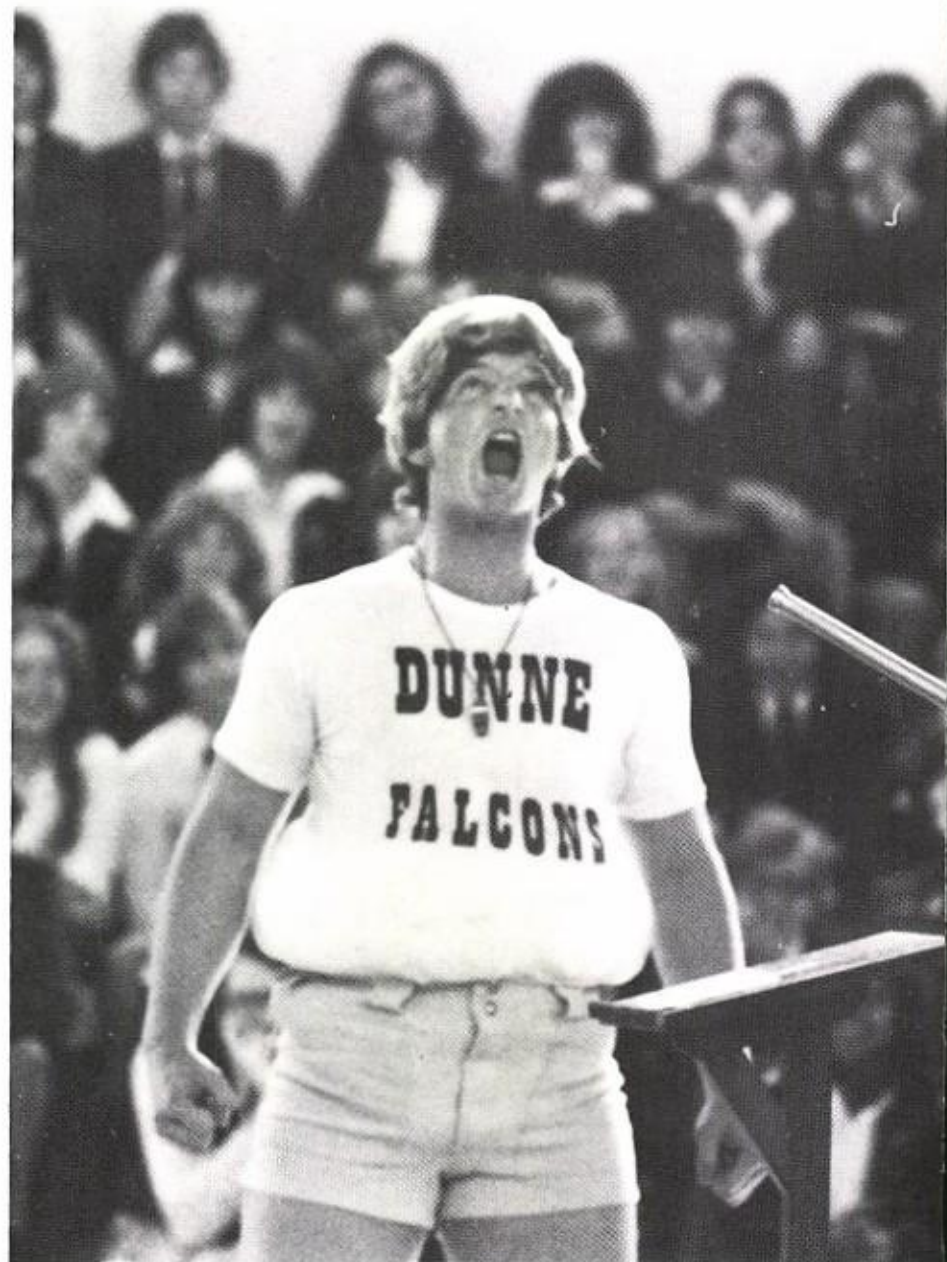

This year, the Bishop Dunne faculty was honored with a Teacher Appreciation Day. The teachers and administration were served breakfast by the Student Council and were later entertained by members of the senior class at a faculty roast. Among the teachers roasted were Sr. Mary Brian, Mr. McGowan, Miss Holland, Mrs. Crissey, Coach Crook, Coach Henderson, and Coach Wright.

Winter Sports

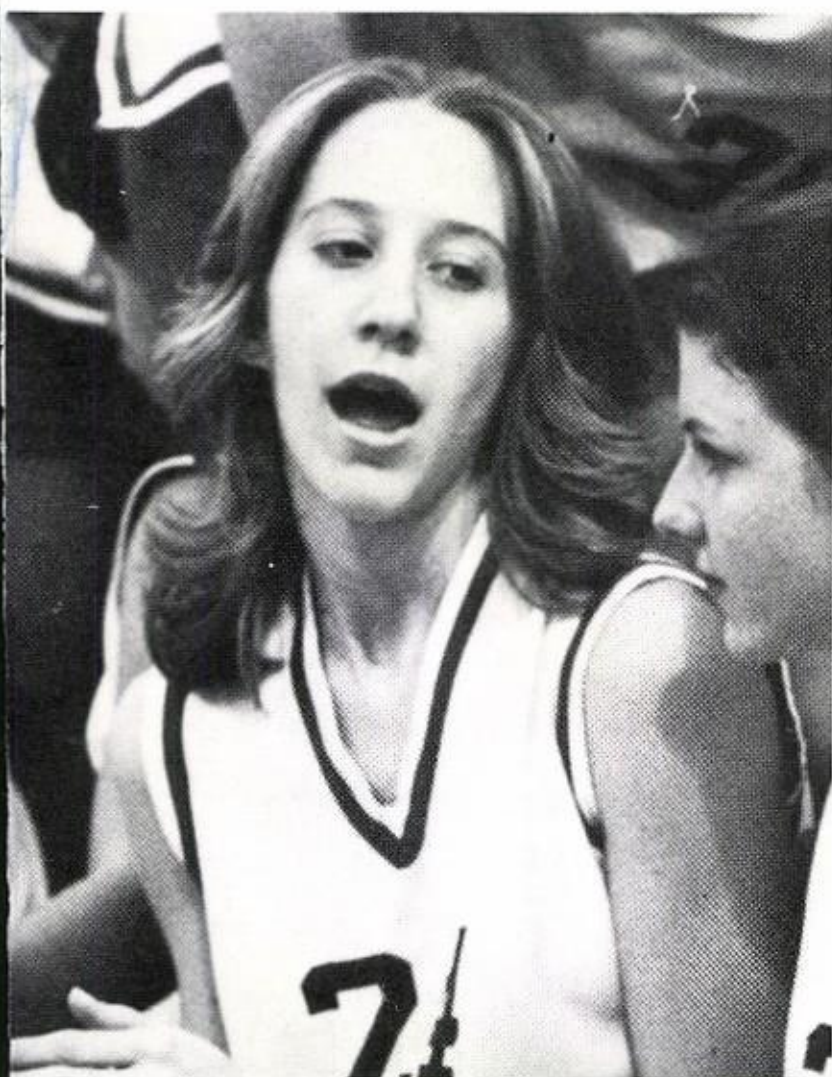

Girls Varsity Basketball

For the girls' varsity basketball team, the 1978-1979 season was a period of change. Not only did they switch from half-court to full-court basketball, they were also under the new leadership of Coach Steve Carney. Though this season was not as successful as past years, the valuable experience gained by this year's team promises a bright future for the Falcons.

Boys Varsity Basketball — State Champions

The 1978-1979 Falcon Basketball team had the best won-lost record in the history of boys' varsity basketball at Bishop Dunne, winning 23 games and losing only 5. These young men were outstanding in tournament play, as well.

They brought to Dunne trophies from the Waxahachie Invitational Tourney, Knights of Columbus Tourney, and Consolation at the prestigious Dr. Pepper Tournament against AAAA competition. Their most important accomplishments, however, were to attain the two goals set at the beginning of the year. These were to win the district and state championships. The Falcons not only won both, but won them with style and class. Coach Wright was named Coach of the Year by several organizations.

A week after the Falcon basketball team had clinched the district 3-AAA crown, the Falcons, headed by Coach David Wright, took a trip to San Antonio. Their journey was not to visit, but to compete in the TCIL State Basketball Championship. The Falcons, a very cool group of talented and debonair young men, took on the trip with one thing in mind: to bring the State Championship back to Dunne. And that is exactly what they did!

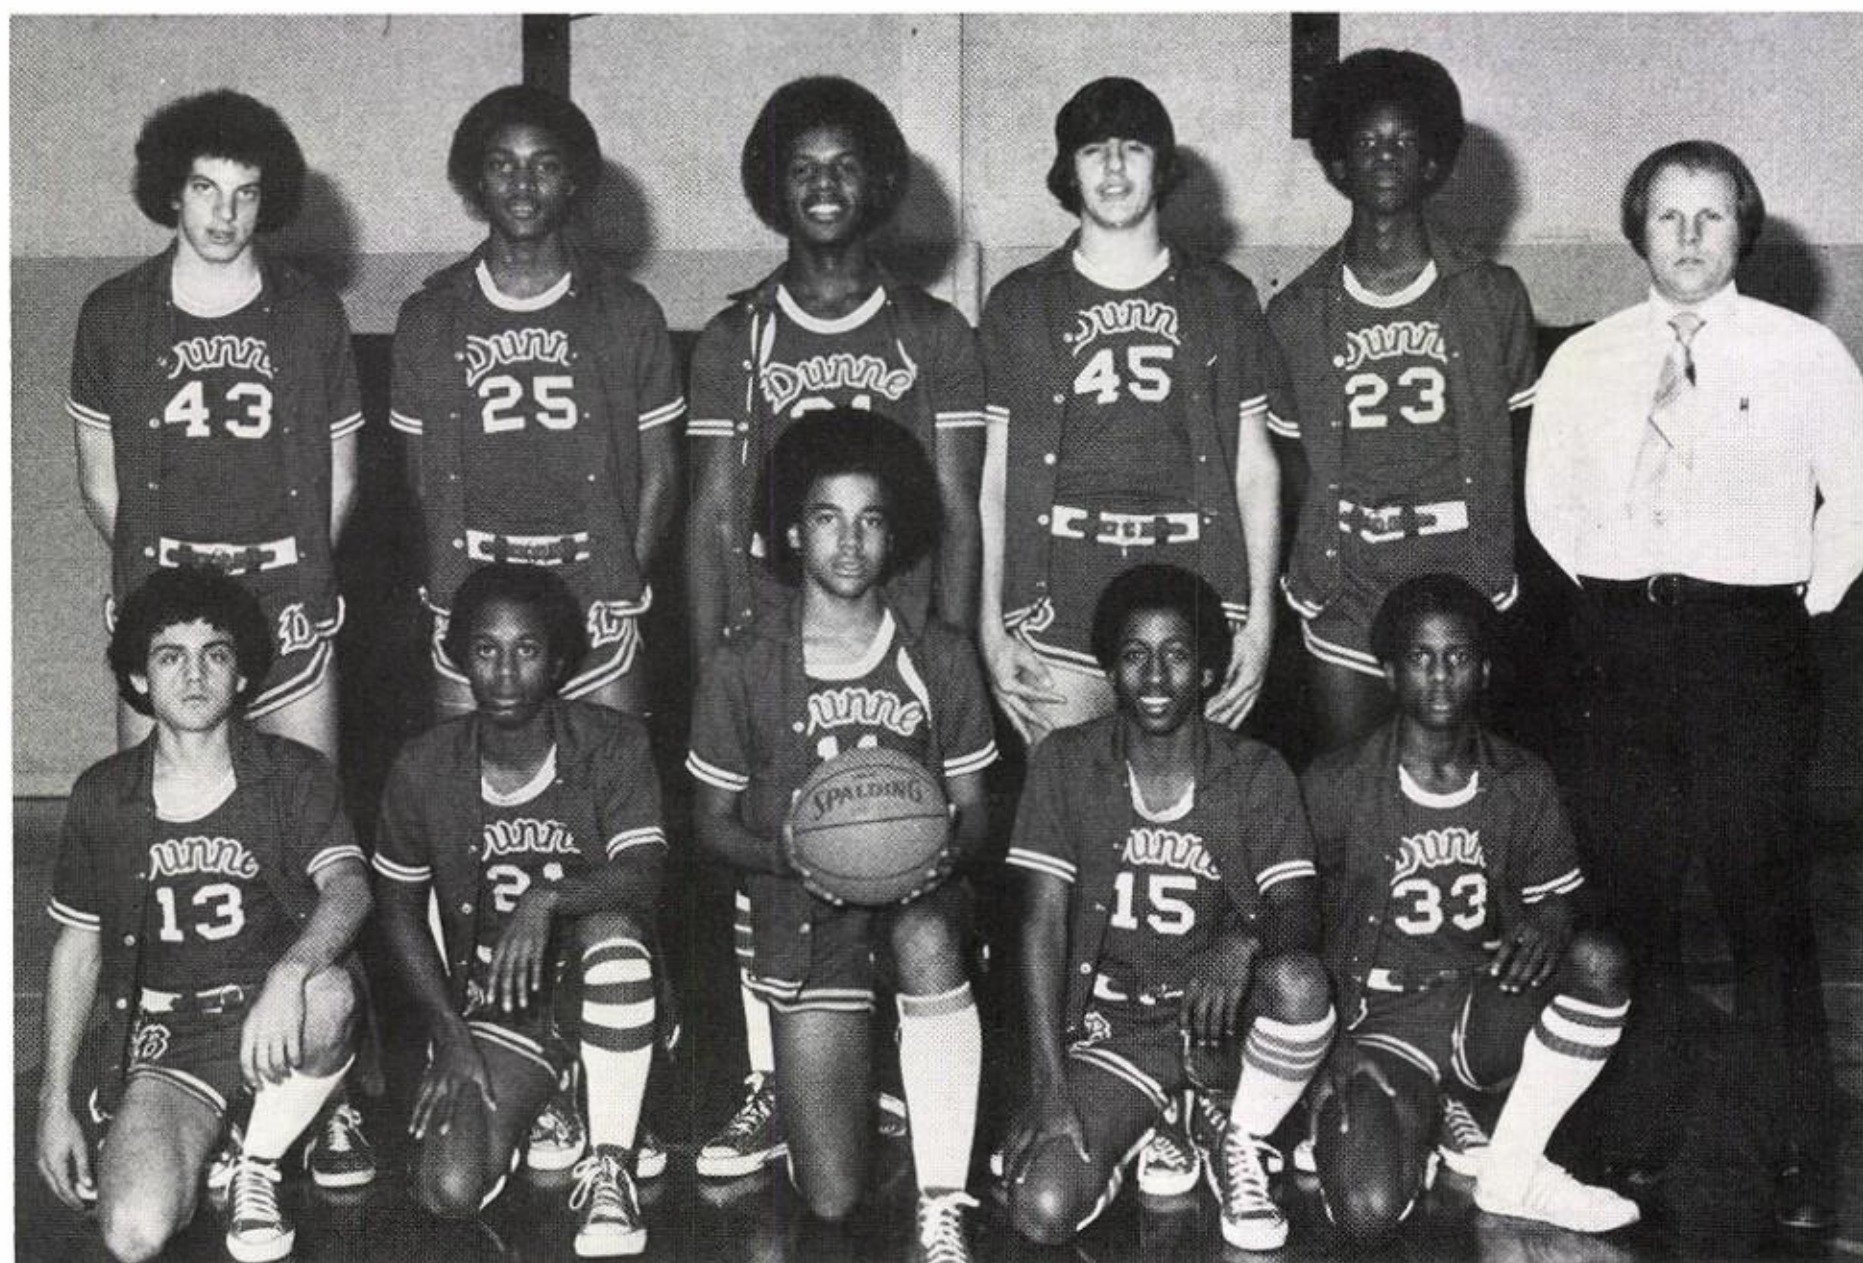

The Falcons started out like champs, winning over St. Thomas of Houston, 73 to 51, and sewed the tournament up by beating a tough San Antonio team, Holy Cross.

Mitre '79

Staff

Producing a book of 288 pages with over 2000 pictures and thousands of words requires patience, cooperation and dedication. This year's Mitre staff, under the direction of Lynda Fiorenza and Patty Kappes, worked during the summer, during long evening sessions, during vacations and even after graduation to create a book that would hold all the memories of the 1978-79 year. While ours is a task that seldom receives applause, it is the most permanent of all school activities. For that reason, we have tried to do the best possible job.

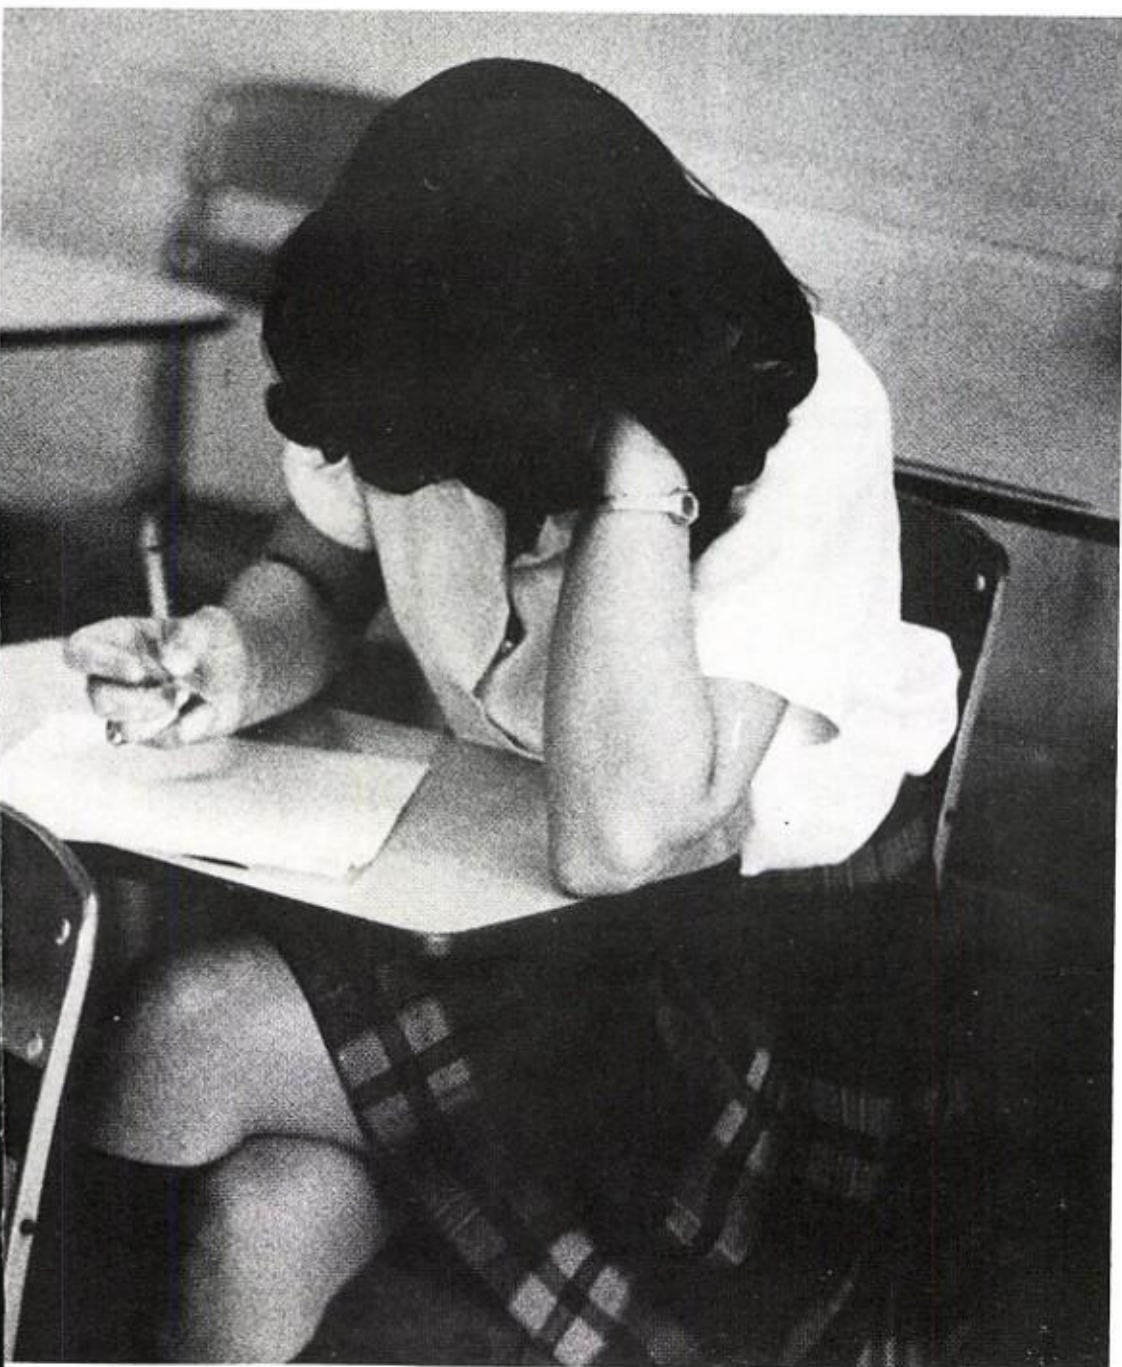

Section Editors: Veronica Smith, Nancy Aiton;
Co-Editors: Patty Kappes, Lynda Fiorenza;
Section Editors: Alma Sims, Tammy Gallion.

Staff Members: Kelly Molina, Linda Odeh, Regina Broadnax, Susan Delzer

Student Council

All year round, the Student Council has provided entertaining, as well as educational, programs and activities. The enthusiasm that it sparked was reflected in the increased number of students running for an office. Overall, the council worked hard to turn out a good year for the student body.

James Behan, Treasurer; Veronica Smith, Parliamentarian; Laure Harkenrider, President; Phyllis Lister, Director of Public Relations; Libby Romo, Director of Spirit Affairs.

The National Forensic League began the year with a smaller membership than in previous years, but continued to be an active club. In addition to participating in a number of tournaments around the area, the club also participated in the annual TCIL rally held at the University of Dallas. Although the NFL was forced to cancel the Third Annual Falcon Speech Tournament because of the weather, the club did have a successful year.

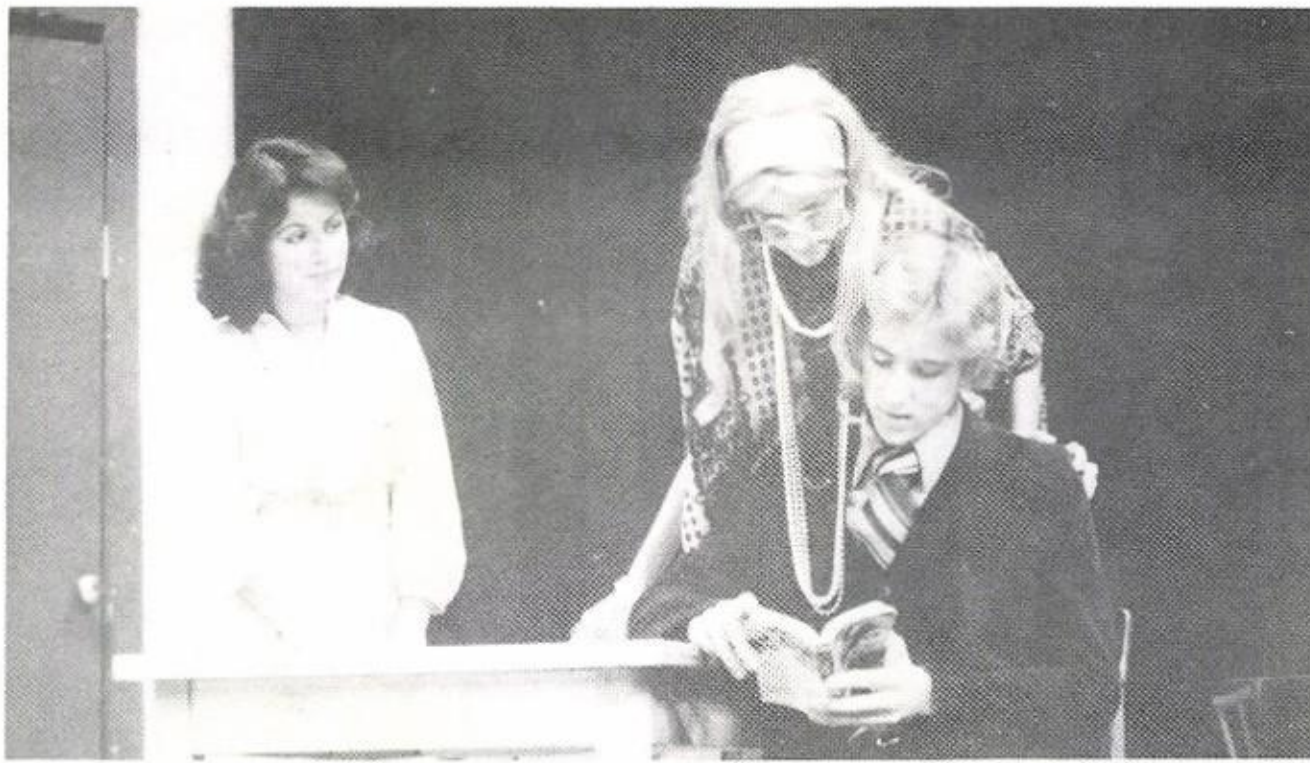

Thespian Troupe

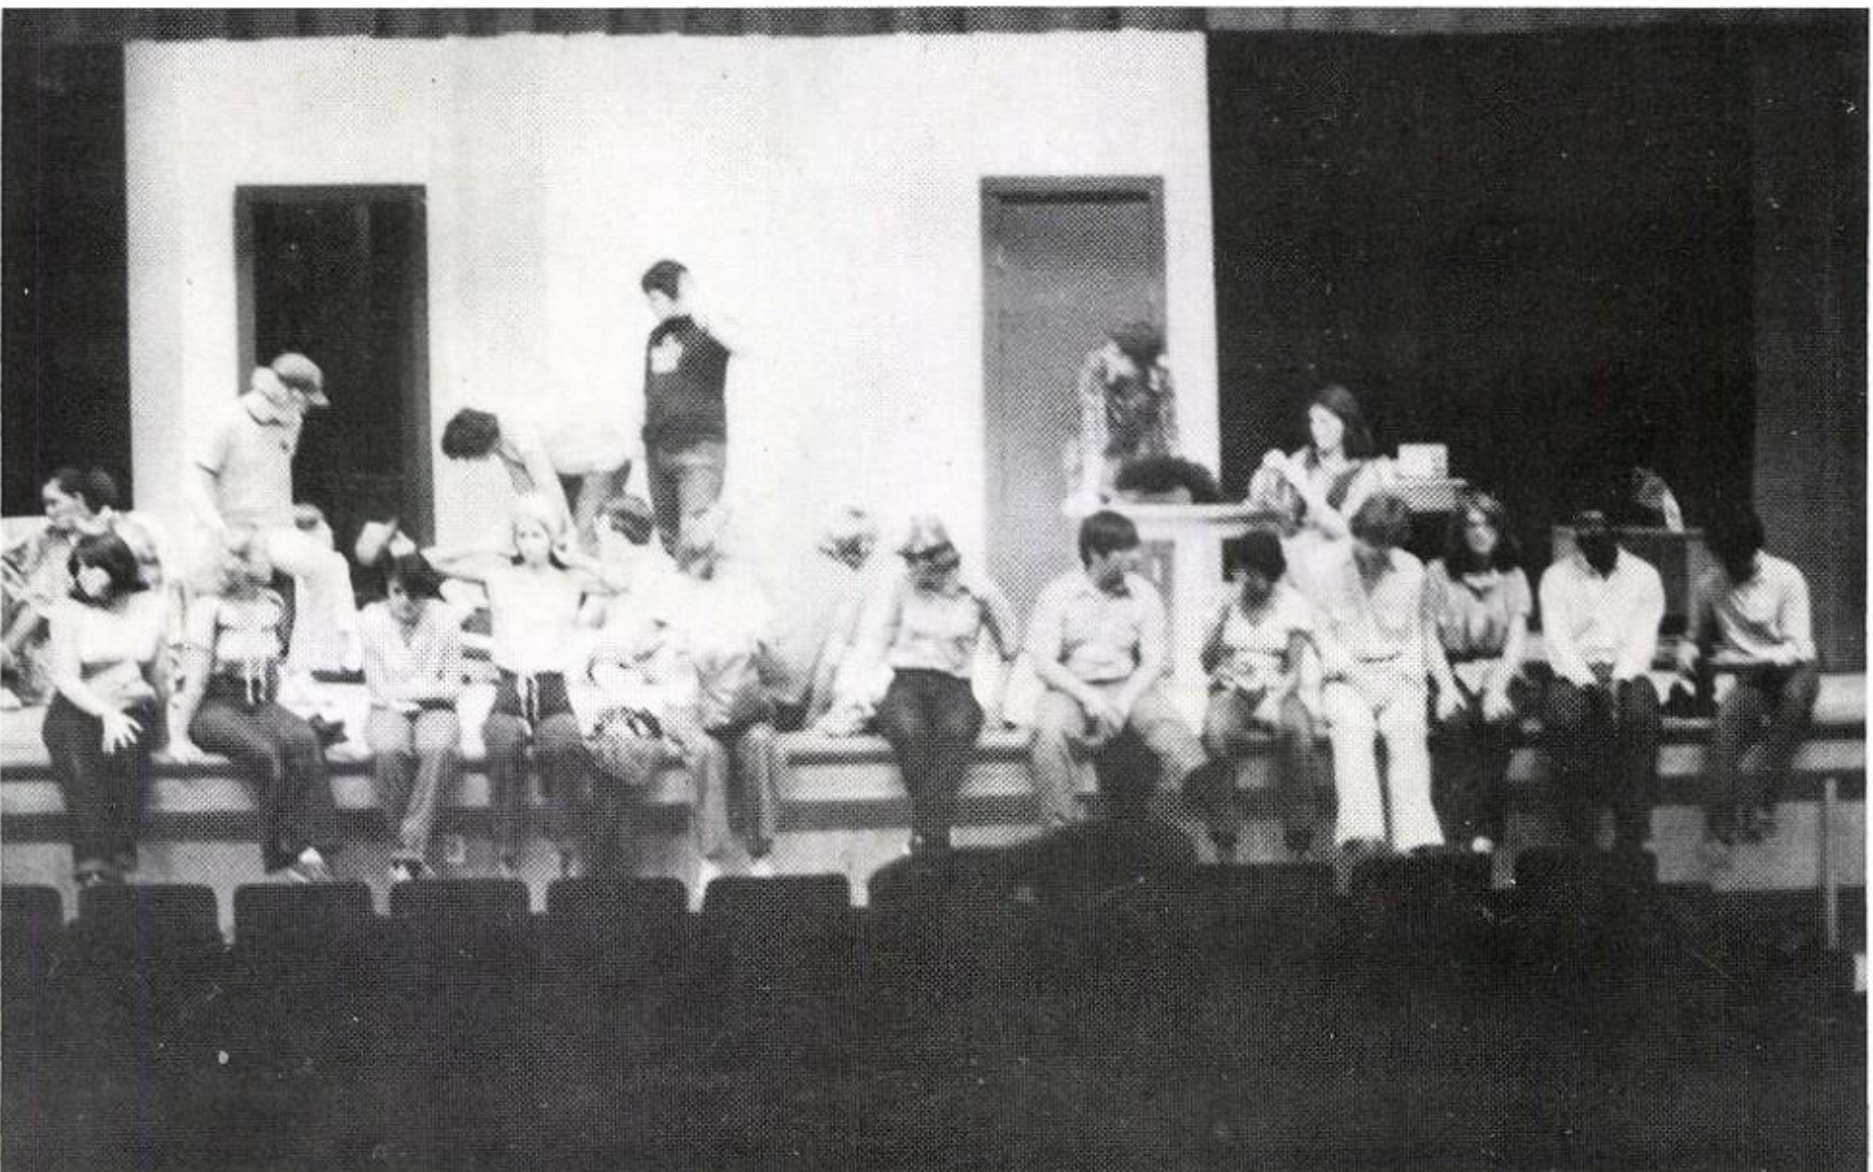

First Row: Linda Derdeyn, James Behan — Vice-President, Connie Jones, Julie Moreno. Second Row: Leticia Magana — representative, Deanna Kozarevich, Annette Fodor, Marguerite Guadagnoli, Rene Matus. The Thespian Society was busy all year filling out a full schedule. In combination with the Drama Club, the troupe presented a mystery play in the fall, "The Woman at Dead Oaks." The troupe also independently presented "Mary, Mary," a romantic comedy, in February. A sign-mime show was put on for the Home and School and then helped raise money at the Family Fair. Members of the troupe had bake sales throughout the year for acting awards which were given out at the year-end Thespian Initiation.

"Cast on Stage"

The Drama Club was involved in many projects this year, starting with the fall play entitled "The Woman at Dead Oaks." Other activities included three one-act plays presented in May, and the club also was involved in all of the presentations put on by the Thespian Society.

In the spring several Club members performed poems and dramatic readings for the Texas State Private School Rally at the University of Dallas, and the club ran a booth at the March Family Fair. An end-of-year banquet concluded the year's activities.

The Falcons began the 1979 season with basically a young team. We had experienced field event people returning, but the runners overall were young. We worked hard and were patient. We felt we would be good by district. With very hard work and determination by all the young members, we steadily improved and the seniors exerted strong leadership. The Falcons won the District championship for the ninth year in a row, and placed second in the State meet.

Making a tough out.

"Now where'd that ball go?"

A new way to play leap frog.

The Varsity baseball team ended the season with a 12-7 record and a fourth place finish in the state tournament. Though the fourth place finish was short of the initial goal of being the state champions, it is still a great accomplishment.

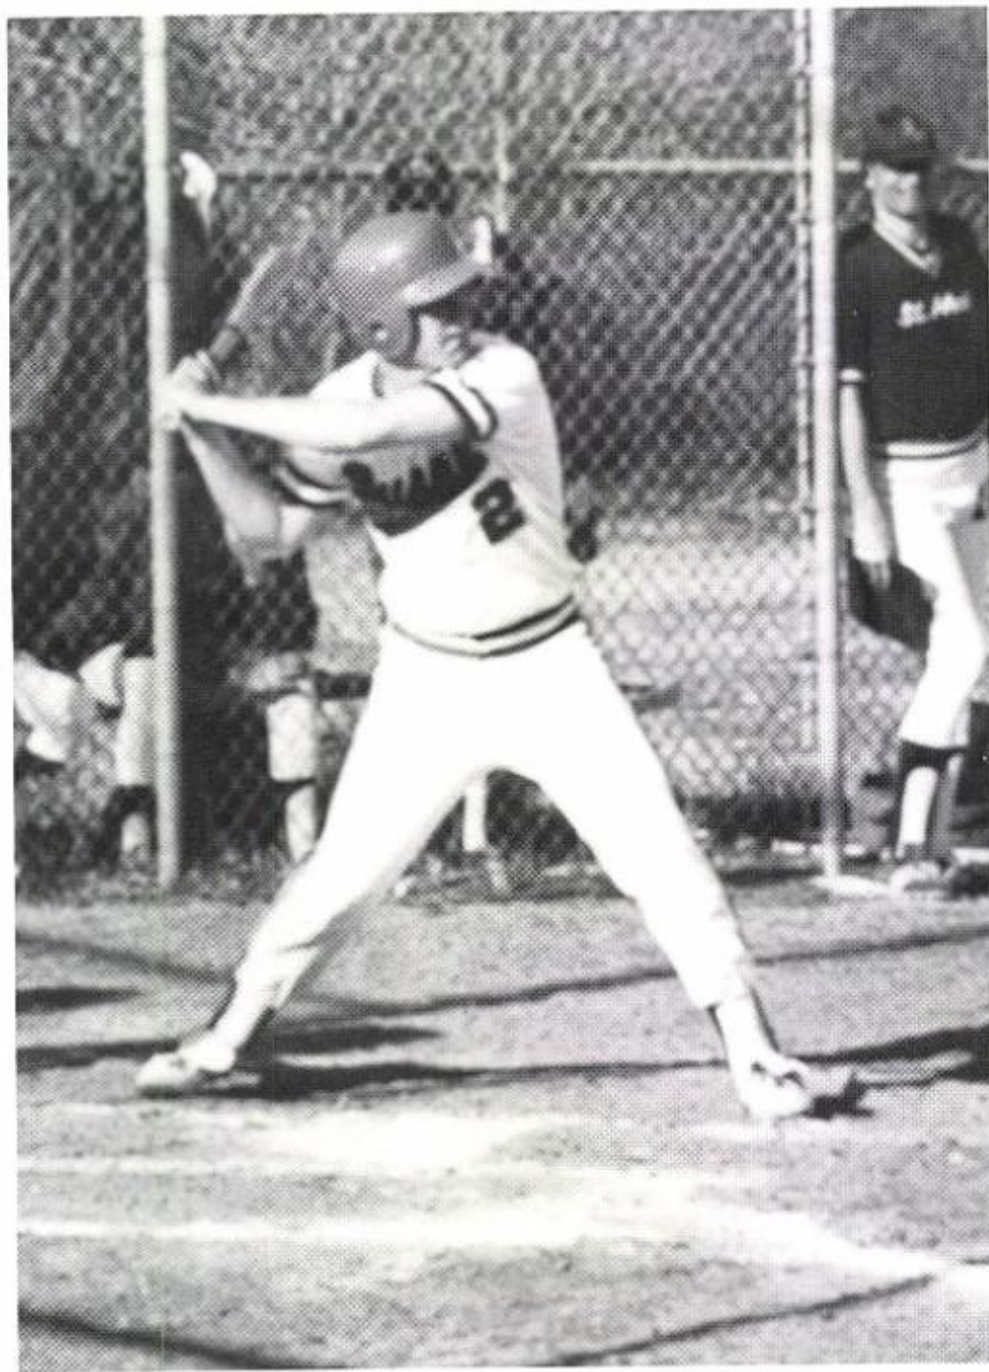

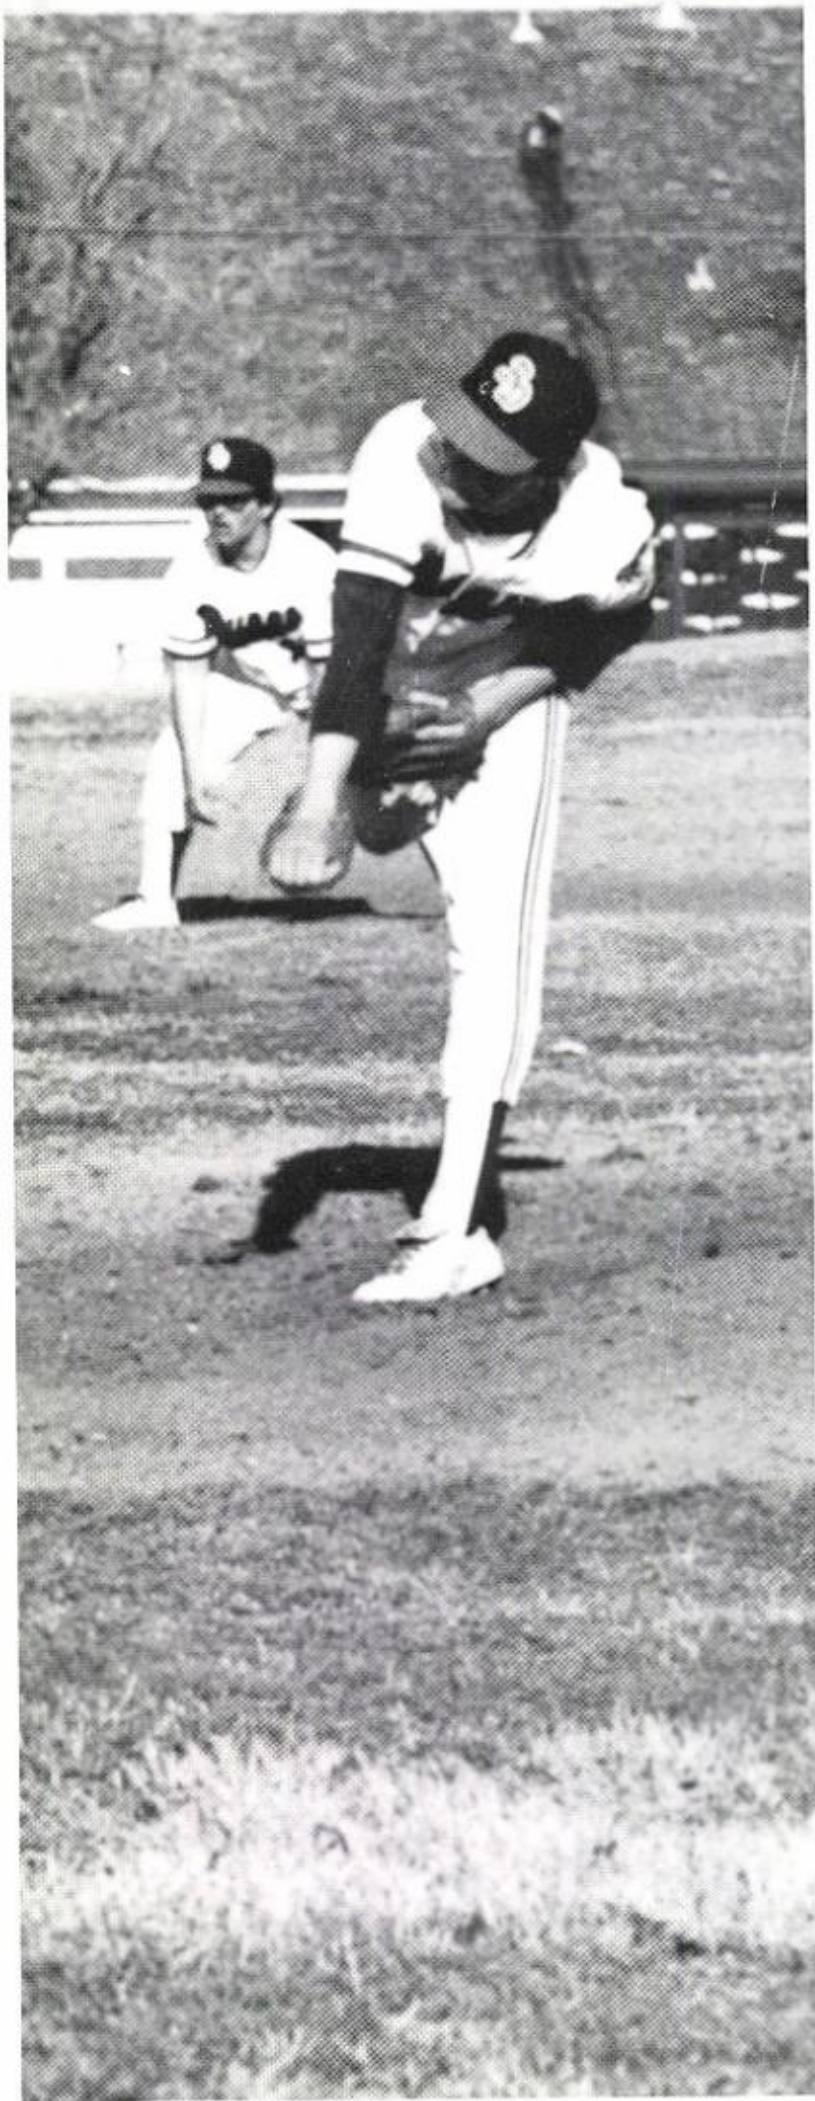

"AN-TI-CI-PAAAAATION! It's makin' me wait . . ."

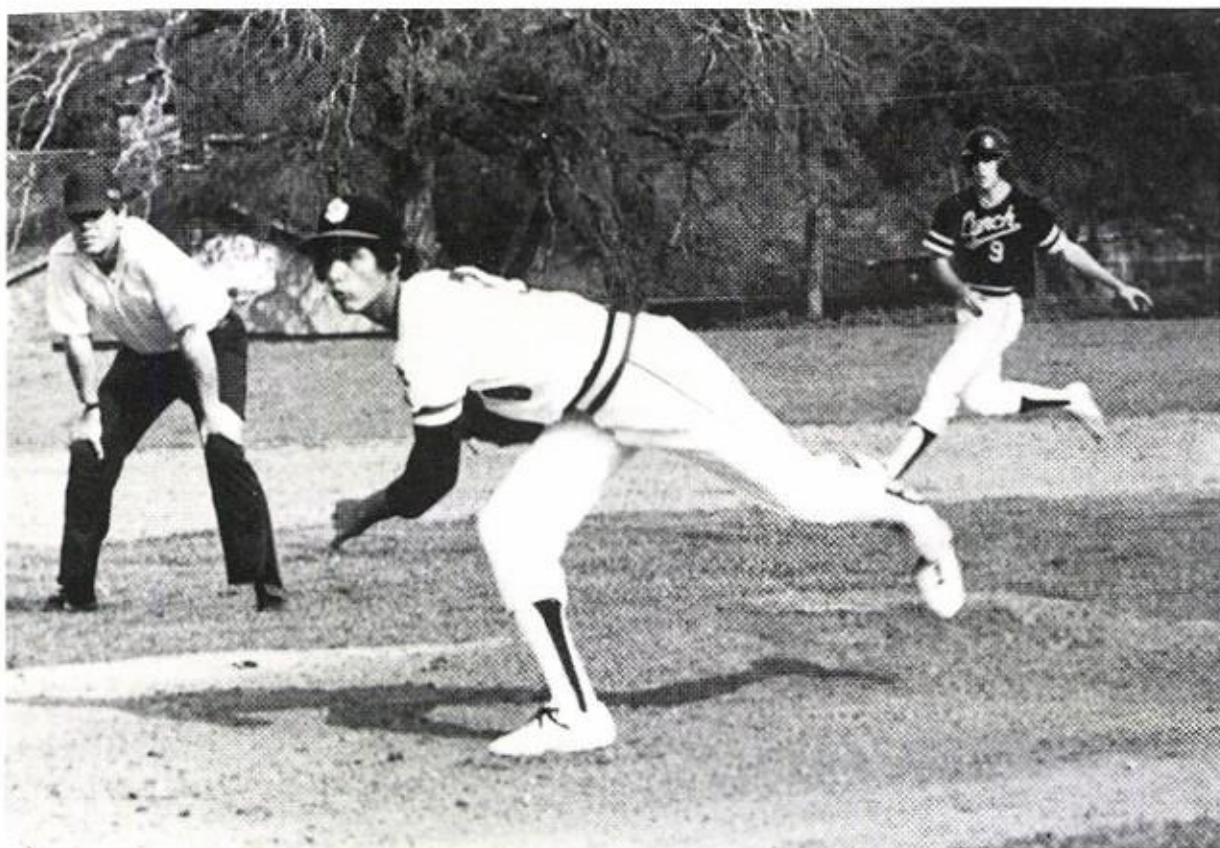

Maddog Roeder and his partner Slim.

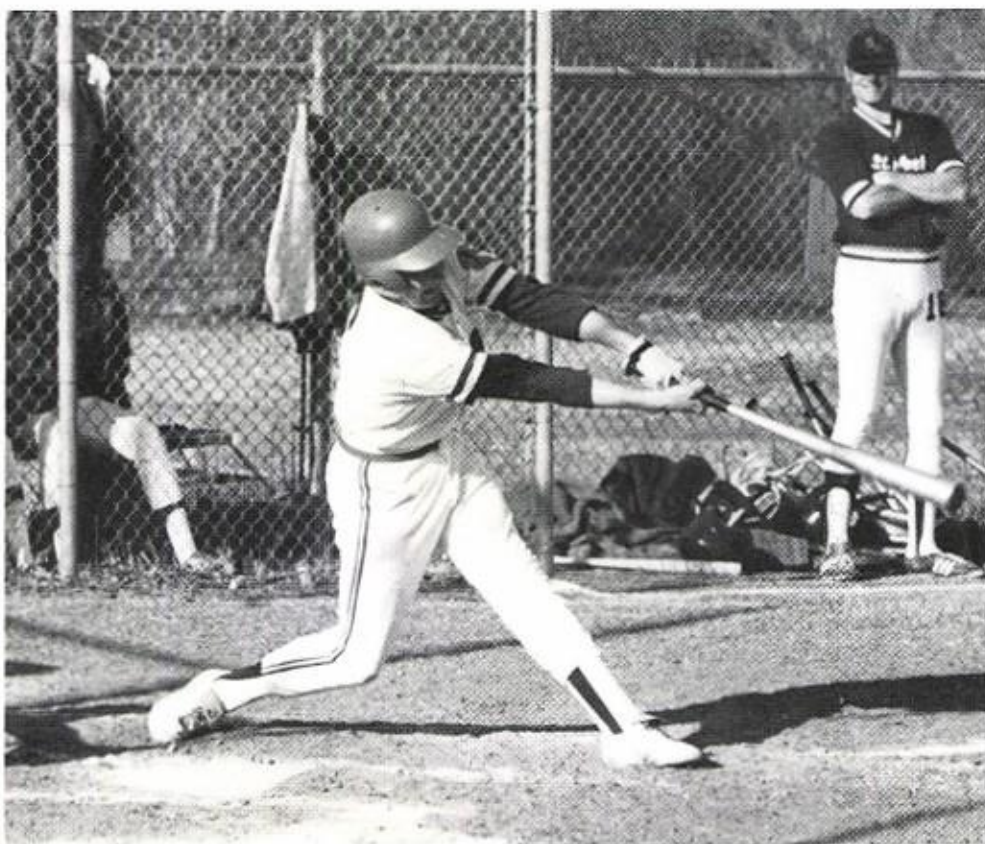

Russell puts the ball over the plate.

Though the performance of the J.V. team was somewhat hampered by the weather, the past season provided some valuable experience and helped develop the talent for next year's varsity team. J.V. team members coached by Mr. Greg Ochs were: Eric Smith, Mickey Mitchell, Anthony Garza, Jose Gonzalez, Joe Michael Sifuentez, Steve Kral, Albert Garcia, Keith Humphrey, Freddie Cohen, Myron Curry, John Denton, Dave Roberts, Alex Acuna, Frank Hernandez, Chris Heigle, Felix Lozada, David Wilmes, manager.

The Eyaletts work very hard all year long to provide the school with various forms of entertainment, but they reach their peak in the spring with "That's Entertainment." It is in this performance that the girls are able to get away from the strict regimen of "drill team" and develop their own talents and abilities.

Talent Show

"How do I love thee . . ."

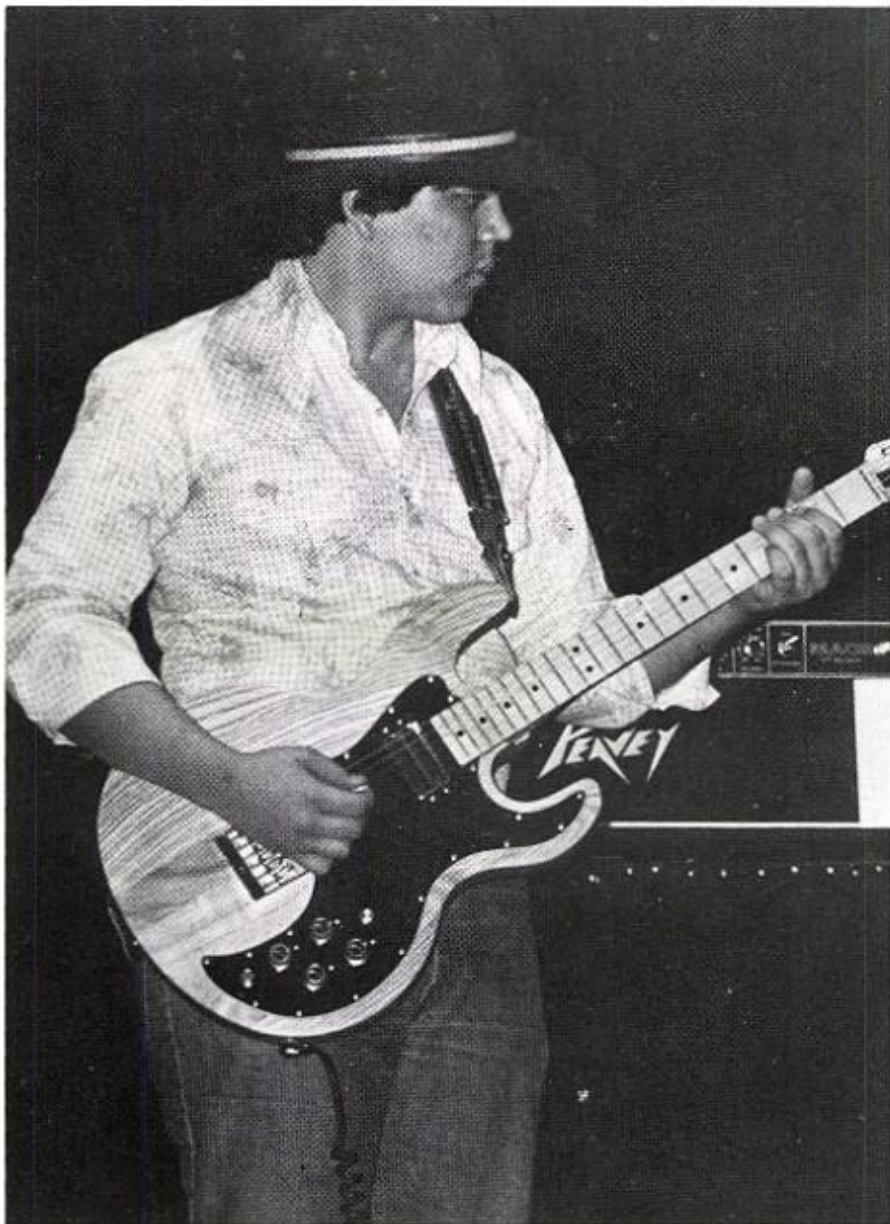

Libby Romo contributed to the talent show by singing "Heart and Soul."

Anna Aquilar, Martha Martinez, and Teresa Martinez also sang in the talent show.

Mark Luna played the guitar and sang "My Sweet Lady."

Ben Gray played the guitar.

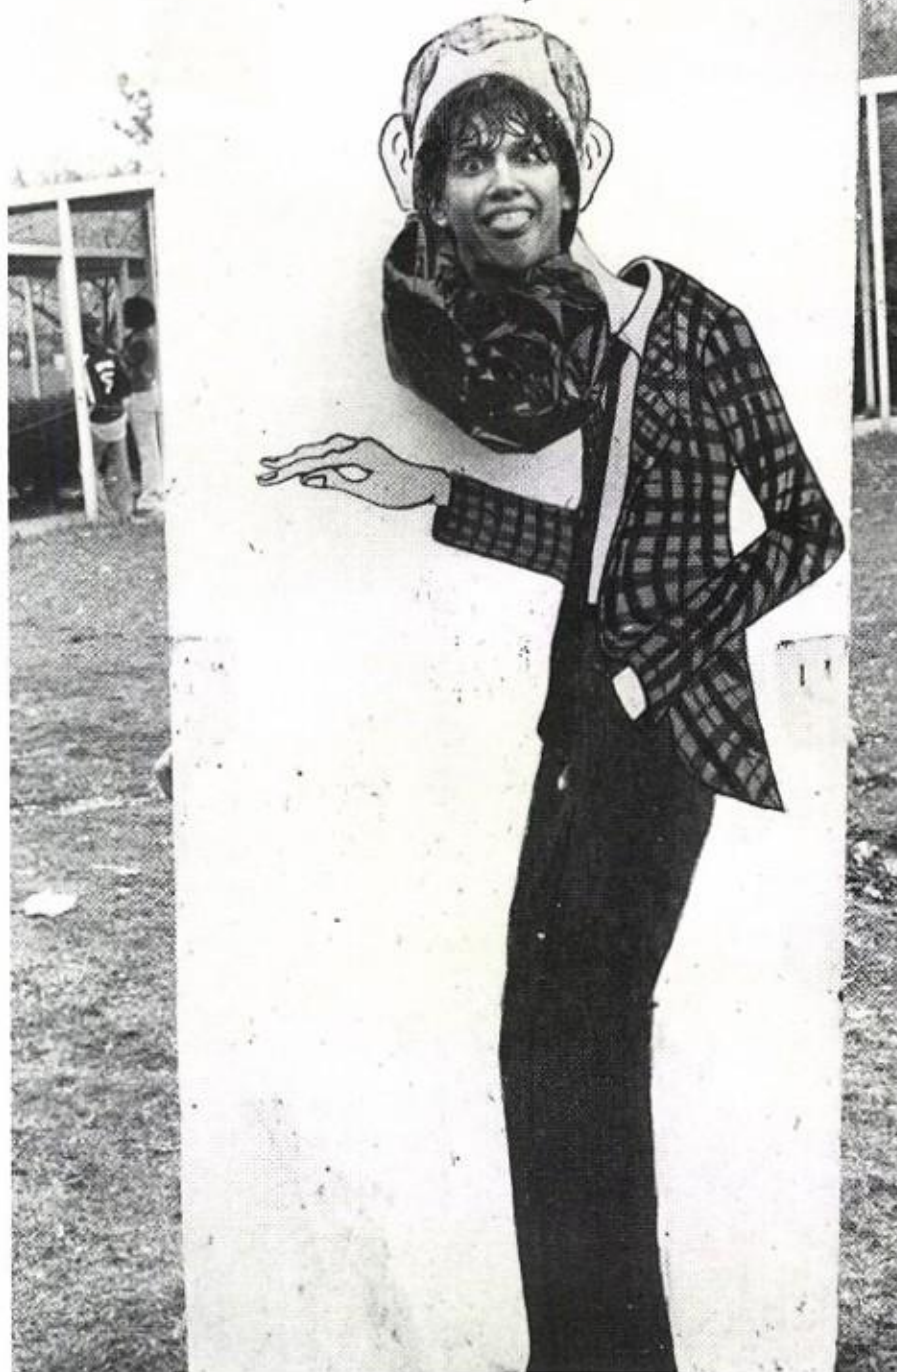

"WHAT A MAN!!!"

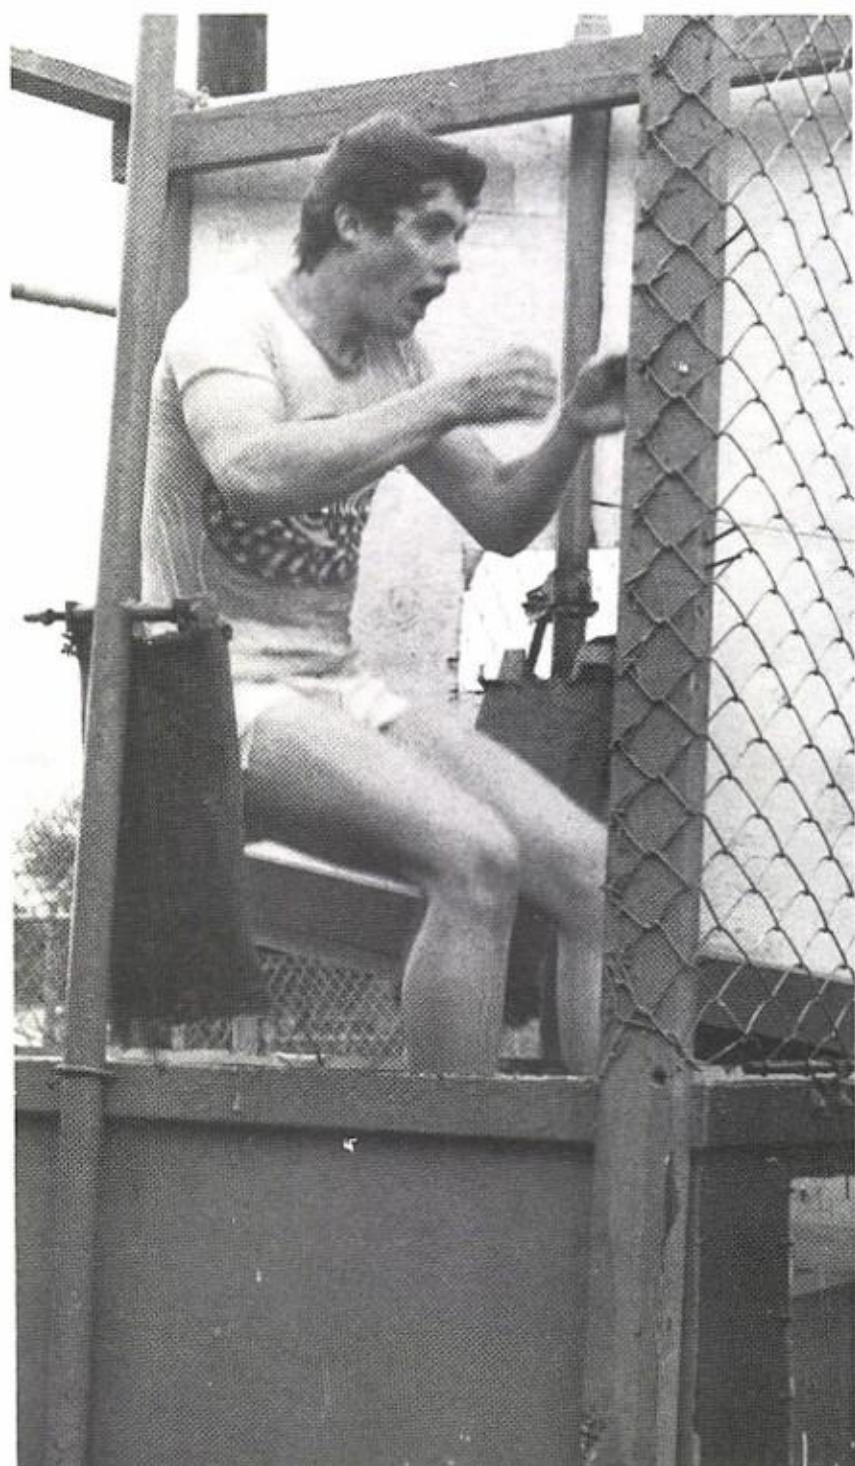

Family Fair

Everyone was all smiles at the Family Fair.

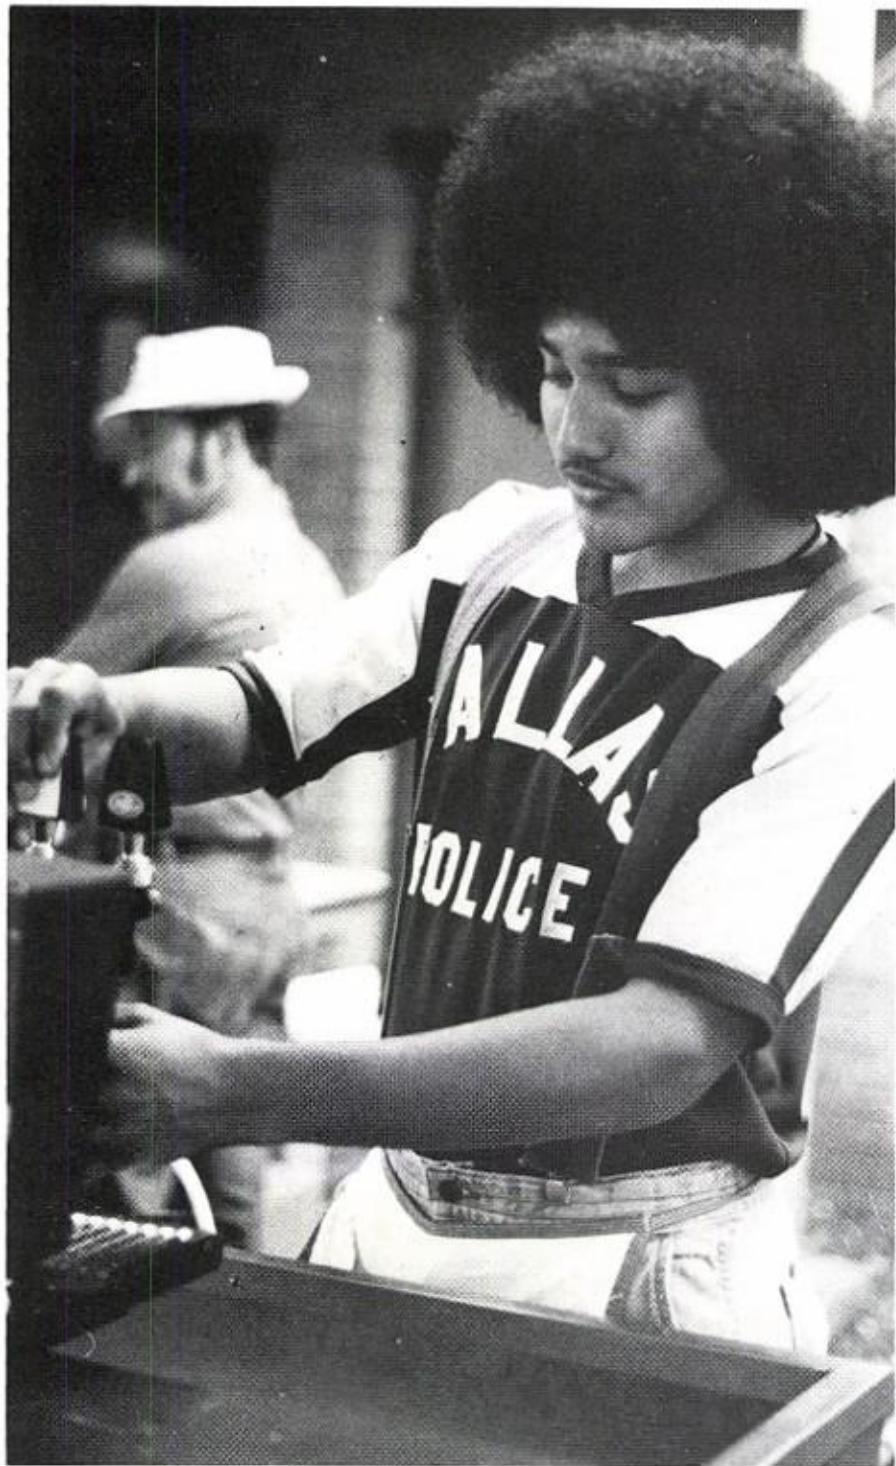

This is how Dean gets his annual bath.

Libby just l-o-v-e-s the school's food.

Coach Wright, are you still cheating at cards?!?!

Toward the end of the year, the Bishop Dunne Drama Club produced three one-act plays. The plays were: "The Mice Have Been Drinking Again", "Contributions", and "Saying Goodbye." The plays were very successful and entertaining, further proving the known fact that the Bishop Dunne Drama Club is overflowing with talent.

Mickey Mitchell talks with Rolando Fuentes in "Saying Goodbye".

Bridgette Hedgecock, Rolando Fuentes, and Steve Iwanski discuss Steve's leaving town.

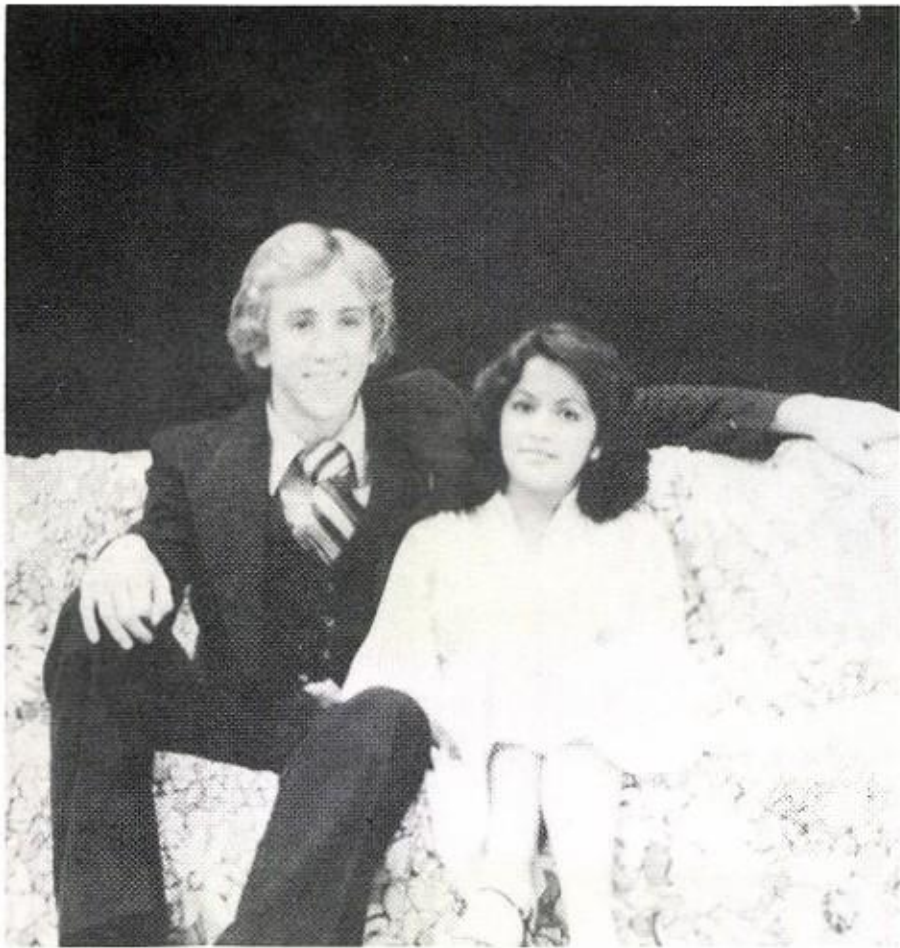

Yvette Alton and Cedric Thomas performed in "Contributions."

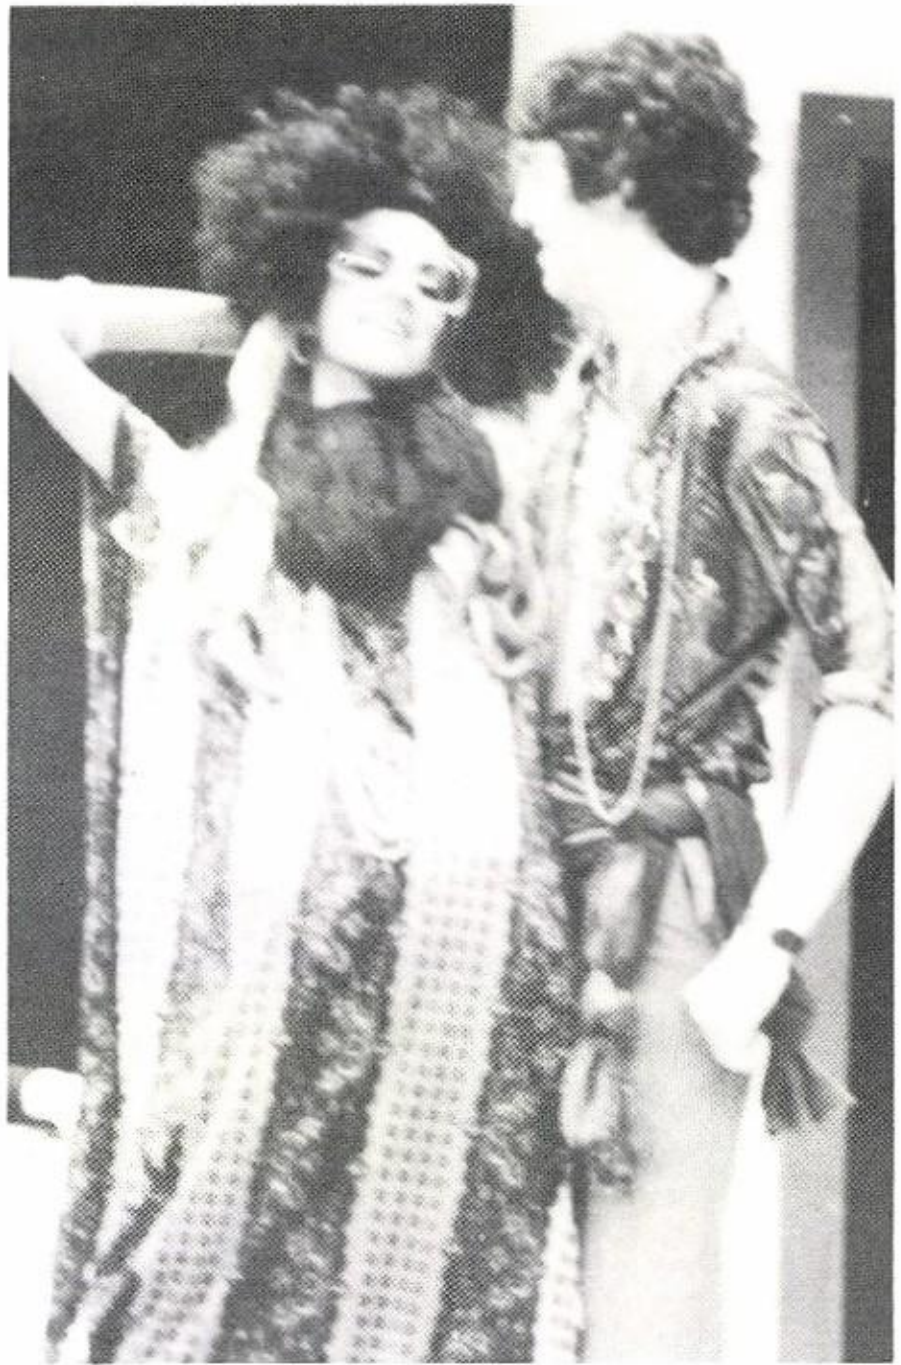

Yvette Alton in Contributions can't believe what she sees!

Spring Plays

Pat Couch and Rosemary Sanchez discuss the "mix up" concerning the date which was sent for Tina.

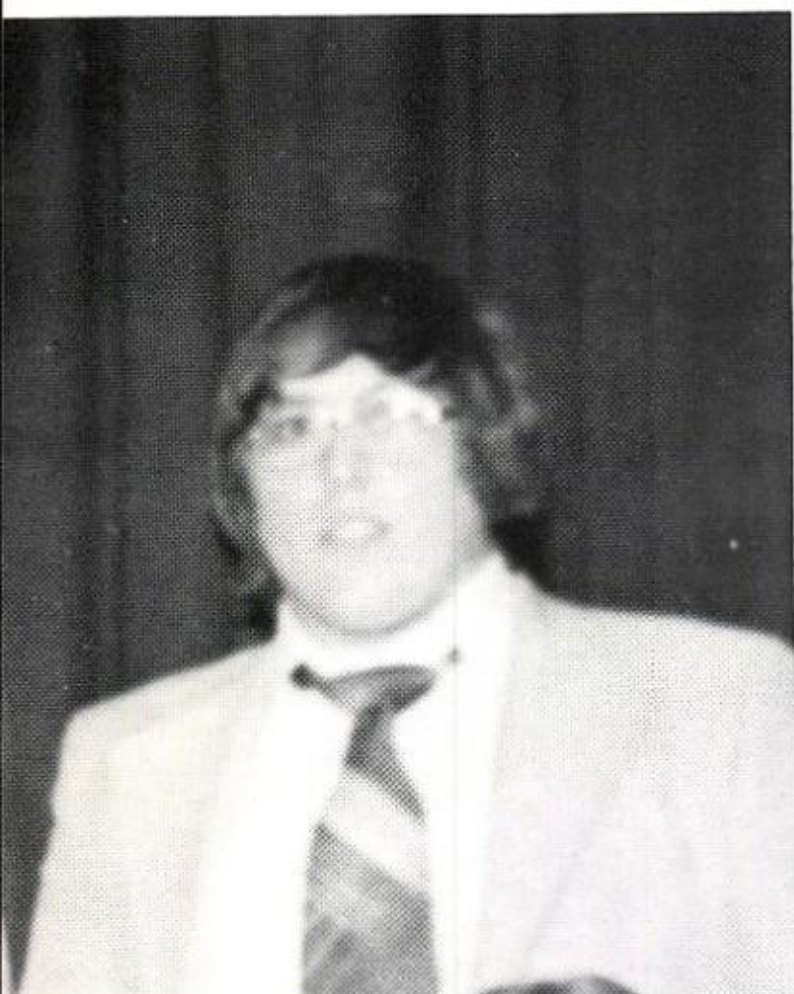

Tina Lewis and James Behan in "The Mice Have Been Drinking Again" meet through a dating service.

Senior Favorites

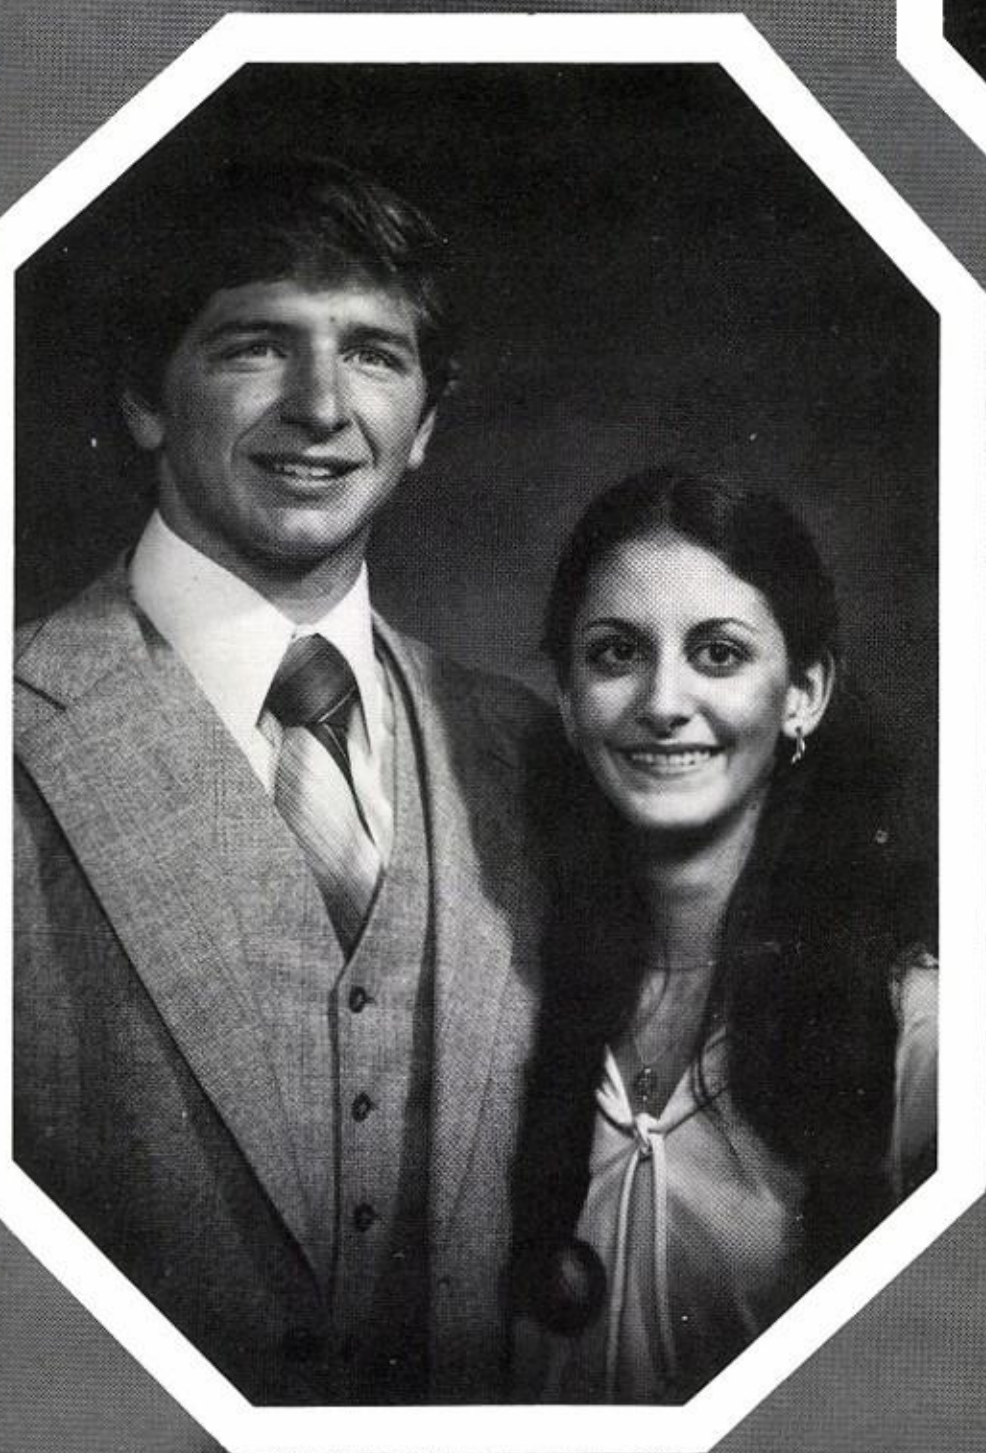

The selection of Senior Favorites began with the class of 1966. The present categories were established in 1971. To be voted a Senior Favorite is to be honored in a special way by one's own class, because the person honored has developed his own talents and skills to the degree that they are recognized by his fellow students. These talents cover a wide spectrum, from using one's innate ability, to developing a particular skill, to being friendly. For whatever criteria the Senior Favorites of 1979 have been chosen, they have, indeed, been honored by their class.

Senior Picnic at Kidd Springs

Anna is safe and secure in the arms of Jesse and Valente.

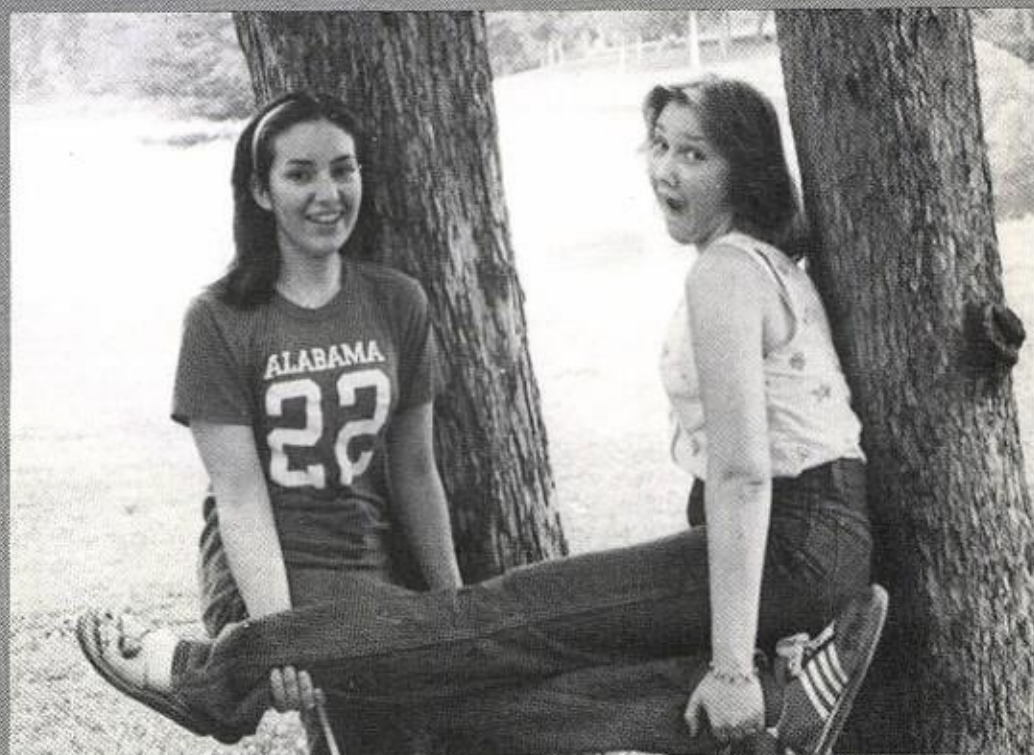

Kidd Springs Park was the site for this year's Senior picnic. Not only was it a time of fun with food and games, but also a time of reflection. Father Rick, the chaplain, was present to celebrate with the Seniors in a special Mass. Everyone enjoyed the picnic and the beautiful scenery at the park.

Hurry up and take the picture.

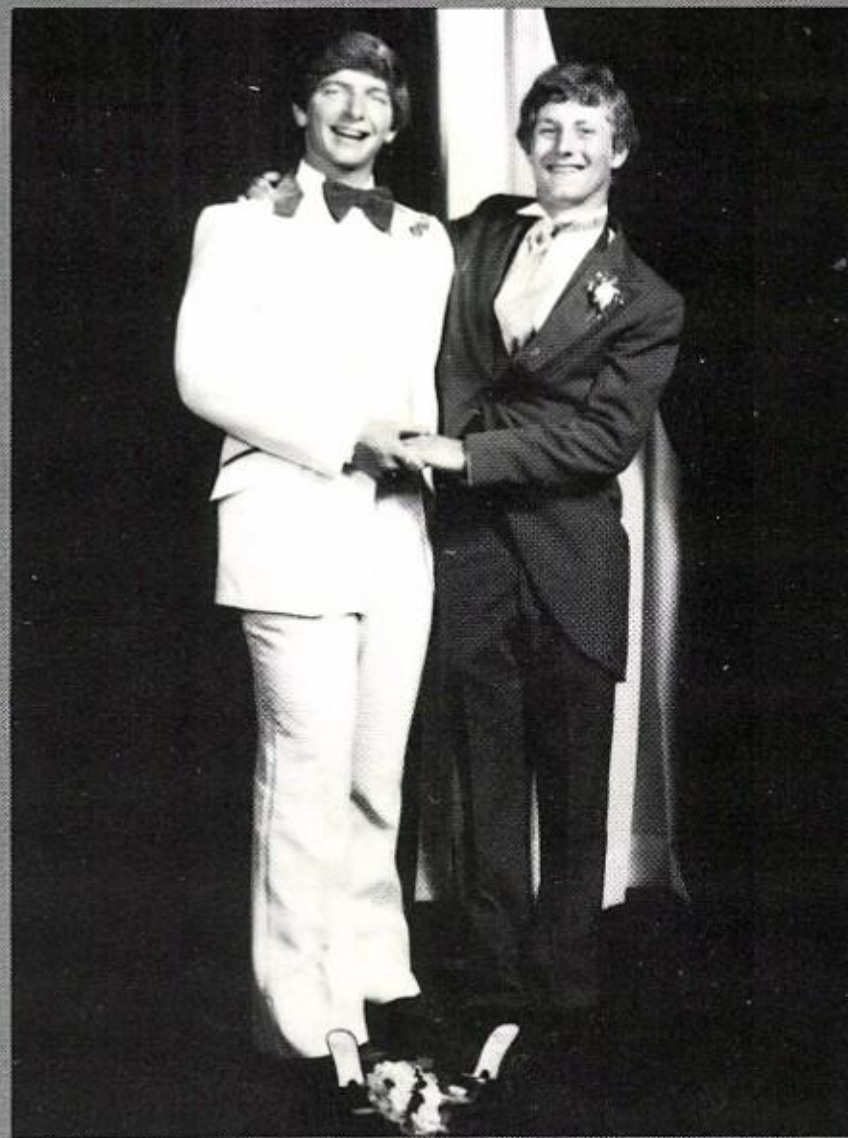

Oh yea!

Leticia and Deanna do a new dance.

Senior Prom . . .

The Senior Prom marked the beginning of the end for the class of '79. The dance took place in the Gold Room of the Fairmont with entertainment and music provided by Clout. The Senior Favorites and club presidents were announced during the evening. The prom proved to be one of the highlights of the Senior year.

Who picked up who?

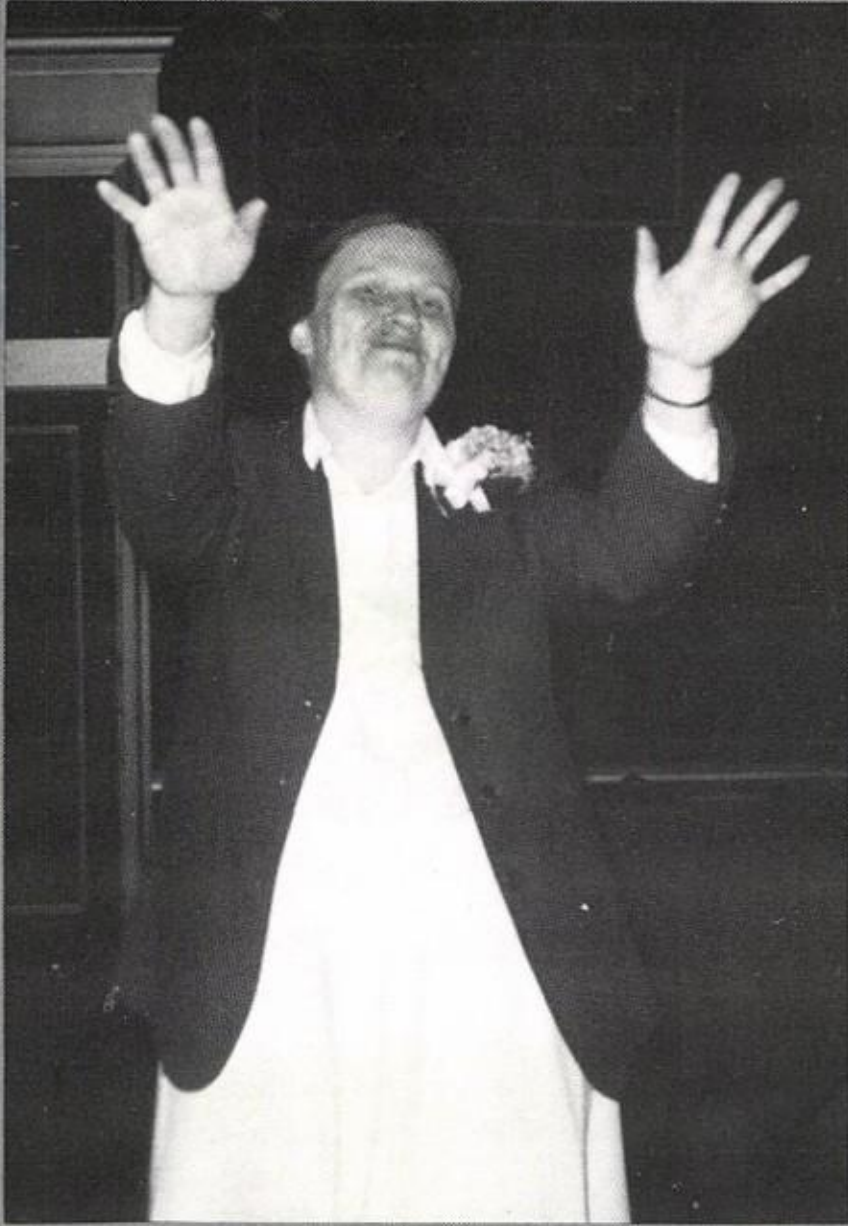

Everyone was well dressed for the prom.

Look what I found!

... at the Fairmont

Please! Please! I know I'm great.

Only three chairs and four people?

Nancy and Rod enjoy the evening.

We've got legs!

All Night Party

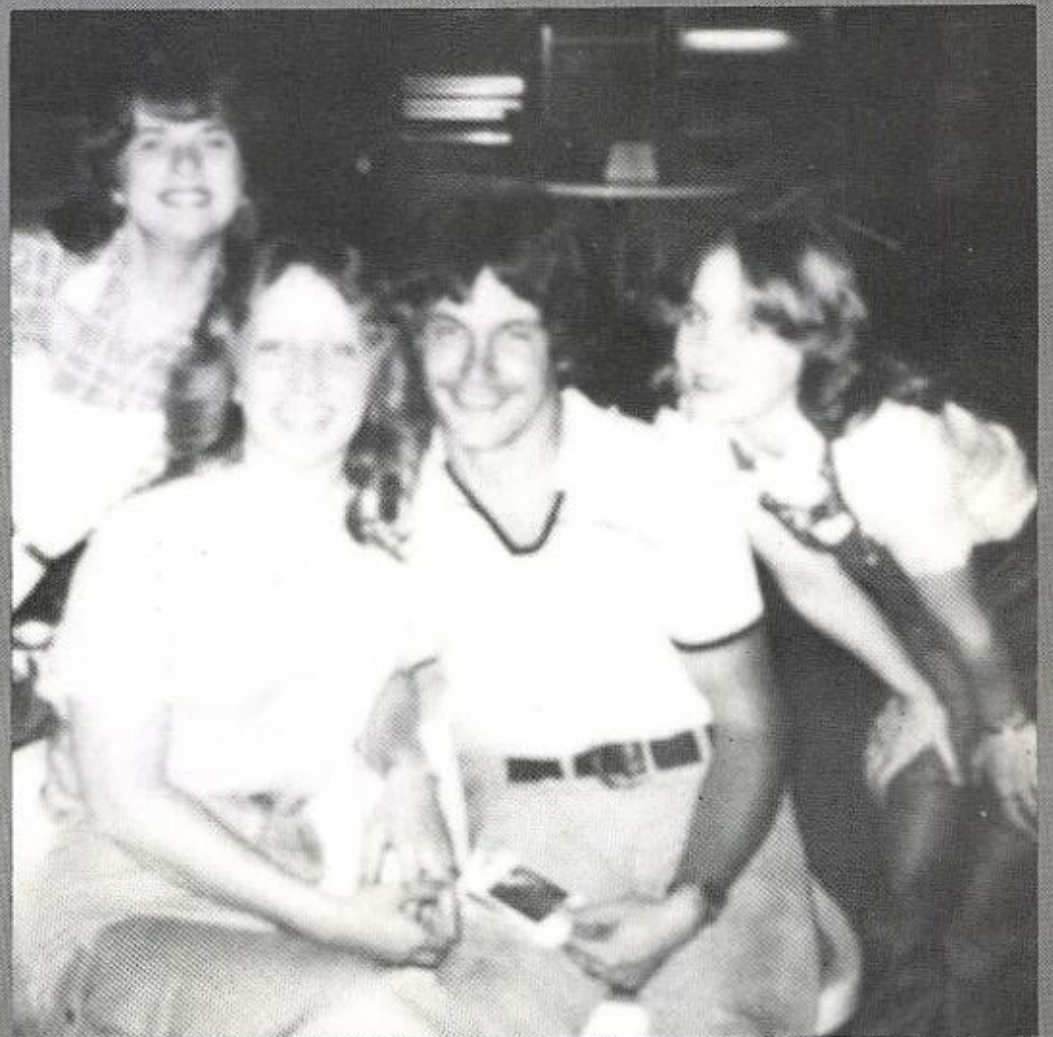

Hey baby, what are you doing later?

The All Night Party concluded the evening of fun. The setting for the party was Don Carter's All Star Lanes. Many people bowled and danced at the upstairs disco until breakfast was served at 2:30 A.M. After breakfast, they continued their fun and games until 5:30 A.M.

I'm so sexy. I'm so sexy. I'm so Sexy!!

Some people bowled at the All Night Party. Some people danced, and some people smiled for pictures.

Baccalaureate Mass

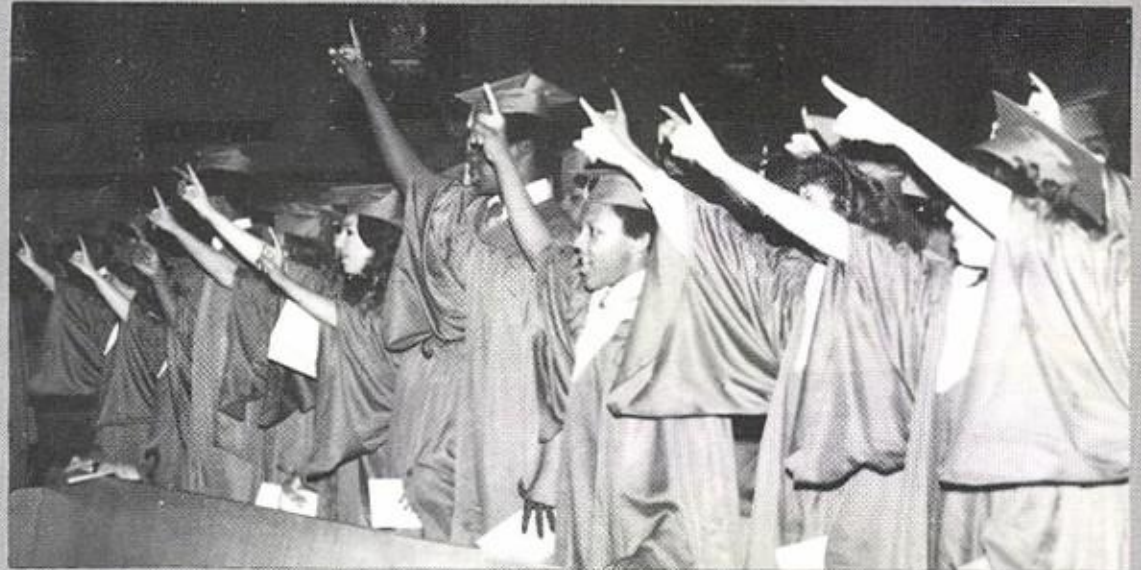

The Baccalaureate Mass at Saint Elizabeth Church was celebrated by Father Rick Tullius. Family and friends were invited to attend this occasion and to share with the Seniors their last Mass together.

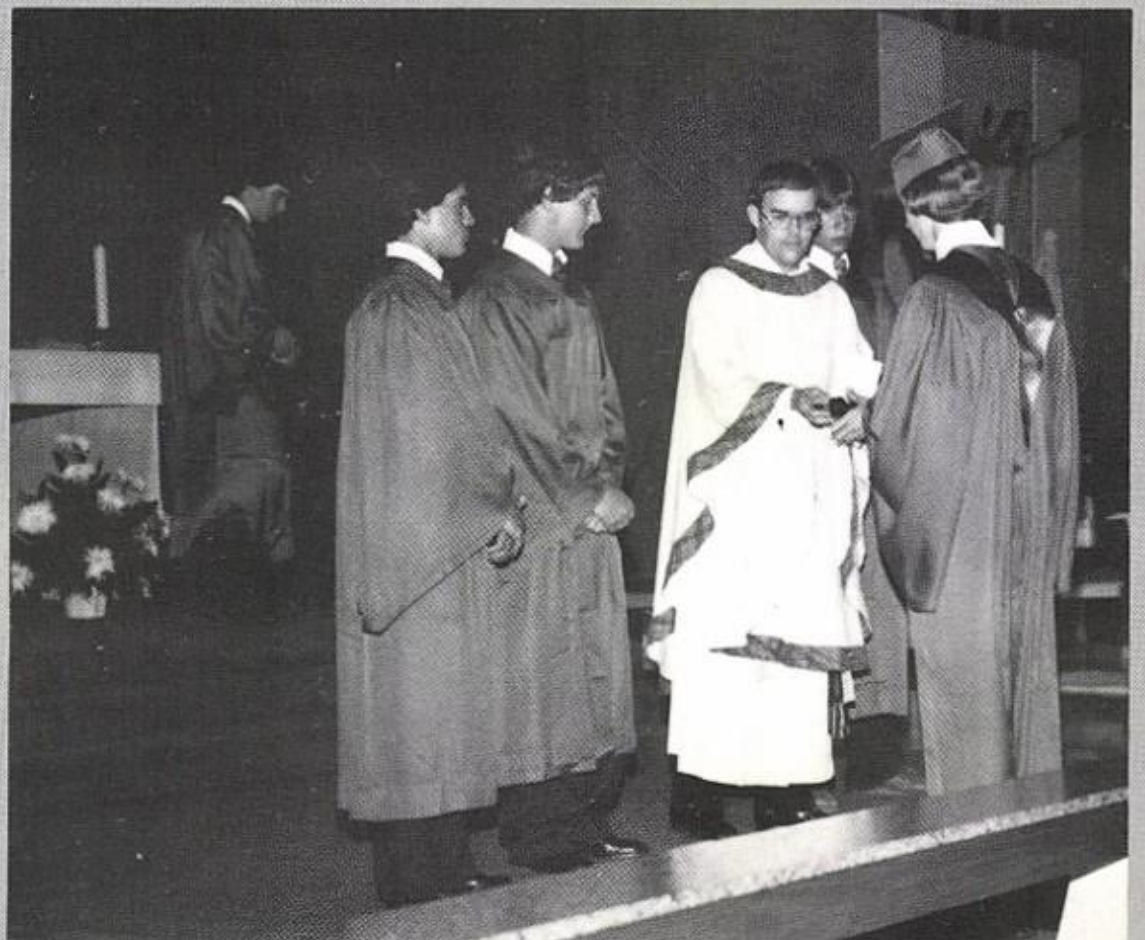

Does anybody know what to do next?

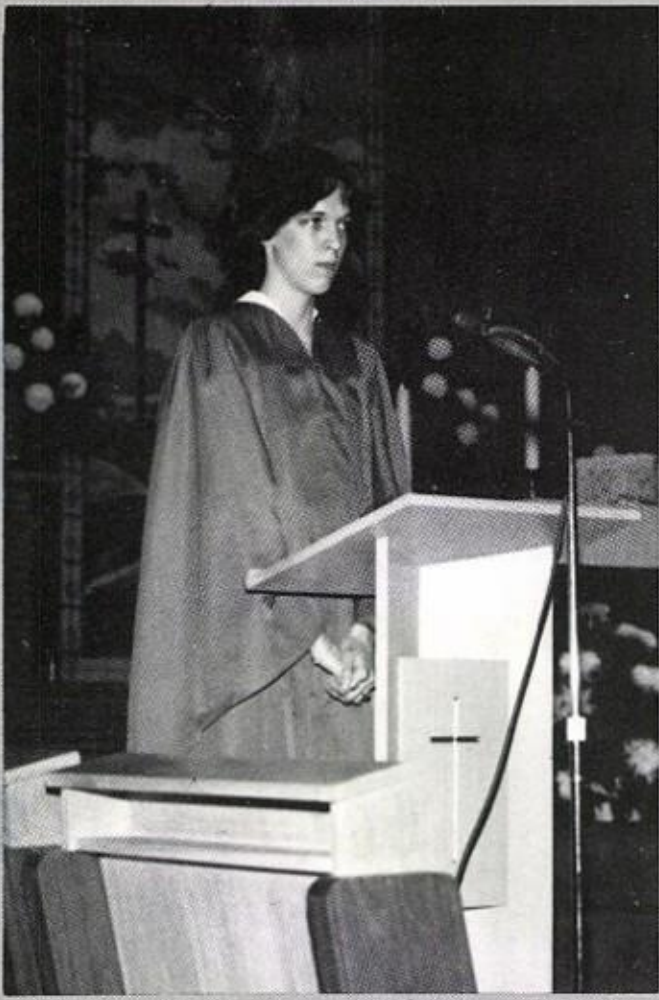

No one in their right mind would design a cap like this.

The Seniors sing the Alma Mater signifying the oneness of the class.

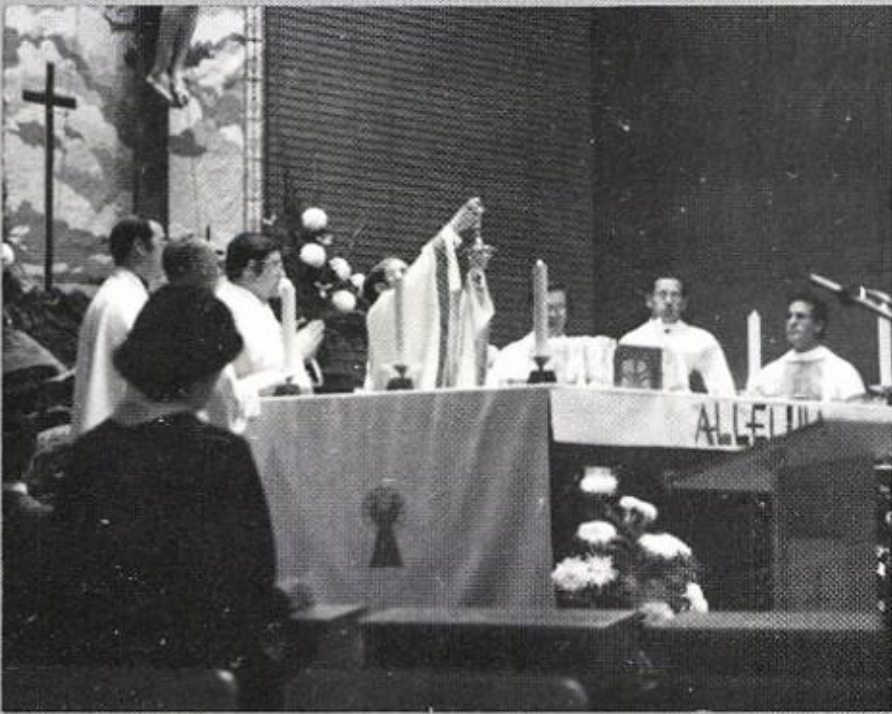

Richard Woessner offers a gavel to symbolize leadership.

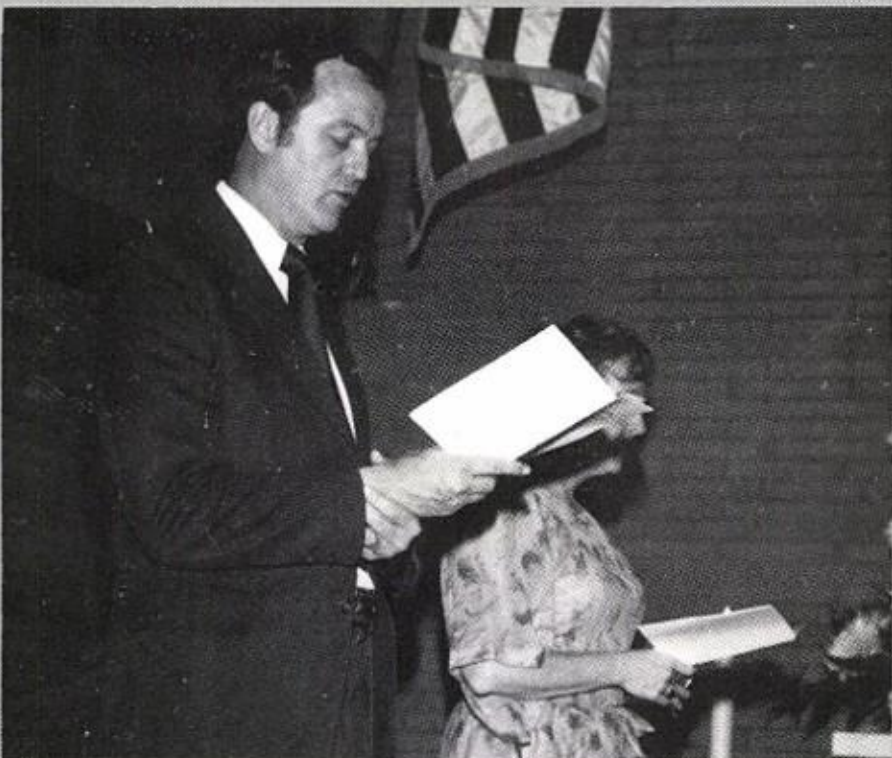

Marie Anderson was the Commentator for the Mass.

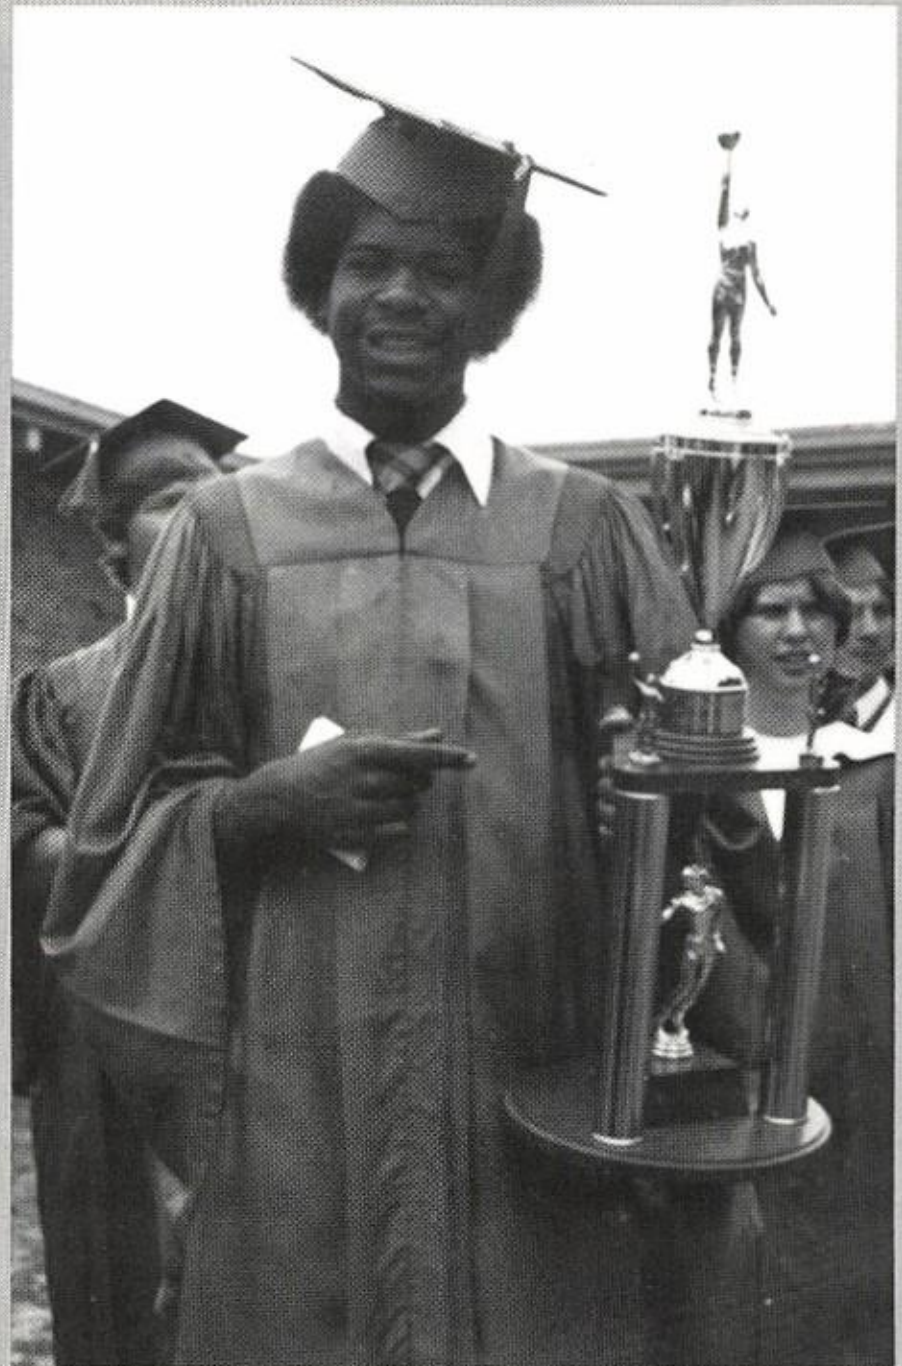

Outside the church, everyone tries to find his family and friends.

Father Rick consecrates the wine.

Mr. McGowan follows along in the program.

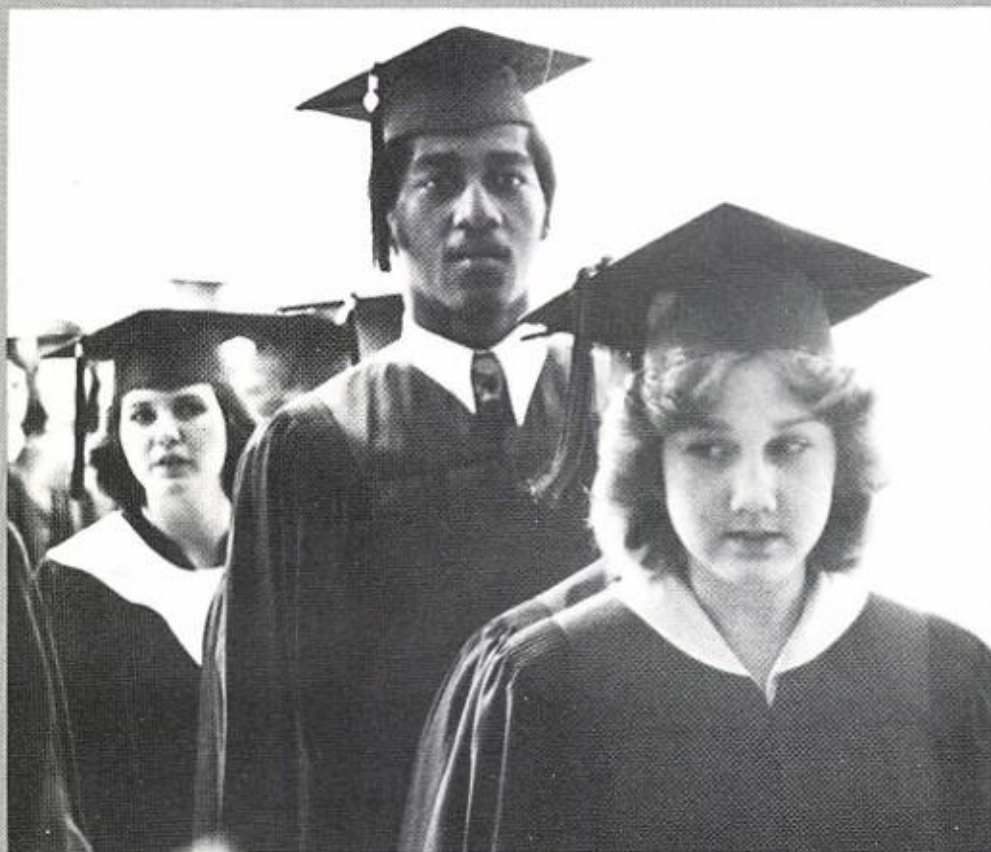

Is this for me?

Commencement Exercises . . .

Most Reverend Bishop Thomas Tschoepe conferred diplomas on the class of '79 at the Dallas Convention Center on May 21, 1979. Graduation was the culmination of many years of hard work, shared memories, and personal relationships. As the Seniors pursue different life styles, they will continue "... to grow in age and wisdom before God and man."

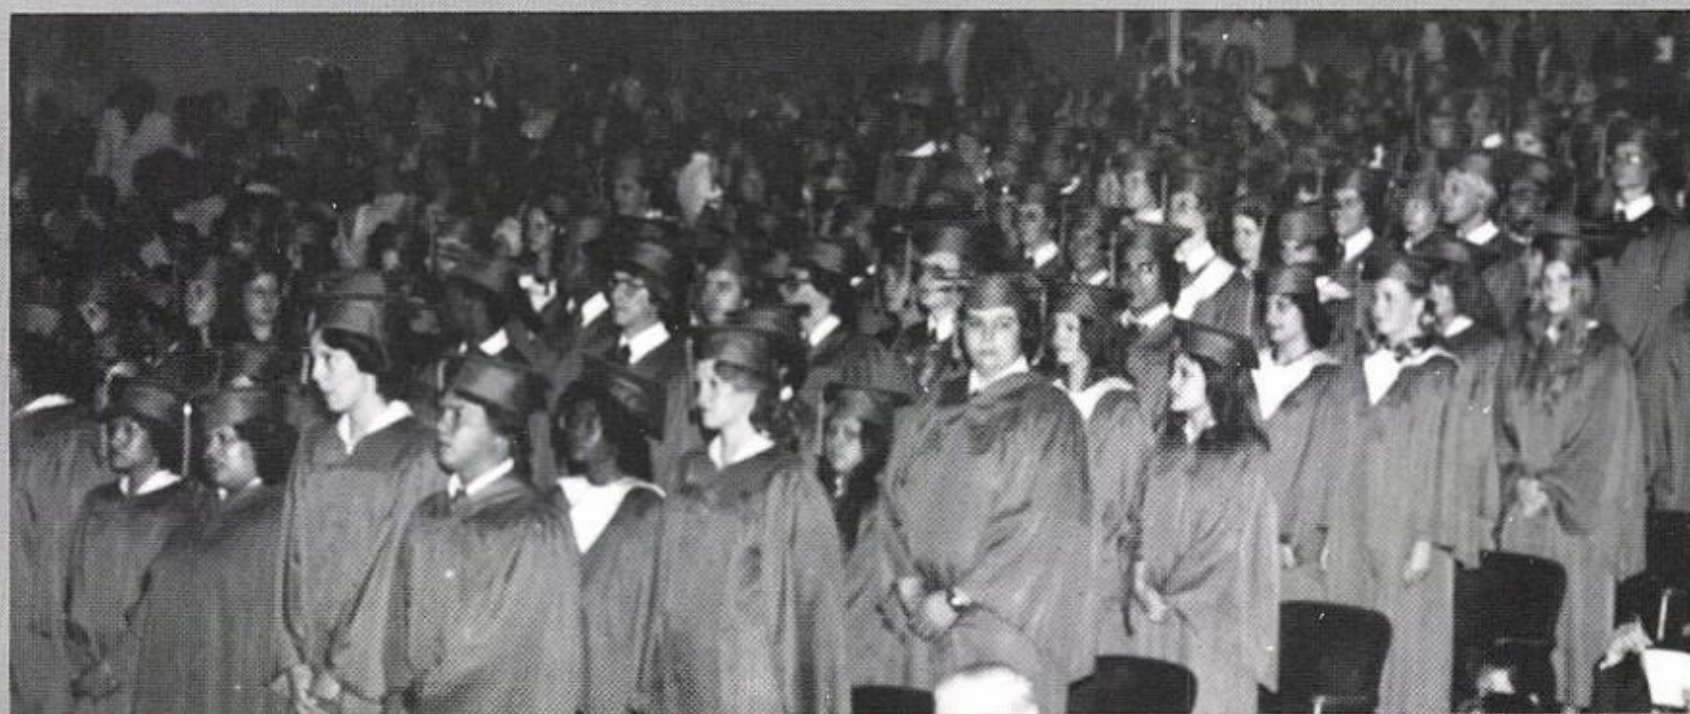

Laure Harkenrider introduces the Most Reverend Bishop Tschoepe.

Me and my shadow.

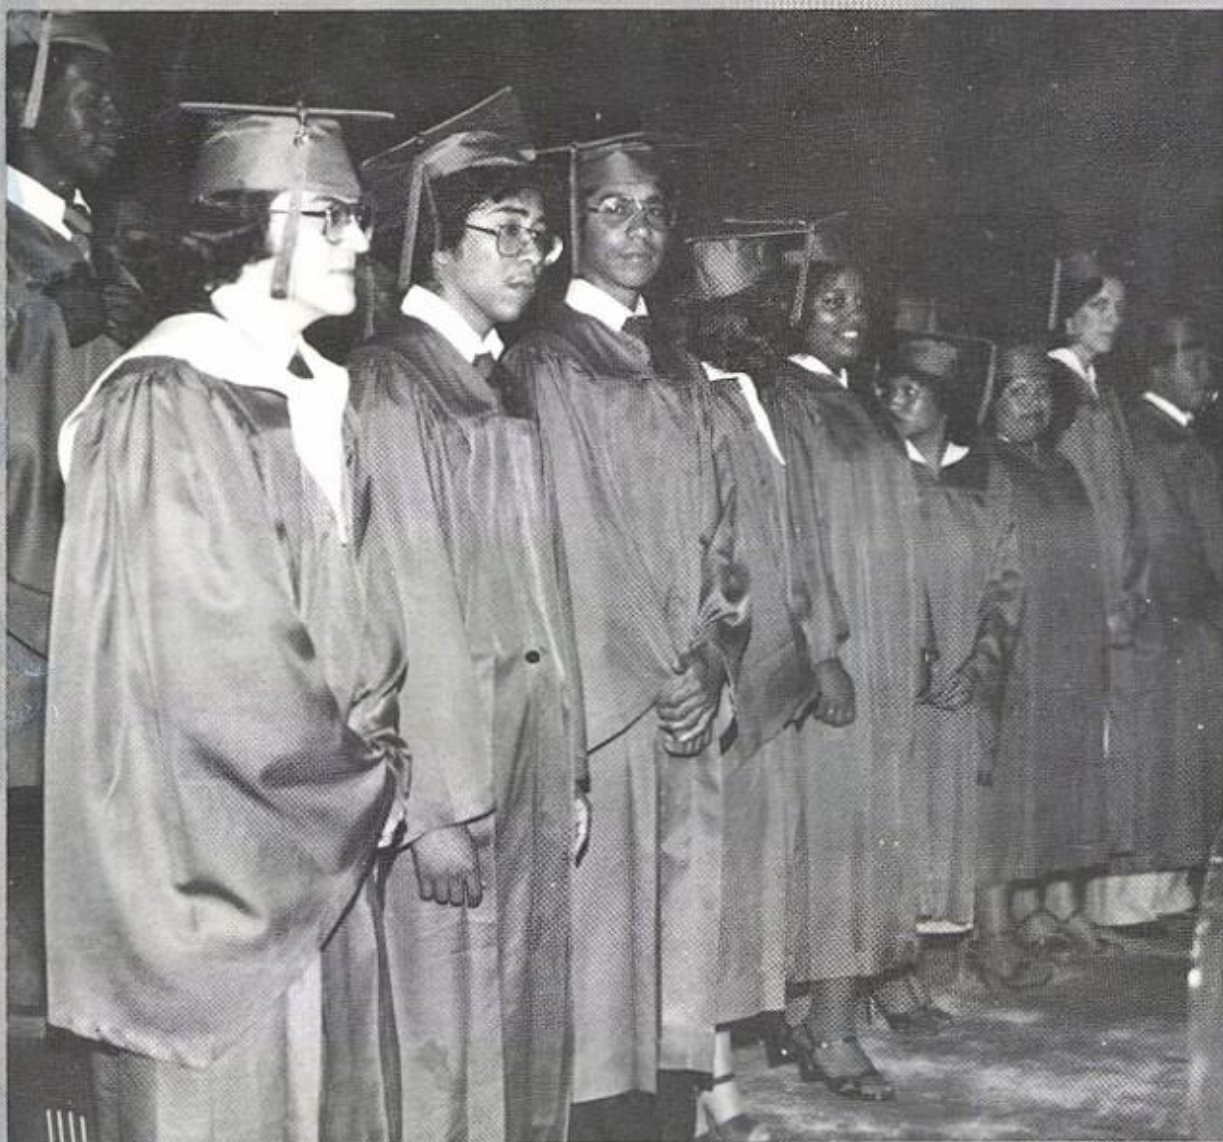

Laure Harkenrider was the Master of Ceremonies.

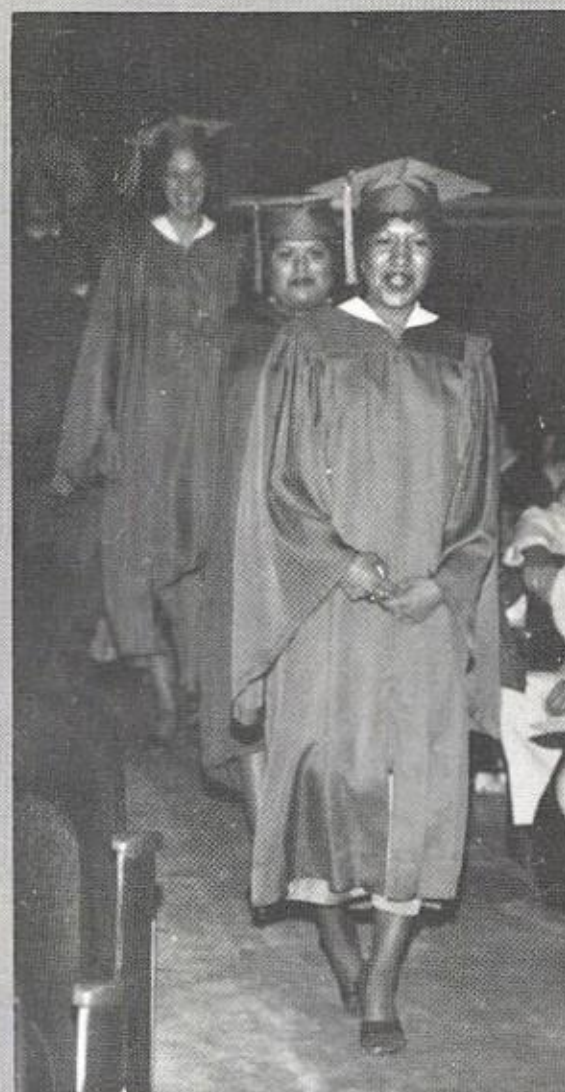

The graduating class of 1979.

The End of Our Time Together . . .

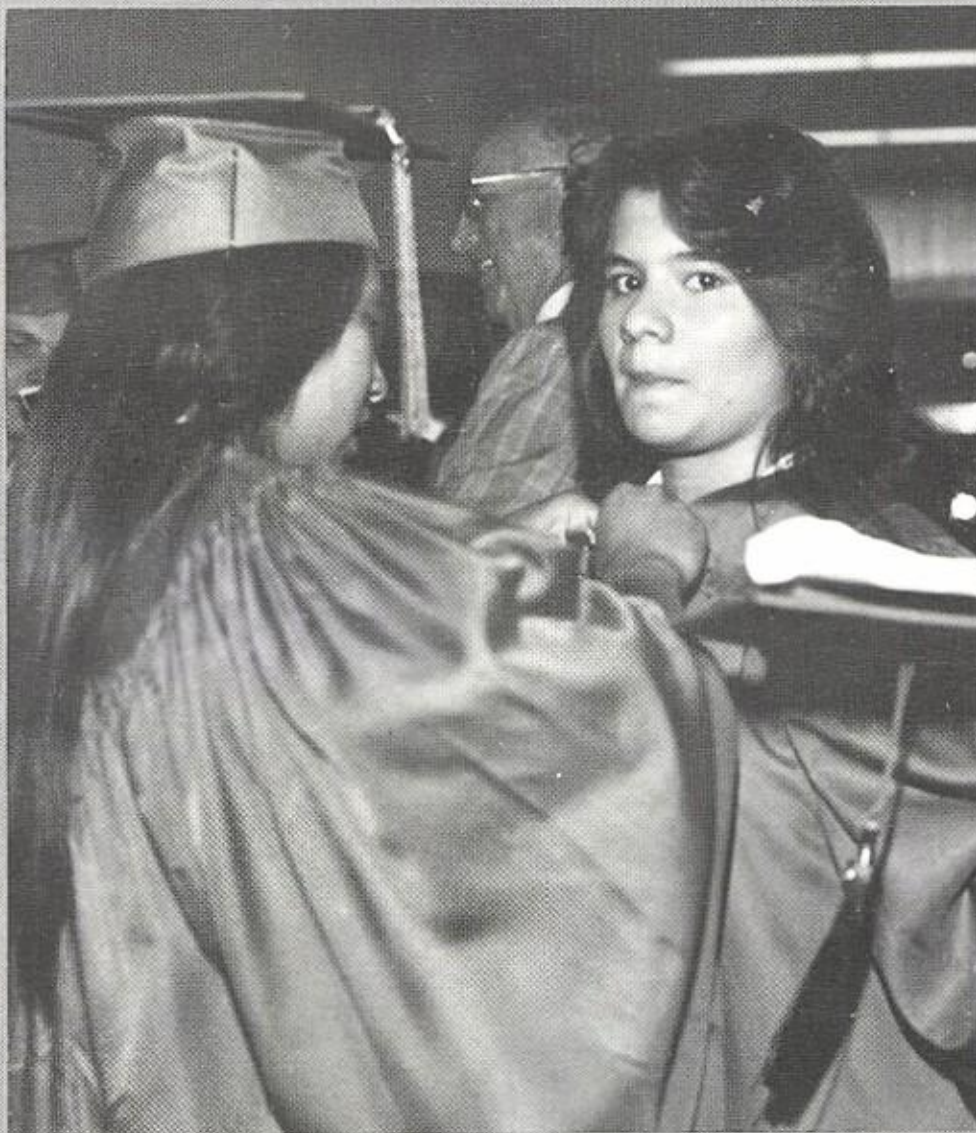

The front row waits anxiously for their diplomas.

I hope I don't trip.

Linda Odeh welcomes the guests to the commencement exercises.

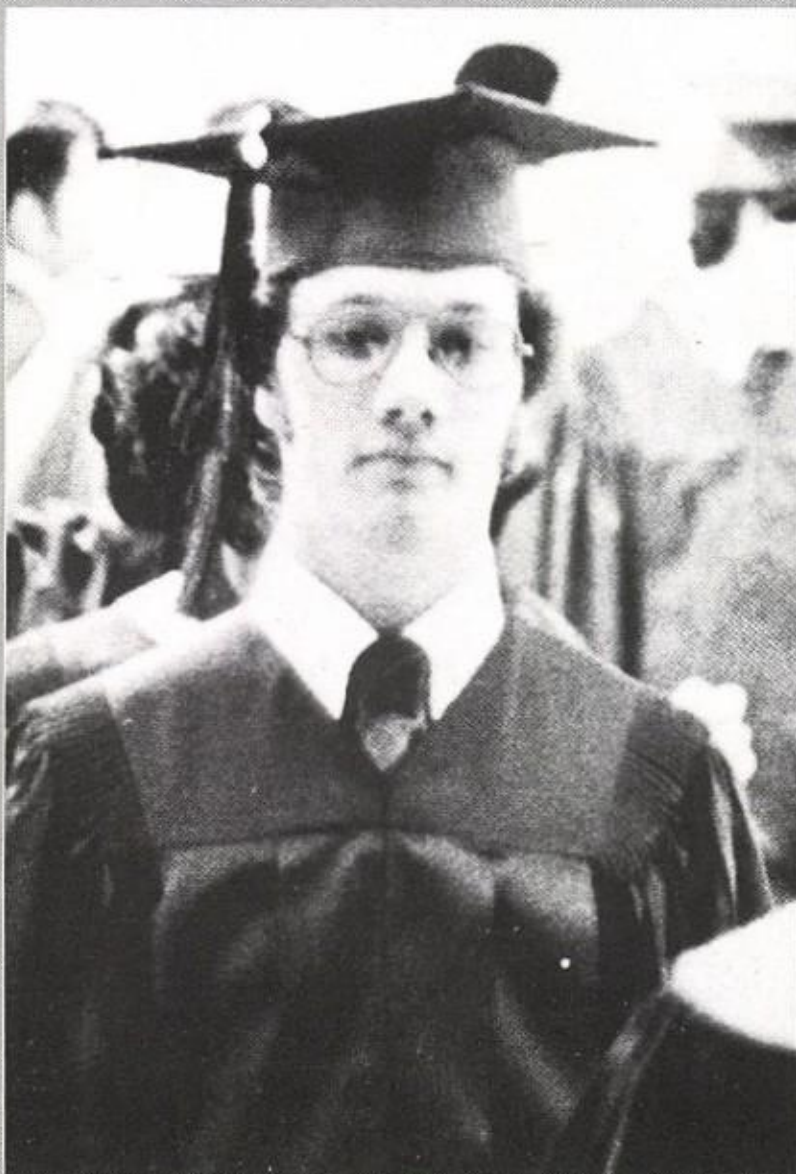

Are we in the right dressing room?

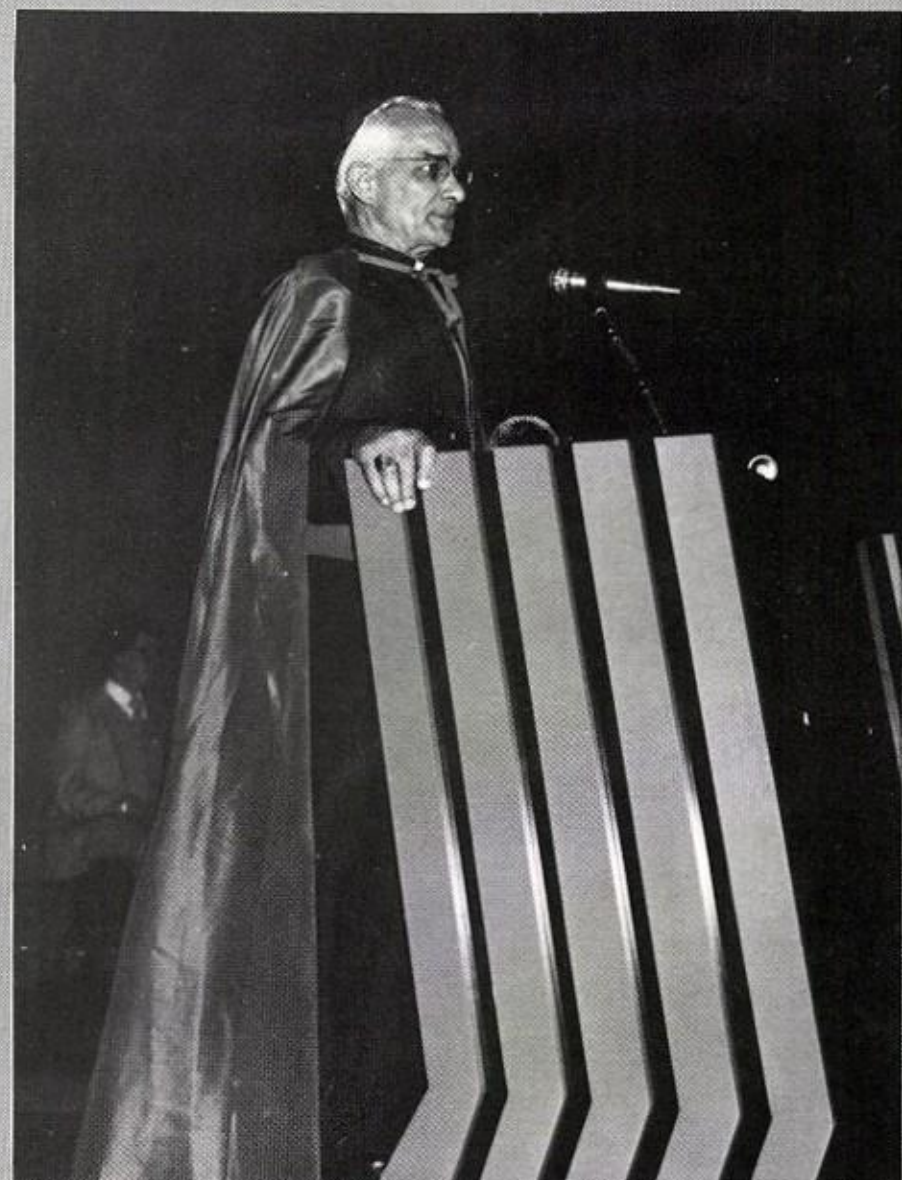

And So, . . .

The Alma Mater is sung for the final time.

The joy of graduating!

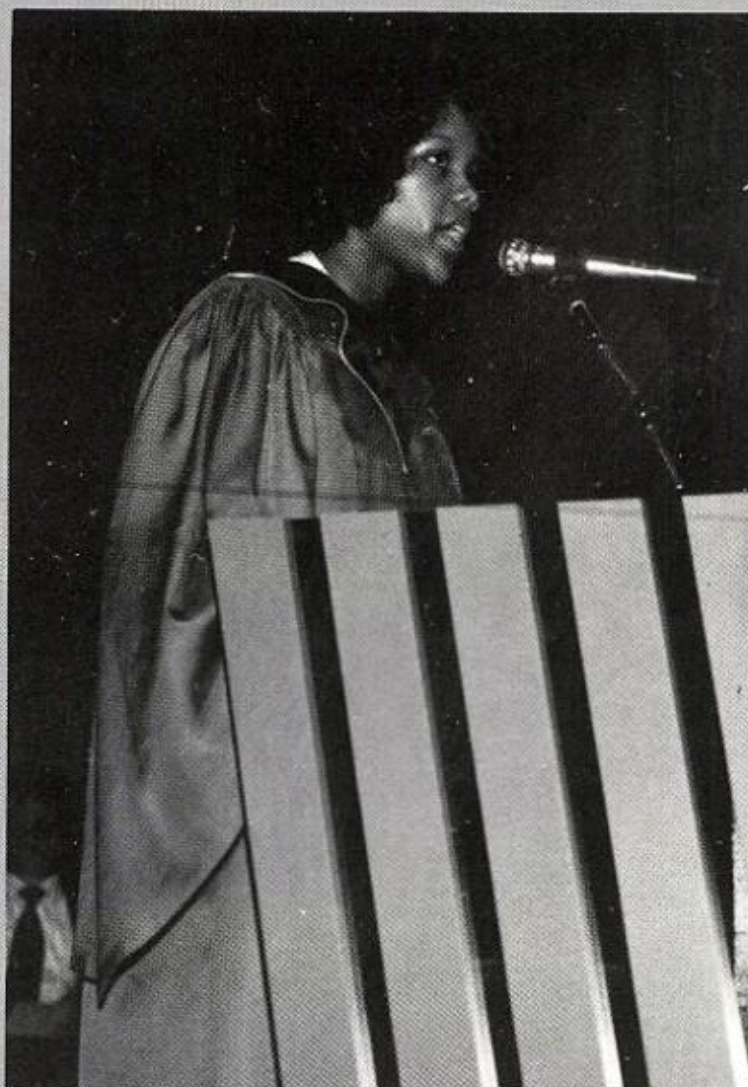

The Most Reverend Thomas Tschoepe says a few words to the congregation.

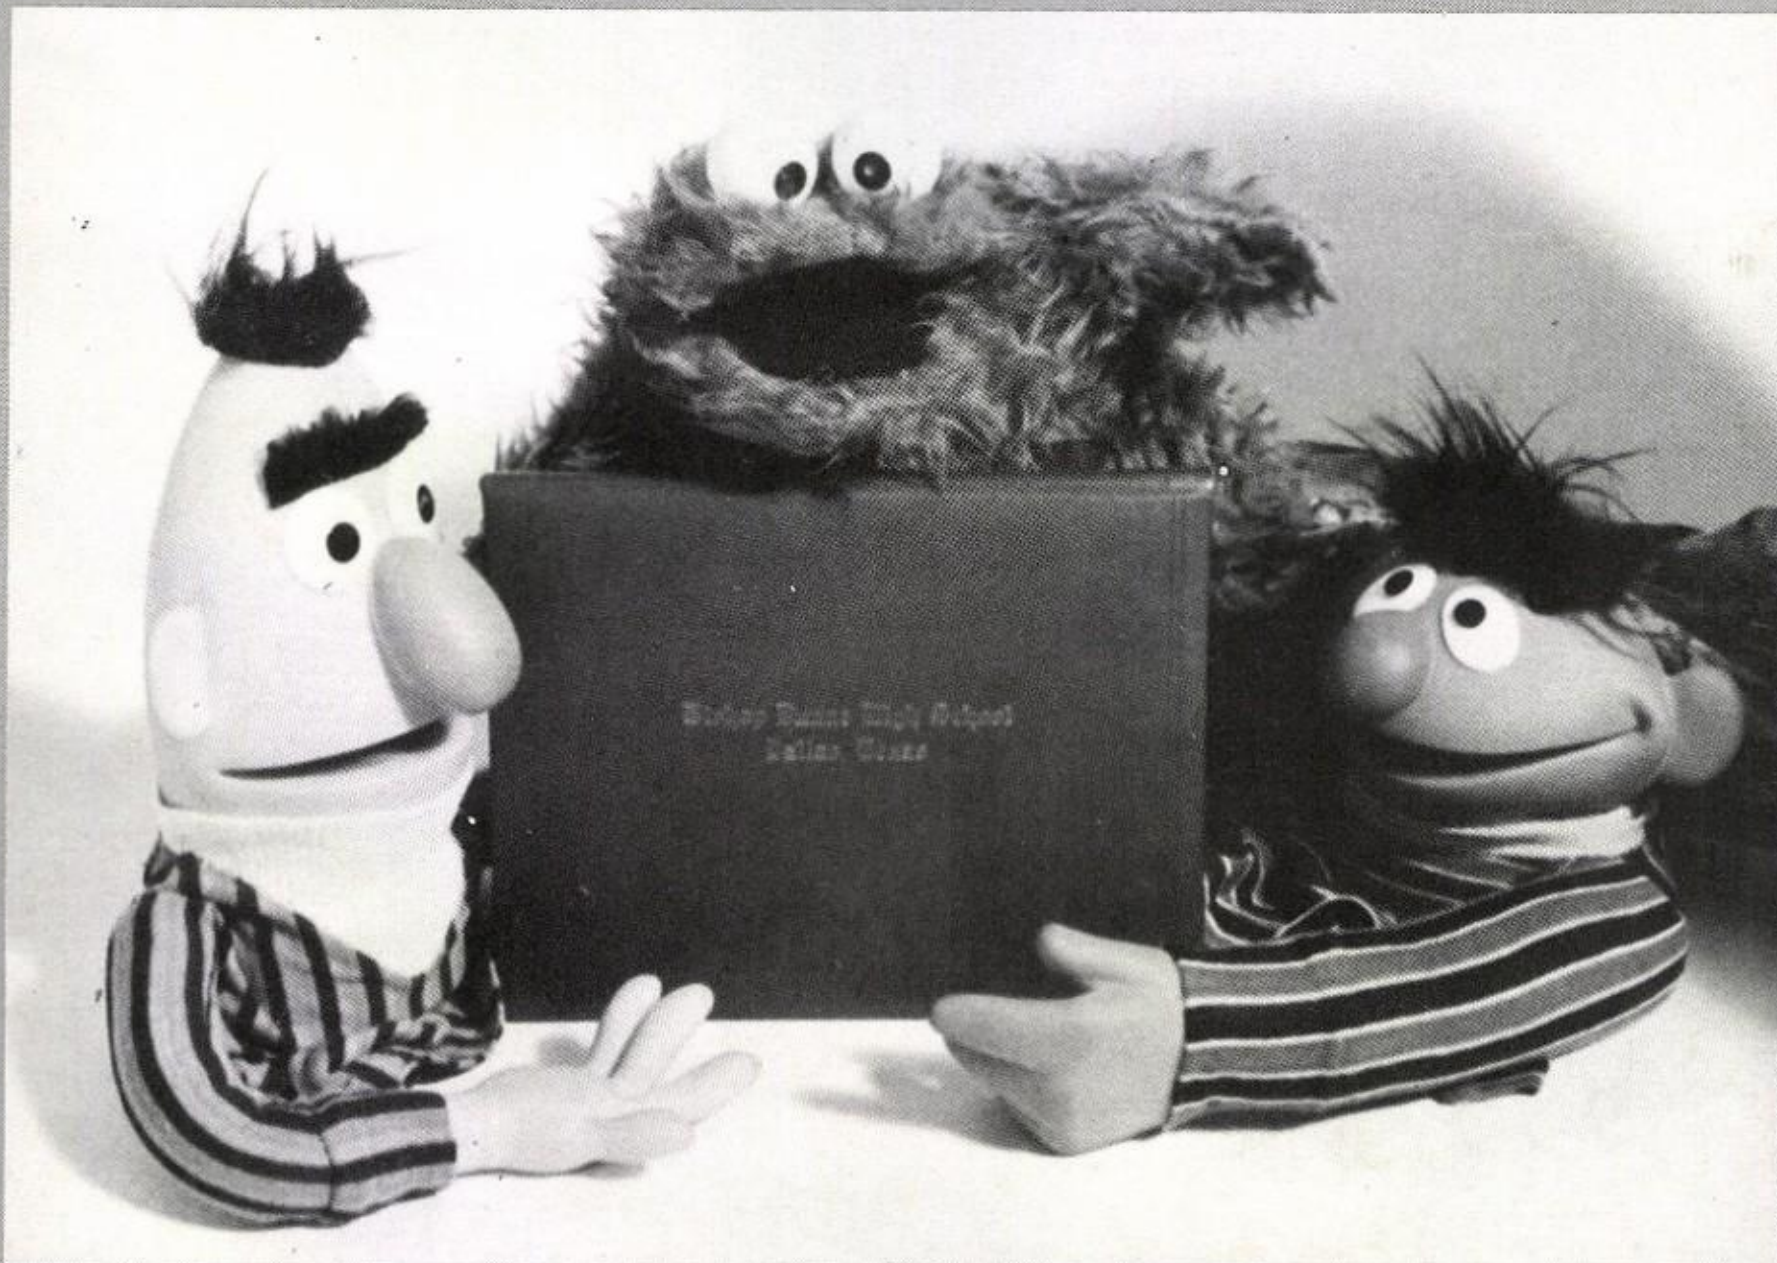

We Say Our Last Goodbye.

Laure presents a gift to Mrs. Hinkle on behalf of the Senior class.

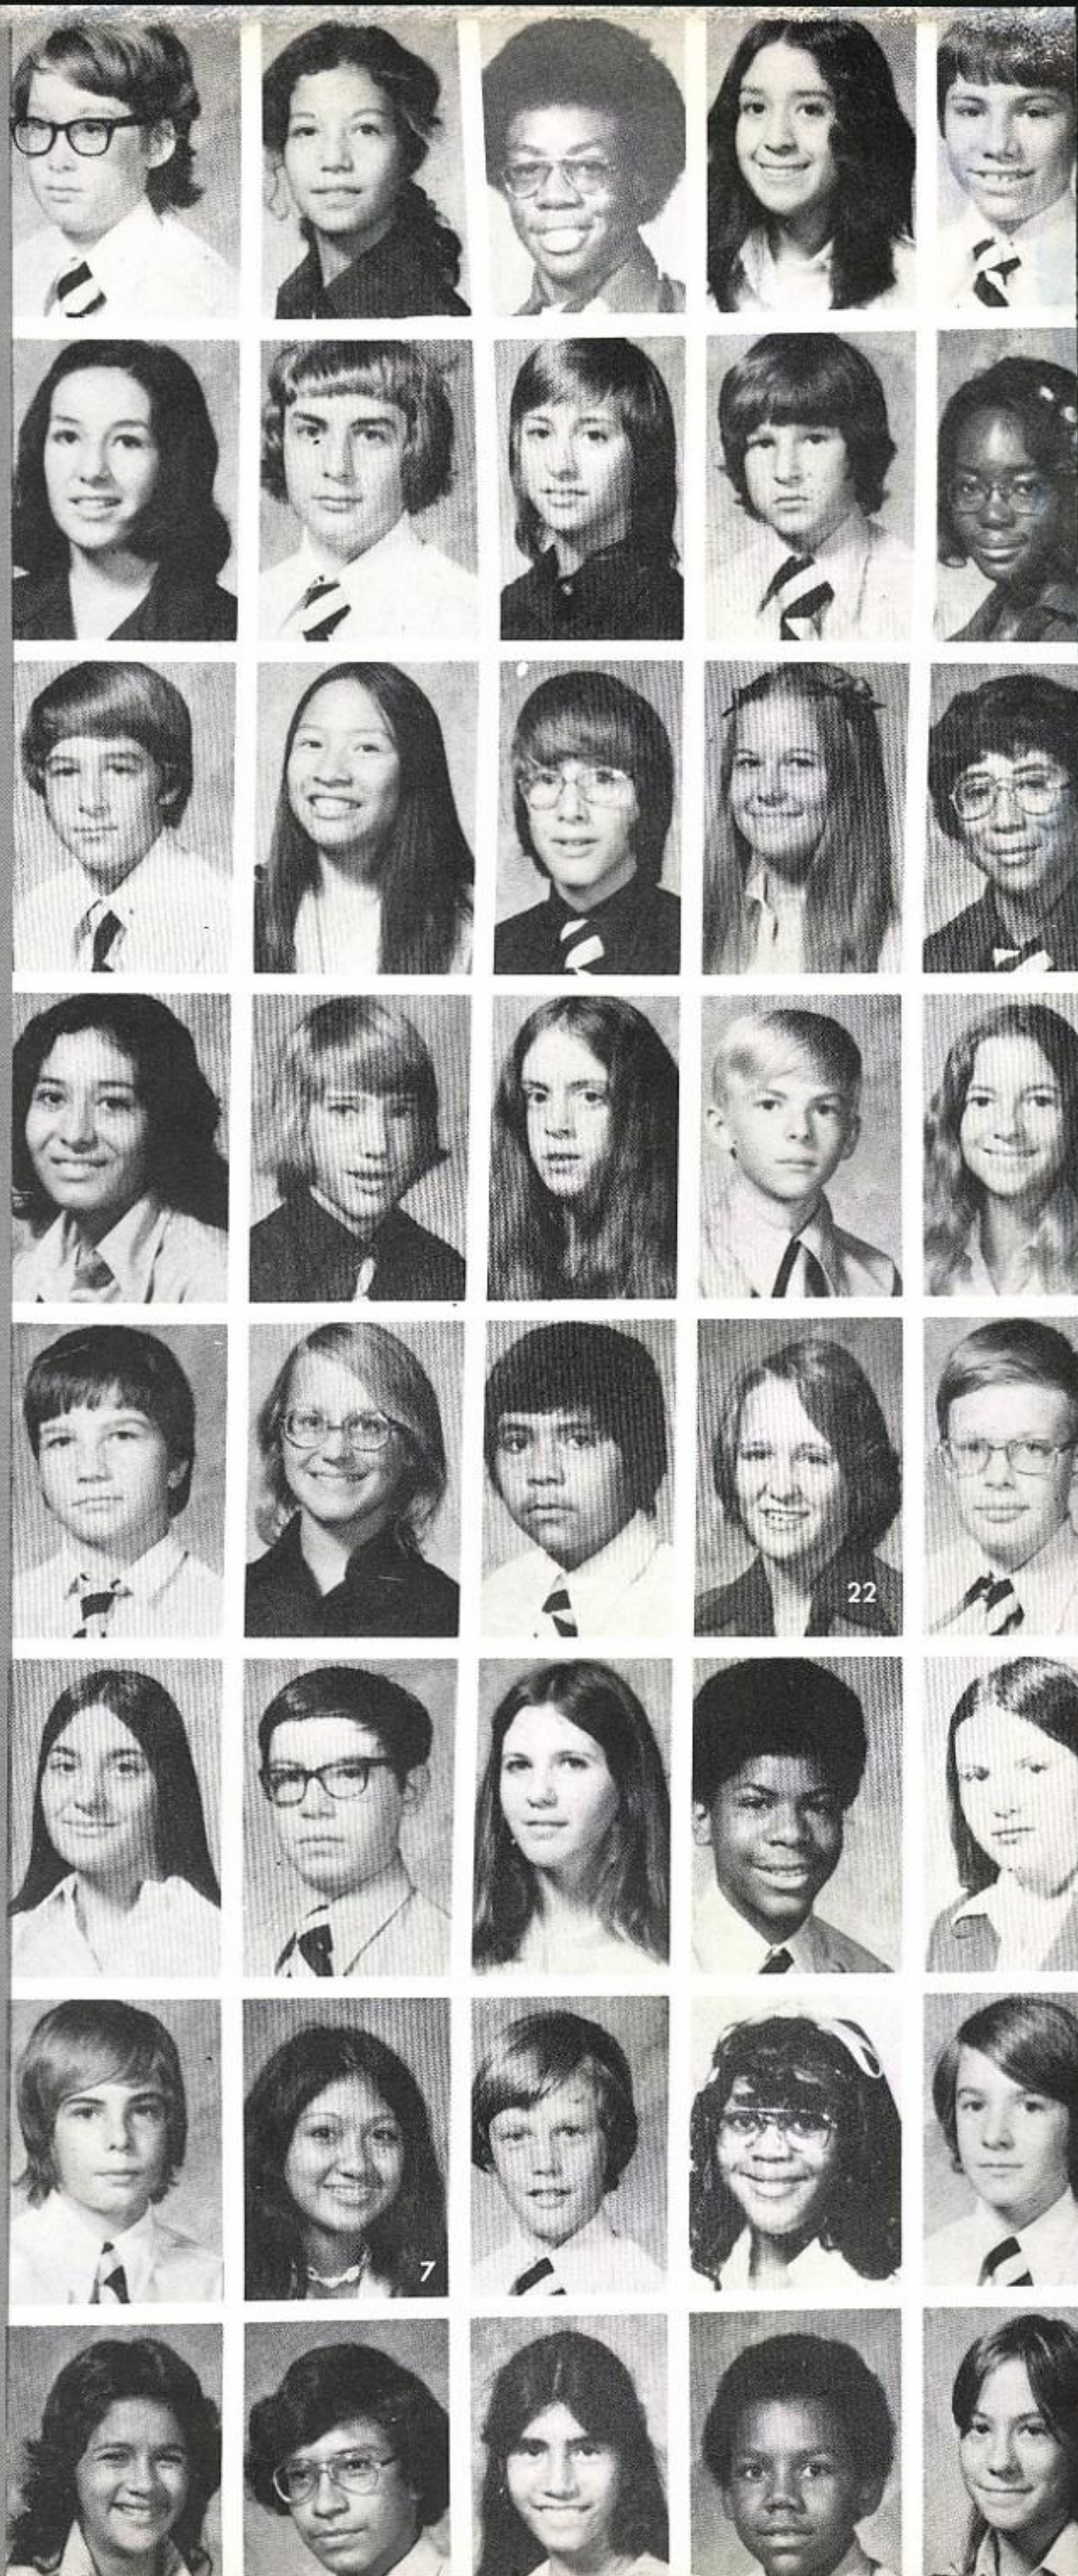

The valedictorian address was delivered by Veronica Smith.

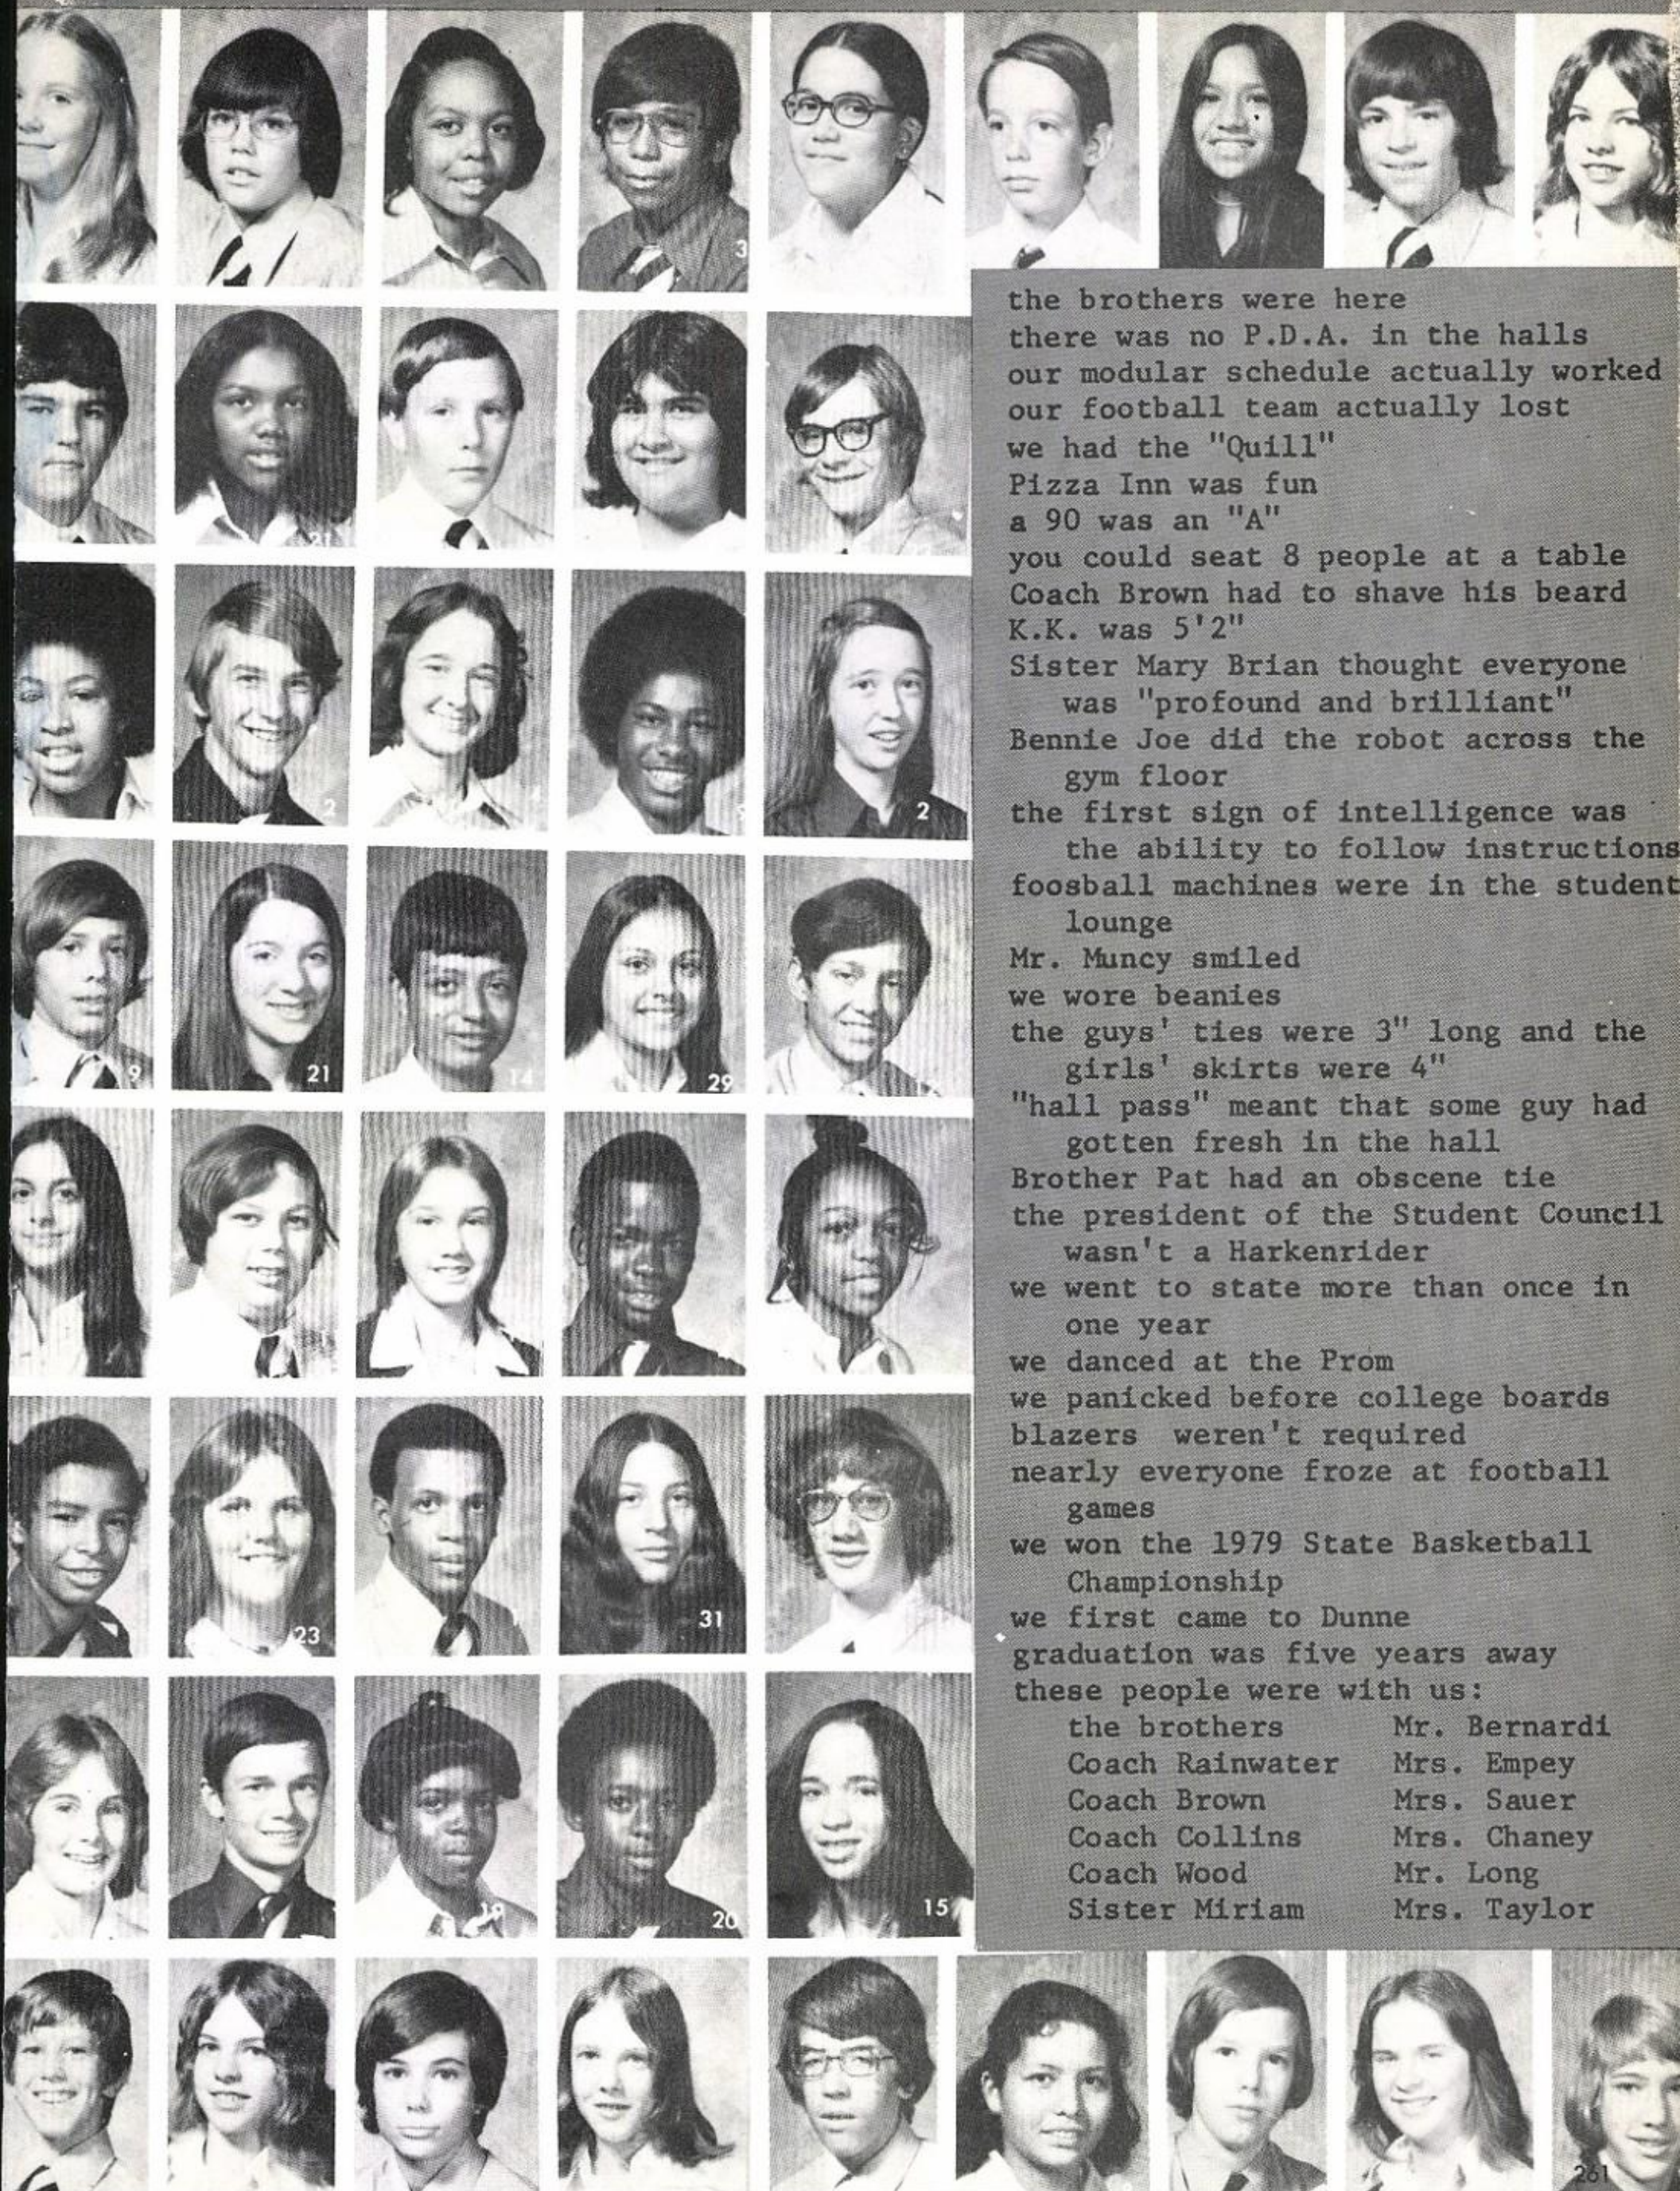

We've really worked hard for this, guys.

REMEMBER WHEN:

we had Mr. Rando's prayer and meditation class
 the guys sat on the opposite side of the room from the girls
 "the Bishop Dunne community" was a new phrase
 Larry wore a dress
 Dean had short hair the guys threw firecrackers into the restrooms
 everyone was a "mama"
 Elmo stalked the halls
 Mr. Dotterer or Sister Mary Brian gave "A's"
 Coach Collins didn't have a "quick one"
 the girls wore blue mascara and fingernail polish
 we had Brother Pat for freshmen world history
 we all had fun at the fair
 Mr. Tatum ran into the door in "Earf Science"
 we danced in the street at San Antonio
 Stanley got a "shag"
 Hector wasn't depressed
 Linda just had to talk to Coach
 Wright
 the roof only leaked a little Brother Pat's "you rip-a-deez,"
 "I rip-a-doz"
 you could go to the bathroom when you needed to Coach Woeber was the only one in the banana race at the senior girls' retreat any color socks were allowed the seniors always won the spirit jug
 none of the guys chewed tobacco Russell was "Wuss" the morning prayer didn't take all morning
 the eighth graders didn't bother
 the upperclassmen
 Dean was in homeroom on time
 Bennie Joe shot his first basket in a game
 Mr. Crook never smiled there wasn't a window broken anywhere in the school
 we had mini-mester

the brothers were here
 there was no P.D.A. in the halls our modular schedule actually worked our football team actually lost we had the "Quill"
 Pizza Inn was fun
 a 90 was an "A"
 you could seat 8 people at a table
 Coach Brown had to shave his beard
 K.K. was 5'2"
 Sister Mary Brian thought everyone was "profound and brilliant" Bennie Joe did the robot across the gym floor
 the first sign of intelligence was the ability to follow instructions foosball machines were in the student lounge
 Mr. Muncy smiled
 we wore beanies the guys' ties were 3" long and the girls' skirts were 4"
 "hall pass" meant that some guy had gotten fresh in the hall Brother Pat had an obscene tie the president of the Student Council wasn't a Harkenrider we went to state more than once in one year
 we danced at the Prom
 we panicked before college boards blazers weren't required nearly everyone froze at football games
 we won the 1979 State Basketball Championship
 we first came to Dunne graduation was five years away
 these people were with us:

the brothers	Mr. Bernardi
Coach Rainwater	Mrs. Empey
Coach Brown	Mrs. Sauer
Coach Collins	Mrs. Chaney
Coach Wood	Mr. Long
Sister Miriam	Mrs. Taylor

A Last Word . . .

Often the tasks were many and more than we thought we could do. But remembering the hills ahead are never as steep as they seem, we continued upward with hopes that our dream would be fulfilled. For with faith and courage to try, nothing in life that is worthy is ever too hard to achieve.

We would like to pause now and thank those people who helped make our dream a reality:

Our photographers

Our staff

Our section editors

A special thanks to:

Linda Odeh, Alma Sims, and Nancy Aiton

Mrs. Sharon Moran.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Diane Cooper. Her dedication, understanding, and faith in us not only helped us complete this book, but also helped us fulfill ourselves as individuals.

It was the inspiration of their faith and help, that was greater than our knowledge or skill, which turned our defeats into triumphs, and our dreams into a completed book of memories for the class of 1979.

WORLD WIDE DELIVERY

... And it came to pass That the '79
Seniors of Bishop Dunne High School bid each other farewell. Their accomplishments were many. Including the annihilation of the D'Void of Funk Jebbees of Jesuit. But now there's a new horizon brilliantly shining along the corridors of space and time. May all of you find your way through the intricate maze of what they call Life.
